Community Relations

BEYOND FOOTBALL: ATLANTA FALCONS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Atlanta Falcons create a winning team off the field by building a strong bond in the community. Each year the club typically logs more service hours and makes more community appearances than most other NFL teams. Through the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation, the team contributes more than $1 million to promote fitness and fight youth obesity in Georgia. Players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association all contribute to making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

ATLANTA FALCONS YOUTH FOUNDATION

Established in 1985, the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF) serves as the philanthropic arm of the Atlanta Falcons. Since Arthur Blank acquired the club in 2002, AFYF has grown to be the largest owner-funded foundation in the National Football League, providing more than $16 million in grants to non-profit organizations across Georgia.

AFYF is taking the issue of childhood obesity head on by investing in non-profit organizations statewide that are moving school-age kids to spend more time every day in organized physical activity. Its signature program, Falcons Fitness Zones, works in partnership with the Metro Atlanta YMCA, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Atlanta, the YWCA of Greater Atlanta, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hall County and other select organizations to expand existing physical fitness programs for youth and to create new opportunities that move kids from sedentary to active. Presently, there are nearly 50 program sites operating across five Fitness Zones, reaching more than 10,000 youth year-round. Falcons players and cheerleaders make regular visits to the Fitness Zones, where they engage kids in physical activities and emphasize the benefits of exercise and proper diet. As role models for many of the children in the Zones, Falcons players and cheerleaders can have a strong influence in changing the behaviors that lead to childhood obesity. There are four Fitness Zones in the City of Atlanta and one in Hall County, home to the Atlanta Falcons.

AFYF also provides grants to non-profit organizations that are focused on improving the physical development of Georgia's youth and increasing the amount of time kids spend in organized physical activity year-round. These grants support youth football and cheerleading programs, other sports and fitness activities and healthy lifestyle programs. Key investments in 2009 include grants to the First Tee of Atlanta and First Tee of East Lake, to create opportunities for more young people to experience youth development through golf. AFYF investments also brought the Cal Ripken Sr., Foundation into Atlanta, where it is partnering with the After- School All-Stars and the Metro Atlanta YMCA to engage young people in physical activity and wellness programming. Also in 2009, AFYF partnered with Kids & Pros to bring a week-long football camp to kids living in downtown Atlanta. Run by former Falcons players and other former pros, the camp teaches character and development through sports.

FIRST DOWN FOR FITNESS

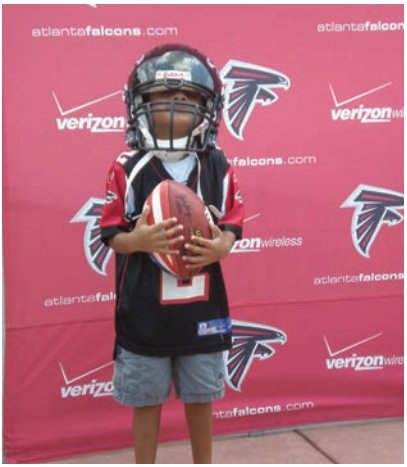
FALCONS FIRST DOWN FOR FITNESS

In its fourth year, the Falcons First Down for Fitness program is designed to challenge students in grades three through seven to participate in fitness activities and lead a healthy lifestyle. In collaboration with the American Heart Association, the Southeast United Dairy Industry Association and the NFL's "Play 60" campaign, this incentive based program rewards participants for being active at least 60 minutes a day, three days a week for two months. In 2009, nearly 33,000 students and over 150 teachers across the state participated in the program.

FALCONS FITNESS FLAG CREW

During each Atlanta Falcons home game, 60 participants are selected to assist in unfurling an oversized 40 yard by 40 yard Falcons flag as a part of the Falcons game day experience right before kickoff. These participants are made up of schools, military bases, youth football teams and civic/ non-profit organizations. The Falcons Fitness Flag Crew offers individuals the opportunity to partake in pre-game aerobic activities led by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, an on-field rehearsal and the opportunity to visit Falcons Landing. By the conclusion of each experience, participants log nearly two miles of walking.

ATLANTA FALCONS TRAINING CAMP YOUTH WEEKEND



Hundreds of young fans participated in Atlanta Falcons Training Camp Youth Weekend during the first weekend of camp. Activities were open to children ages 17 and under and held one hour before each open practice. In 2009, Youth Weekend activities included: daily autograph sessions with Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, "Look

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

Like A Pro" where children had the chance to try on authentic Falcons equipment, "Show Your Spirit Day," which offered children wearing a football jersey or cheerleading uniform a mini-football or pom-pom, "Jersey Frenzy," which allowed young fans the chance to win an autographed jersey and "Hats Off," which allowed young fans the chance to win an autographed authentic helmet.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Atlanta Falcons conduct Gatorade Junior Training Camps in schools and parks across Georgia with a special emphasis on introducing youth to the fundamentals of football through basic drills as well as exposure to hydration maintenance. In 2009, nearly 40 camps were conducted across the state and an estimated 5,000 children had the opportunity to participate.

EXTRA YARD PARTNERSHIP

Dating back to 2003, the Extra Yard Partnership Program provides an opportunity for Atlanta Falcons players to connect directly with military groups, youth groups and non-profit organizations throughout the State of Georgia. Through the Extra Yard Partnership Program, a player or player's foundation purchases 40 season tickets and t-shirts for a charity group. In 2009, 34 Falcons players participated.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

This season marked the 11th year of the NFL and United Way's partnership and celebration of Hometown Huddle. On this day, all 32 teams around the league participate in several community and volunteer activities. The entire Falcons roster and several Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders made surprise appearances at eight stops around downtown and the metro Atlanta area. Four stops included schools where players and cheerleaders participated in physical fitness activities with students and the other four stops included a retirement community and local landmarks around the city.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

The Atlanta Falcons players made over 700 community appearances around the state of Georgia during the past year. A few of the most unforgettable visits included a fishing excursion off of Lake Lanier Islands with Purple Heart recipients and a Black Hawk helicopter ride to Fort Benning Army Base to thank the military for their service. Additional visits throughout the community included: neighboring elementary and middle schools, Atlanta area hospitals, numerous homeless shelters and local libraries.

FALCAN FOOD DRIVE

As a standing tradition, each year the Atlanta Falcons partner with the Atlanta Community Food Bank for the annual FalCan Food Drive. In 2009, the Falcons extended its partnership by teaming up with Publix Super Markets. In total, nearly 4,500 pounds of food and just over $6,000 were collected to help provide groceries to those in need during the holiday season.

BALL BOY MENTORING PROGRAM

In its eighth year, the Ball Boy program has provided opportunities for teenage boys from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Hall County to assist the Falcons equipment staff and interact with players during training camp and throughout the season. Falcons players serve as mentors to these young men through regular meetings that provide boys the opportunity to talk to the players about schoolwork, home life and other things that may be affecting their lives.

ATLANTA FALCONS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

This past season was filled with several events and volunteer opportunities for the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association. The season kicked off with a luncheon at Chateau Élan that featured the latest fall fashion trends provided by Macy's Department Stores. Over the course of the season, members had major roles in the following initiatives: annual t-shirt and pillowcase paint at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, Falcons Football Academy, the FalCan Food Drive and the Toys for Tots Drive.

ATLANTA FALCONS CHEERLEADERS

Everyone knows that the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders perform at each home game, but what most may not know is that in 2009 the cheerleaders appeared at over 350 community events across the state of Georgia. These events included stops at hospitals, schools, homeless shelters and even military bases to name a few.

TOYS FOR TOTS PRESENTED BY O'REILLY AUTO PARTS

Falcons fans supported the 2009 Atlanta Falcons Toys for Tots Drive in record fashion. With donations of over 2,000 toys and more than $23,000, together the Atlanta Falcons and the U.S. Marine Corps were able to provide deserving families with special toys during the holiday season.

FREDDIE FALCON

Fan favorite and team mascot, Freddie Falcon, made over 250 appearances in 2009 not only in his hometown of Atlanta, but all over the country. He represented the Atlanta Falcons in Miami at both the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIV and even went to Hong Kong with the NFL for the Chinese New Year. Freddie's visits include pep rallies, assemblies at local schools and children's hospitals.

TOYS FOR TOTS

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

The Atlanta Falcons Community Quarterback Award honors volunteers in Georgia (ages 13 and over) who exemplify leadership and dedication to bettering their communities. Many organizations rely on quality volunteers to create and facilitate programs that benefit countless lives throughout Georgia. The Community Quarterback award is designed to recognize and reward these volunteers. Four winners are recognized on-field during a home game and each winning organization receives a $2,000 grant.

ATLANTA FALCONS JUNIOR CHEERLEADERS

In 2009, girls ages 5-16 had the opportunity to cheer for their home team by participating in the Atlanta Falcons Junior Cheerleaders Program. Participants of the program receive many great things including: a game day uniform, pom poms, a practice t-shirt, three instructional clinics taught by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders and a tailgate party on performance day. Nearly 300 girls performed in front of tens of thousands of fans during halftime of a Falcons home game. Participants also helped support Rally 4 Quarters 4 Research, a change collection program, in which all the proceeds directly benefit childhood cancer research. The girls collected nearly $900 that helped support the Rally Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research.

PLAYER HOLIDAY OUTREACH

The holiday season is filled with various opportunities for Falcons players to get involved and give back to the less fortunate. During the 2009 holiday season, there were several events. The Atlanta Falcons Rookie Club, sponsored by United Healthcare of Georgia, served a special Thanksgiving meal to those less fortunate at Crossroads Community Ministries. They also treated several children from the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Atlanta and Minds in Motion Inc. to a holiday shopping spree at a local Wal-Mart. The Atlanta Falcons offensive line also hosted its inauguaral "Shop with the O-Line" event. This event treated 40 children from a local shelter to a shopping spree and a special holiday meal.

ARTHUR BLANK

OWNER & CEO

When the stadium scoreboard clock expired at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Florida, on January 3, 2010, the city of Atlanta and the Falcons organization breathed a collective sigh of relief.

The Falcons entered the final game of the 2009 season needing to defeat NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay to record back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history.

Atlanta employed a stingy defense, which limited the Buccaneers to just 40 yards rushing while ramping up its own punishing run game powered by backup tailback Jason Snelling's 147-yard effort en route to defeating Tampa Bay 20-10.

A milestone – one that had eluded the franchise for 44 years – had finally come to fruition, and no one was more happy about this development than Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank.

"The way our coaches and players finished the season, with three straight wins, says a lot about the character and resolve of our team," Blank said. "With our playoff hopes already dashed, this team fought hard to prove it is a strong contender in the NFL. It was a great moment for our franchise and our fans, and we're looking forward to many more exciting moments in the coming years."

This major accomplishment was but a small step in the larger picture for Blank, the passionate, high-profile owner who has not wavered from his goal and vision for the Atlanta Falcons since acquiring the club in 2002: a Super Bowl championship for the city of Atlanta.

Blank, who has continued to raise the bar and level of expectations for the Falcons, has constructed a talented and creative team to lead his club both on and off the field.

General Manager Thomas Dimitroff is the personnel point man for an organization whose roster is filled with future Pro Bowl players deliberately hand-picked by Dimitroff and his staff. Those players are then led by third-year Head Coach Mike Smith, the fiery former defensive coordinator who has turned the Dome into a house of horrors for the visiting team by posting an intimidating 13-3 home record during his tenure.

Dimitroff, the 2008 Sporting News Executive of the Year, and Smith, the 2008 Associated Press Coach of the Year, are equally committed to making the Falcons perennial playoff contenders.

"Thomas and Mike work closely and very well together," Blank said. "The Falcons are fortunate in that regard; these two men may not always have the same views, but they share a common vision of success for our club. Combined with team President Rich McKay, who provides strong support to Thomas and Smitty, and leads our front office operations, we have a very strong leadership team that is second to none in the league."

Over the past two seasons, Blank has watched his Falcons compile a collective 20-12 record and a berth in the NFC playoffs, and the prospects for the future are bright, partly based on the fact that every starter from both sides of the ball in 2009 returns for the 2010 season. Those statistics are solid and in step with elements of Blank's three-point commitment he made to Falcons fans at the start of his tenure – and maintains today – as the leader of the franchise. The first point is to put a perennially-winning product on the field. The second is to provide a great game day experience. And the third is to have a winning team off the field and in the community.

COMMITMENT TO FANS

Whether it's The Home Depot – the company Blank co-founded and led until his retirement as co-chairman in 2001 – or the Atlanta Falcons, Blank has always subscribed to one simple theory: Listening is what matters most. Customers, fans, players, coaches or associates – Blank listens, understands and responds to all of them and expects his associates to do the same.

"In today's challenging economy, we need to find creative ways to improve the total game-day experience for our fans," said Blank. "All of our associates understand that the competition for limited entertainment dollars has become more fierce. Coupled with increasing competition with home technology, amenities and comforts, it's critical that we provide value and offer everything our fans need from the time they leave their driveway to the time they arrive in ours."

Following a three-year, $53 million investment in enhancements inside and outside the Georgia Dome, which was funded by the Falcons and Georgia World Congress Center Authority, Falcons fans are enjoying new amenities that improve the game day experience.

Located at each end of the field, new video boards offer sharper images, enhanced graphics, game viewing options and replay capabilities. From suite and club seat renovations, to the addition of super suites, LED ribbon boards, high-definition video boards double the size of the old boards and exterior paint and interior seating in red and black, the Georgia Dome now has the look and feel of the "home of the Falcons."

"It's important to maintain the Georgia Dome to NFL standards for our fans," Blank said. "Atlanta is a world-class city with world-class NFL fans who deserve the best the NFL has to offer."

Led by McKay, the Falcons are also looking to the future and the prospects of an iconic NFL stadium for the long-term benefit of the city.

"The termination of our lease at the Dome is a few years in front of us, but we believe it's prudent to begin the process of exploring new options now," Blank said. "The Georgia World Congress Center Authority has been and continues to be a strong partner in this regard."

OWNER & CEO ARTHUR BLANK

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

One of the hallmarks of Blank's philosophy is giving back to the community. During his tenure with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to the communities it served. In addition, associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Given his philanthropic history, it came as no surprise that the final phase of Blank's three-point plan for the Falcons was a program that would see the Falcons' organization lending its support all over the state of Georgia. One vehicle of the Falcons' community outreach efforts is the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF), the largest team-funded foundation in the NFL. The AFYF gives back to the community by promoting the healthy development of youth. It does so by supporting physical fitness and sports in communities across Georgia through grant-making, strategic partnerships and signature programs.

Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $16 million in grants to more than 700 non-profit organizations. The centerpiece of the foundation's work is the Falcons Fitness Zones signature program, in which Blank has invested more than $8 million since the program's inception in 2005, in a focused effort to shape the lives of Georgia youth through outdoor activities and fitness.

Through a matching gift fund initiated by Blank, Falcons players, coaches, staff and all other associates in the Blank Family of Businesses are also involved in the community at unprecedented levels. Together, they have raised more than $4 million for more than 500 charitable organizations during the last eight years.

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders and associates remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective personal time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives, which support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, the development of youth football, and outreach in underserved communities.

Blank is also dedicated to his personal giving back. In addition to serving as Owner & CEO of the Falcons, Blank is Chairman, President & CEO of AMB Group, LLC and Chairman of The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation. Both organizations are part of The Arthur M. Blank Family Office, with the common purpose of giving back to society through financial contributions and personal involvement. Through his generosity, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation, along with his and his wife Stephanie's personal giving, has granted and committed more than $260 million to numerous non-profit organizations. In addition, his other businesses, including Atlanta Falcons Physical Therapy Centers, PGA Tour Superstores and Mountain Sky Guest Ranch in Montana, support the communities surrounding their locations through non-profit grants and community outreach.

HOW IT ALL STARTED

A native of Flushing, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. He received a B.S. Degree in Business Administration with Distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a wide variety of extracurricular activities. He co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as Co-Chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the country for his personal and professional achievements. In 2010, Blank was recognized by the Council for Quality Growth for his philanthropic endeavors as well as his significant contributions to economic development and quality of life, and by the PAGE Foundation, along with Stephanie, for demonstrating commitment to improving public education in Georgia. In 2008, he received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from the University of South Carolina-Bluffton. In 2006, Blank was named a Distinguished American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which every year recognizes an individual who has utilized his or her talents to attain great success in business, private life or public service. Also in 2006, Blank was inducted into the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame, and was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Furman University. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young.

In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend magazine, and in 2002 he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame. Among other previous honors, Babson College inducted Blank into its Academy of Distinguished Entrepreneurs in 1995 and conferred on him an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in 1998.

Blank serves on a number of boards including: Outward Bound USA; the Board of Trustees of The Carter Center, Inc.; the Board of Trustees of Emory University; the Board of Trustees of The Cooper Institute; and the boards of Cox Enterprises, Inc., and Staples, Inc.

In September 2001, Blank joined the faculty of Emory University's Goizueta Business School as its first Distinguished Executive in Residence. He now serves as a Goizueta Executive Fellow. Blank also served as the 2003 Chairman of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. Blank has six children and three grandchildren. He and Stephanie and their three youngest children live in Atlanta. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank still makes time daily for working out and spending time with his family.

RICH MCKAY

PRESIDENT

Rich McKay begins his seventh season as team president handling all business operations of the club including Finance, Marketing, Ticket Sales, Football Communications, Retail, Human Resources, and Community Relations.

Additionally, Rich remains heavily involved with Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff in running the club's salary cap and contract negotiations and continues to work with Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur M. Blank on the pursuit of a new stadium as the club nears the expiration of its lease term at the Georgia Dome.

McKay's contributions not only to the Falcons but to the entire NFL as well are visible on a daily basis with his participation on a wide range of League committees that assist in maintaining the NFL's current level of success and stature.

Accordingly, McKay will continue as the Falcons' liaison with the NFL office in New York City regarding all football and business-related matters. It was McKay's vision and leadership that helped successfully navigated the smooth transition before the start of the 2008 season when the Falcons hired Head Coach Mike Smith and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. The Falcons went on to post an 11-5 record and garnered their first postseason berth since 2004.

Rich has overseen the completion of the Georgia Dome renovations, which, in partnership with the Georgia World Congress Center was a three-year, $53 million project.

The renovations, which catered specifically to Falcons fans included: a new exterior with Falcons colors and themes, a renovation of the mezzanine, lower and upper level concourses, a renovation of the gate entrance areas and the installation of red and black colored seats throughout the building. The improvements were capped off with the installation of two new state-of-the art, high-definition video score boards which are double the size of the old score boards.

"Our goal from the very outset of this project was to ensure that our stadium kept up with NFL standards and for our fans to continue to have a first class experience," McKay said. "We now play in a building that has the look and feel of the home of the Falcons."

Prior to embarking on his new role as team President, McKay served in a dual role as Falcons President & General Manager from 2004-07. One of the many proud moments during his successful tenure in Atlanta includes helping the Falcons lay claim to an NFC South Division title in 2004, only the club's third Division crown in franchise history, and a NFC Championship Game appearance (2004) for only the second time in team history. He recorded his 100th career regular season victory as an NFL General Manager in 2005 when the Falcons defeated the Detroit Lions 27-7 on Thanksgiving Day before a nationally televised audience at Ford Field. The 2004 Falcons rolled to a 4-0 start en route to an 11-5 record and earned the conference's second seed in the playoffs, a first-round bye, and a nationally televised home game against the St. Louis Rams and their high-octane offense.

The Falcons used the fourth-highest team rushing total in NFL postseason history and a staunch defensive effort to defeat the Rams 47-17 to advance to only their second NFC Championship Game in franchise history. Atlanta rushed for a postseason franchise-record 327 yards and sacked Rams QB Marc Bulger four times en route to pitching a second-half defensive shutout.

Before joining the Falcons organization in 2004, McKay recorded a nine-year run as chief architect of football operations for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He constructed Buccaneer teams that won better than 60 percent of their games during his tenure and was the chief football executive of the franchise altering 1995 draft which ESPN has named one of the Top 10 draft classes in NFL history. Headlining that class was DT Warren Sapp, now an in-studio analyst for NFL Network and LB Derrick Brooks. Sapp and Brooks combined to make 18 Pro Bowl appearances during their tenures with Tampa Bay. Both players were named to the NFL's top 75 Draft Picks of all time by NFL Network earlier this year.

To further place into perspective the success McKay has enjoyed during what has been a sparkling NFL career, one only needs to review the 10-year record the Buccaneers had before he took over as General Manager. From 1985 to 1994, Tampa Bay compiled a record of 43–116, a paltry .270 winning percentage, including 10 consecutive double-digit losing seasons.

"Rich balances caring about his team's fortunes with caring about the league's fortunes as well as any front office man in the NFL has done since George Young lorded over the New York Giants," said national NFL writer Peter King, who writes for Sports Illustrated and is a studio analyst for NBC's Sunday Night in America NFL show. "He's intensely competitive, but he also sees the big picture of what's good for the NFL as a sport and as a business."

The apex of McKay's distinguished NFL career to date took place in sunny San Diego, California on January 26, 2003 when he completed the overhaul of the Buccaneers, long considered one of the worst franchises in professional sports. Tampa Bay's 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII vaulted the Buccaneers from the basement of professional sports to the top of the NFL universe thanks to McKay's handiwork.

In his 13 seasons as an NFL General Manager, McKay directed six teams that reached the NFC playoffs, three that reached the NFC Championship Game and one team that won a Super Bowl title. McKay also worked with three different coaches who guided their respective teams to the NFC Championship Game (Tony Dungy 1999; Jon Gruden 2002; and Jim Mora 2004). His overall record was 112–96 with a playoff mark of 6–5.

McKay's formula for success has been a championship elixir that has produced an impeccable reputation and a total of 56 players who have gone on to play in the Pro Bowl. Between the draft and free agency, McKay constructed a roster that featured 12 Pro Bowl performers in 2002 with the Bucs. Additionally, McKay drafted five players – CB Ronde Barber, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, DT Warren Sapp, and S John Lynch who each played in at least five Pro Bowls during their NFL careers.

Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002 were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers had only 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997. While many of the players McKay drafted have developed into NFL stars on the field, several have also been Pro Bowl performers from a charitable standpoint, as well.

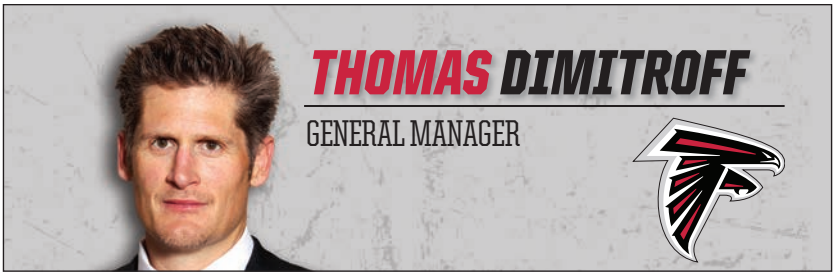
Current Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997 during his tenure with the Buccaneers, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award which is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player as was Derrick Brooks, who was a co-recipient of the award in 2000 as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

McKay was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Horrigan Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the club or league office executive who is the most helpful and cooperative with the local and national news media that cover the NFL.

McKay and his family have substantially deep roots in collegiate and professional football, dating back more than 30 years to when McKay's late father, John, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four national championships and later was named the first Head Coach of the Buccaneers in 1975. Coach McKay will be the second inducte into the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Ring of Honor on December 5, 2010.

McKay has served on numerous League committees during his NFL career. Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue named McKay co-chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee in 1998, replacing the late New York Giants General Manager George Young and he has held that position since. McKay will continue to serve in the same capacity in 2009 along with Tennessee Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher. Since 1994, McKay has served on this committee of NFL coaches and executives who study the game and recommend rules modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness in the league. In December of 2002, Tagliabue named McKay to a working group of five senior club executives as part of the newly-created NFL owners' committee on diversity in the workplace. For the past five years, McKay has also served on the NFL Management Council working group of league executives that helps advise on collective bargaining issues.

McKay, who also taught a course in sports/entertainment law at Stetson University's College of Law, earned his Bachelor's degree in 1981 from Princeton University. He graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges. Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School. An avid long distance runner, he has participated in and finished two New York City marathons and one recent Atlanta marathon. McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons, Hunter and John.



THOMAS DIMITROFF

GENERAL MANAGER

The 2009 Atlanta Falcons capped off its first back-to-back winning seasons in the history of the franchise with a 20-10 victory at Tampa Bay in the season finale. For long-time Falcons fans, this was quite a monumental feat.

Although an impressive accomplishment in just his first two years on the job, for the architect behind the transformation of the new look Falcons, it was not enough. Thomas Dimitroff strives for so much more.

That inherent, tireless drive is one of the main reasons why the Falcons General Manager has been so successful throughout his 20-plus years in the NFL. A product of the championship producing ways in New England, Dimitroff is all about building a winner who is able to compete at the highest level each and every season.

Every move Dimitroff makes is calculated and forward-thinking with one goal in mind. Assembling the best football team he can is paramount in his daily thought process and he's aggressively determined to get the Falcons to the next level.

In each season since ascending to the General Managers post in Atlanta, Dimitroff has astutely engineered key moves and deftly drafted a solid nucleus of players to augment the Falcons roster.

In 2008, Dimitroff's first move was signing talented free agent running back Michael Turner from San Diego. Turner fittingly exploded onto the scene as a full-time starter for the first time in his career, finishing with 1,699 rushing yards with a club record 17 touchdowns on his way to his first Pro Bowl, while finishing second in MVP voting.

Dimitroff's initial '08 draft was a windfall, delivering franchise quarterback Matt Ryan, the consensus NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, starting left tackle Sam Baker, starting middle linebacker and All-NFL rookie selection, Curtis Lofton, and eventual starting free safety Thomas DeCoud. His adept choices also included solid contributors in wide receiver Harry Douglas, defensive end Kroy Biermann and nickel corner Chevis Jackson.

When Dimitroff went looking for another target for Ryan and the Falcons offense to improve their efficiency, he traded for future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez of the Kansas City Chiefs on eve of the 2009 draft. Gonzalez delivered in a big way with 83 receptions, second-best on team, and six touchdowns, including the game winner at the New York Jets on fourth down with 1:38 remaining. Gonzalez was also a positive, winning presence in the Falcons locker room and possesses the type of leadership qualities Dimitroff looks to add to the roster each season.

The momentum from the Gonzalez trade carried over a week later as Dimitroff completed the second draft of his tenure with the '09 selections of defensive tackle Peria Jerry, safety William Moore, cornerback Christopher Owens, defensive end Lawrence Sidbury, tackle Garrett Reynolds, defensive tackle Vance Walker and linebacker Spencer Adkins. Jerry's promising rookie campaign was slowed after two games, but he has worked hard to return and the Falcons are eager to see more from their number one pick from Mississippi in 2010. The same goes for Moore who the birds are anxious to see compete for time in the Falcons secondary.

DIMITROFF'S PERSONNEL BACKGROUND

Owens gained valuable starting experience in six games during his first season (playing in all 16 contests), which should aide in his development in year two. Contributions were noticed from those remaining draft picks who will be looking to grow even more this season with a year of experience under their belts.

Dimitroff's belief that the NFL draft is a major building block to establish a team's foundation for years to come has been the impetus for the Falcons' winning turnaround since 2008.

His first two drafts have reaped huge benefits as 10 out of 19 picks have started at least one game and 18 rookies have been active on game day since 2008. Six rookies have started on opening day from the first two draft classes under Dimitroff. As further evidence that Dimitroff and his hard working personnel staff are continuously selecting quality NFL talent with each draft, an impressive 27 rookies who have competed at Falcons training camps from 2008-09 have ended up on NFL rosters over the last two seasons.

Part of Dimitroff's master plan also includes adding other veterans when needed to shore up his units. For example in 2009, he signed savvy pro's like linebacker Mike Peterson and cornerback Brian Williams. Peterson finished second on the team with 140 tackles, starting all 16 games, while Williams supplied punch to the secondary for the first five starts to the season before being lost with a knee injury.

When he feels he needs to make a move to bolster the roster or retain core players, the decisive Dimitroff doesn't stand idle very long. He extended the contract of veteran wide receiver Roddy White prior to the start of the '09 regular season. White responded last year with another stellar campaign that landed him in his second straight Pro Bowl with a team leading 85 catches for 1,153 yards and a career-best 11 touchdowns.

With an eye towards improving a young Falcons secondary, Dimitroff targeted and signed productive five-year veteran cornerback Dunta Robinson from the Houston Texans early this year during free agency. An Athens, Georgia native, Robinson brings a veteran presence and a stalwart reputation back home with him to his new landing spot in the NFC South.

All of those major moves prove Dimitroff will to do whatever it takes to make the Falcons roster better whenever he sees the opportunity. His timely maneuvers have helped the Falcons post a notable 20 victories over the past two seasons.

GENERAL MANAGER THOMAS DIMITROFF

The Robinson signing allowed Dimitroff important flexibility when entering his third draft. Dimitroff enjoyed another successful needs-based draft in 2010, selecting speedy, playmaking outside linebacker Sean Weatherspoon from Missouri with the 19th overall pick in the first round, which should improve the defense immediately. Additional picks included third rounders defensive tackle Corey Peters (Kentucky) and offensive lineman Michael Johnson (Alabama), as well as offensive lineman Joe Hawley (4th round, UNLV), cornerback Dominique Franks (5th round, Oklahoma), wide receiver Kerry Meier (5th round, Kansas), and safety Shann Schillinger (6th round, Montana).

Dimitroff directs all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Head Coach Mike Smith has final authority over all personnel decisions related to the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, trades, and related decisions. He will also handle coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Smith.

Dimitroff has earned his climb up the NFL mountain to General Manager by working his way through the scouting trails as a combine/BLESTO Scout, an Area Scout, National Scout, and College Director of Scouting.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout (and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots). Other key influences that have also helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today and aided in his rise to his current post include Kansas City Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

The younger Dimitroff took a genuine desire for scouting players to the ultimate level early in his life. He became the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990 as his first taste into the world of scouting. In 1992, he moved on to World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

Dimitroff's career aspirations brought him to the NFL and the Detroit Lions where he became a College Scout in 1994. It was in his years as Scout for the Lions that he was introduced to Atlanta for the first time (living in the Virginia Highlands area) while evaluating the Southeastern part of the country. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a College Scout for the Browns for four years before landing in New England in 2002.

During his five years as the Director of College Scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluate all of the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77–17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won the Super Bowl in the 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) seasons while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season. Many of the players responsible for New England's history-making NFL-best 16–0 regular season record in 2007 were scouted, evaluated, and later drafted during Dimitroff's time. Some of those players include: cornerback Ellis Hobbs III, center Dan Koppen, guard Logan Mankins, running back Laurence Maroney, safety Brandon Merriweather, cornerback Asante Samuel, defensive end Ty Warren, tight end Ben Watson, nose tackle Vince Wilfork and cornerback Eugene Wilson.

"I think there are two ingredients in being a talent evaluator," said long-time, respected NFL personnel executive Ernie Accorsi. "You have to learn under top people, which Thomas has done from his father to a championship organization in New England. But you also need that indefinable instinct to see talent. That can't be taught. You can be a good evaluator without it, but not a great one. Thomas has that instinct."

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987–1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas and his wife, Angeline, have one son, Mason, and live in Atlanta.

Kim Shreckengost is Executive Vice President—Chief of Staff for AMB Group, LLC, the parent company of the Atlanta Falcons. She is responsible for communications and information technology at the Falcons, and holds similar responsibilities at The Arthur M. Blank Family Office, home of AMB Group and The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation. In addition, she is responsible for facilitation of the business activities of Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank; family office operations and administration; the businesses' aviation group; and the operations of Mountain Sky Guest Ranch and the Pop Stand, a guest dude ranch and diner, respectively, in Montana.

Shreckengost joined AMB Group in 2001. Prior to her current position, she served as Vice President—Corporate Affairs & Executive to the CEO for The Home Depot. In this position, she was responsible for community affairs, internal communications, investor relations and public relations. In addition, she was responsible for CEO-directed activities across the company, including serving as a facilitator for business-related projects.

Before joining The Home Depot in 1996, Shreckengost spent 15 years with Delta Air Lines in positions of increasing responsibility. Those areas included operations and customer service, marketing, information services, methods and training, and finance. Prior to leaving the company, she was Director of Investor Relations and Assistant Secretary. During that time, Delta received four awards for excellence in corporate reporting and investor relations from the Association of Investment Management and Research. Shreckengost was also cited by Institutional Investor Magazine as one of the top investor relations officers in the country.

Shreckengost is a former working group member of the NFL's Committee on Workplace Diversity. She serves on the board of advisors of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. A native of Wayne, Michigan, Shreckengost graduated with distinction from Wayne State University in Detroit, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration.

Shreckengost and her husband, Lloyd, reside in Douglasville, Georgia.

Falcons Vice President – Chief Financial Officer Greg Beadles will begin his 16th season with the Falcons organization in 2010.

Beadles responsibilities have grown over the years beyond overseeing all financial operations of the club to include the facilities, travel and logistics departments. He serves as one of the team's primary liaisons with the NFL League Office and the Georgia Dome. The recent stadium renovation projects were completed under his watchful eye. He also serves as President of Atlanta Falcons Physical Therapy Centers, a growing business he helped to launch in 2007 that now includes eight rehabilitation clinics around the metro Atlanta area open to the general public.

Greg's career in the NFL started with the Falcons in 1995 as an intern in the finance department. He later served as Controller of the Falcon Inn & Conference Center until 1998. Beadles then held the position of Senior Accountant with the club until being promoted to Director of Finance for the 2000–2001 seasons. Owner & CEO Arthur Blank promoted him to Vice President — Finance shortly after purchasing the Falcons in 2002 and he added the CFO title after the 2003 season.

The son of a coach, Beadles grew up drawing Xs and Os, traveling on road trips and making recruiting visits with his father, who has been a head coach in the college basketball ranks for nearly 40 years. Beadles played a number of sports in his youth, including a freshman year of small college basketball before transferring to Louisiana State University to focus on a career in business.

Beadles earned a Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting from LSU in 1991 and a Masters of Science degree in Sports Administration from Georgia State University in 1995.

The 41-year-old holds a CPA license from the state of Georgia. His experience in the business world began with a public accounting firm in Baton Rouge, Louisiana followed by work as an international staff accountant with Offshore Pipelines, Inc. in Houston, Texas.

Beadles' background also includes teaching a graduate sports finance course at Georgia State University. He still enjoys interacting with students as a regular guest lecturer at a number of local universities. His activity in the community includes serving as founding chairman for two educational institutions - Dominion Classical Christian Academy in Lawrenceville and Arete Scholars Fund, a state-wide non-profit that provides K4-12 scholarships for low-income children. He is also a board member of Wellspring Camp and the Greater Hall County Chamber of Commerce.

DANNY BRANCH

VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Danny Branch is embarking on his seventh year as Vice President of Information Technology (IT) for the Falcons and boasts more than 26 years of experience in systems development, deployment and support.

He is responsible for all information technology related activities for the Falcons and all other enterprises in the Blank Family of Businesses.

Branch joined the Falcons in 2004 from The Home Depot, where he most recently was Vice President of Information Services. Starting at The Home Depot in 1990 as a senior systems engineer, he was promoted rapidly through the engineering and ultimately, the information services management ranks. While at The Home Depot, Branch partnered with NCR to be the first home improvement retailer to implement and deploy self check-out. He also developed and deployed Home Depot's current gift card program, which replaced their previous paper based gift certificate program. Prior to The Home Depot, Branch worked in programming, engineering and project management roles for CONTEL, Management Science America, and Texas Instruments.

A Georgia product, Danny earned his associate degree in Mathematics from Abraham Baldwin Junior College (Tifton, GA.). He received his Bachelors of Science degree in Computer Science from the University of Georgia and completed an advanced leadership development program at the Babson School of Executive Education (Babson Park, Mass.). Branch is a member of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and is also active in the community and currently serves on the Board (Chair) of Atlanta Habitat for Humanity.

Danny and his wife, Claire, live in Senoia, Georgia with their daughter, Chloe (16) and son, Alex (13).

DAVE COHEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

Dave Cohen enters his ninth year with the Falcons and sixth season as the team's Vice President of Sales. In his current capacity, Cohen is responsible for the sale and service of all Falcons tickets, which include season tickets, group tickets and all hospitality programs. In addition, Cohen also oversees the ticket operations, ticket services and fan services departments. Cohen and his staff are also are responsible for the sale of all premium seat inventories in the Georgia Dome, which include suites, club seats, super suites and the "Owner's Club".

In the last two seasons (2008-09), Cohen and his team helped the Falcons sell over 20,000 new season tickets and sell out all regular season home games. During his tenure with the team, Atlanta has sold out 76 of 79 games in the Georgia Dome, which at one time included a team-high 55 games in a row. At the height of the team's success, the organization had a season ticket waiting list over 90,000, which was one of the longest in the NFL. In 2002, in his first season, Cohen and his team set an 83-year old NFL record by selling over 21,000 new season tickets and then followed that up in 2003 by selling another 20,000.

Over a two-year period beginning in 2007, the Falcons financed and led an entire renovation of the Georgia Dome, which included the renovation of the premium and general seating areas. Cohen was heavily involved in this renovation, which cost over $50 million and included a complete remodel and redesign of the suites, club levels and introduced the new Super Suite concept. It also included replacing the general seats in the seating bowl, renovation of the entry gates and concourses and installation of new video boards.

Before landing in Atlanta, Cohen was the Director of Ticket Sales for the NBA's Portland Trail Blazers. During his time with the Blazers, the team sold out 104 consecutive home games and had the highest season ticket base in team history. Prior to Portland, Cohen worked with the Edmonton Oilers of the NHL. In Edmonton, his main responsibility was overseeing the ticket sales efforts. These efforts included doubling the season ticket base to over 13,000, which ultimately helped save the team from relocating from Canada.

His first job in sports was working in minor league baseball and hockey, in Spokane, Washington where he sold tickets for the Spokane Indians and Spokane Chiefs.

Cohen is a 1992 graduate of the University of Portland. He and his wife, Kathy, reside in Duluth, Georgia with their son, Casey (12), and daughter, Kamryn (10). In his spare time, Cohen enjoys coaching both his son's and daughter's baseball, softball and basketball teams as well as getting out on the links.

Reggie Roberts begins his 19th season in the National Football League and his seventh as the team's Vice President of Football Communications. He serves as the day-to-day spokesman for the Falcons on all football and non-football matters, and is responsible for coordinating all media and football communications coverage for the team. Additionally, Roberts is the club's liaison between local, national and international print and electronic media, and the main club contact with the television and radio networks that broadcast Falcons games.

Roberts, who joined the Falcons in September of 2004, comes to Atlanta with a long history in the NFL at both the league and club levels. The veteran football communications specialist, who is also a former award-winning sports journalist, spent seven seasons at league headquarters in New York City where he was Director of Information for the National Football Conference from 1990 to 1996. Following his stint at the NFL, Roberts joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997 as Director of Communications.

Following the 1997 season, Roberts and his communications staff received the coveted Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. The award is presented annually by the PFWA to the NFL's top public relations/football communications staff. It marked the first time in franchise history the Buccaneers football communications staff had ever received the award. The Buccaneers were also a finalist for the award in both 1999 and in 2000 and the Falcons have been finalists for the award in each of the past two seasons (2008 & 2009).

Roberts was president of Double R Communications, Inc., a national sports public relations and communications company from 2002–2004. His clients included a dozen NFL players as well as the NFL, The Champions Fund, Family First, Kaos Sports, the University of South Florida Athletic Department, and Hill and Knowlton, USA.

During seven seasons with the NFL office, Roberts was the Public Relations Director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. Additionally, he coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowl Games in Tokyo, Japan. Roberts has also been selected as a member of the NFL's Football Communications staff for 14 Super Bowls (XXV to-XXXVI, XL, XLI).

In 2006, Roberts completed the prestigious NFL Managers Training Program located at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business in Palo Alto, California.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-half years as a sports reporter with the Austin American-Statesman newspaper in Austin, Texas where he won two Associated Press Sports Editor awards.

Roberts graduated from the University of Louisiana at Monroe in 1986 with a Bachelors of Arts degree in journalism.

Roberts is native of Alexandria, Louisiana. He and his wife, Wendy, live in Snellville, Georgia with their two sons, Reid Alexander and Chase Matthew.

JIM SMITH

CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Jim Smith was promoted to Chief Marketing Officer in April of 2010 after spending the previous six seasons as the club's Vice President of Marketing.

In addition to heading up one of the most creative and talented marketing team's in the NFL, Smith recently worked with the NFL Office on a comprehensive brand review that created a new standard for the Falcons brand and put in place innovative brand policies to enhance and expand the club's overall image both in the Atlanta market and nationally.

In conjunction with this study, Smith developed the sizzling new "Rise Up" campaign which includes an inspiring television commercial featuring Hollywood star and "A-list" actor Samuel L. Jackson.

The campaign, which focuses on a team, an organization, a fan base, and a community rising up together to win a championship, was unveiled earlier this spring to rave reviews and will culminate with a television spot featuring Jackson's impassioned speech for Atlanta and the Falcons to "Rise Up" together.

Some of Smith's other critical day-to-day responsibilities entail maximizing local and national revenue opportunities by managing all brand affinity, inventory, including stadium assets, broadcast rights, team marketing rights, new media, and event marketing.

Smith and his partnership sales teams have increased the Falcons' local sponsorship and broadcast revenues by more than 300% since 2003, and his impressive work in the Atlanta marketplace has resulted in several new partnerships with companies like Ford Motor Company, Verizon, AirTran Airways, Russell, Quikrete, and SunTrust.

Smith's new media team has received national acclaim for its use of emerging technology and social media to provide fans unprecedented access to the Falcons organization while the club's website is widely regarded as one of the sports media industry's most innovative and engaging.

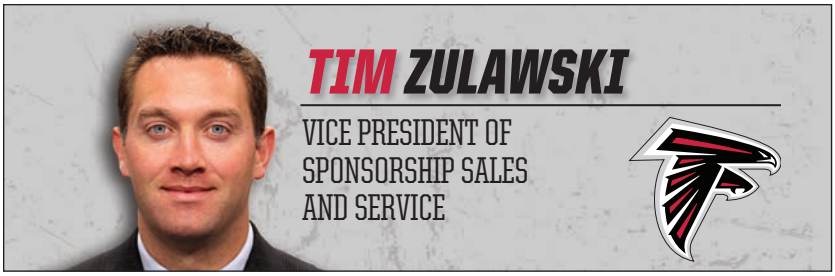
Prior to joining the Falcons, Smith spent five successful seasons as General Manager and then President/General Manager of the Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew.

During his stint with The Crew, Smith captured 2001 MLS Executive of the Year honors by his peers and followed-up that award by overseeing the organization's first-ever championship the following season when the Black & Gold claimed the 2002 U.S. Open Cup title. Smith was also instrumental in overseeing the administration of three of the most prestigious American soccer events of 2001 — the U.S.– Mexico World Cup qualifying match, the MLS Cup 2001 and the 2001 NCAA Men's College Cup.

Prior to joining The Crew, Smith was a member of the athletic department at one of his alma maters, Ohio State University, serving as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Communications. At OSU, Smith was responsible for the direction and coordination of eight department heads in the areas of marketing, athletic communications, publications, external relations, merchandise sales, premium seat services, video services and concessions. His duties within the Buckeye athletic department also included developing plans to market various aspects of the university's broad athletic program, including advertising, merchandise, internet and special projects. Smith negotiated department rights contracts, including media and apparel, in addition to creating the sales and marketing plans for sponsorships, premium seat and suite sales, and major athletic department events.

Prior to arriving at OSU, Smith was the Director of Live Event Marketing for the World Wrestling Federation from November 1994 to December 1995. He also worked as the Coliseum Director at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas.

Born Dec. 5, 1965, the Milford, Conn. native earned a Bachelors of Science degree in Radio, TV, and Film at Northwestern University and a Masters of Arts in Sports Management at Ohio State. He and his wife, Polly, live in Suwanee, Georgia with their three daughters, Rachel, Courtney, and Emily, and son, Daniel.



TIM ZULAWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF SPONSORSHIP SALES AND SERVICE

Tim Zulawski enters his eighth season with the Falcons in a new role as Vice President of Sponsorship Sales and Service. Prior to his promotion, he served as the Director of Sponsorship Sales for the team.

Zulawski leads the Falcons initiative to develop and maintain corporate partnerships with local, regional and national corporations. This includes overseeing day to day activities associated with promotional rights, television, radio, print and digital advertising, custom experiences, hospitality and the sale of annual signage rights at the Georgia Dome.

During his time in Atlanta, Zulawski has helped the team secure a number of valuable corporate partnerships with numerous companies.

Prior to coming to the Falcons, Zulawski was the Senior Corporate Sales Manager for two seasons with Palace Sports & Entertainment in charge of negotiating sponsorships for the Tampa Bay Lightning, Tampa Bay Storm and the St. Pete Times Forum.

His NFL career started in public relations with the Buffalo Bills as a high school senior.

A native of Buffalo, New York, Zulawski holds a Management Information Systems degree from SUNY in Fredonia and a Master's degree in Sports Management from Springfield College.

Zulawski is married to his wife, Arleen.

MIKE SMITH

HEAD COACH

Under the direction of Head Coach Mike Smith, the Atlanta Falcons finished the 2009 campaign strong with three-consecutive victories, including two wins on the road, to close out their season with a winning record at 9-7.

The three-straight wins to finish the season were a testament to the coaching prowess and staunch leadership skills of Smith in his second season firmly entrenched at the Falcons helm. The hard driving Smith would not let his team lose focus in the final three weeks of the season despite the fact that the postseason was out of reach. With a winning record in their sights and the possibility of posting back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in the history of the franchise, Smith stayed true to his personal coaching script that has achieved success at every level of his coaching tenure.

The final three weeks results began with a tight contest at the New York Jets, who were fighting for their playoff lives. On a cold, blustery day at The Meadowlands, Smith's motivated team knocked off the Jets with a touchdown winning drive in the final two minutes to claim a hard-fought 10-7 victory. (The Jets would go on to win a playoff spot two weeks later and eventually advance to the AFC Championship Game.) The Falcons then defeated the Buffalo Bills, 31-3, at home the next week and finished their successful season-ending run with a 20-10 win over NFC South rival Tampa Bay at Raymond James Stadium.

The three-game winning streak at the end of the year secured the first consecutive winning seasons in team history. In addition, Coach Smith pointed out to his team that the victory at Tampa Bay (on January 3, 2010) was the first win of 2010 and it will be used it as a positive springboard moving forward.

Smith's 2009 team endured the fourth-toughest schedule in the NFL as five of the team's seven losses came against playoff teams and the other two were against teams that ended up with 8-8 records. Smith lost nine key starters for at least one game because of injury (and a total of 45 games of missed action overall.) But don't ask Smith to use those factors as excuses. That's just not in his DNA.

One of Smith's basic coaching philosophies centers on his team displaying sustainability. He wants his Falcons to be able to maintain a certain level of performance, not just each season, but from game to game, quarter to quarter and play to play. Smith is building a team that will consistently "be in the hunt" every year. This winning formula has seen Smith post a 20-12 regular season record (.625) in two seasons, which is tied for the fourth-most wins in the NFL over that time period. His .625 winning percentage ranks second (to only Dan Reeves' .656) among all Falcons head coaches after two seasons. Smith's 13 victories at home since 2008 (against just three defeats) is the most by a Falcons head coach in their first two years on the job. And those 13 home wins are tied for the second-best mark in the entire NFL.

In the case of his 2009 Falcons, sustainability was witnessed in the form of Smith's team being steadfastly unyielding in the face of adversity and rising up to fight through various challenges to finish the season with a winning record.

Starting fast and finishing strong has been a staple of Smith's teams during his time in Atlanta. This disciplined approach has seen desired outcomes in the form of the Falcons posting an 18-1 mark in games where the birds hold the lead at halftime and the same record when leading at the start of the fourth quarter. The Falcons are also 17-6 in games where they score first under Smith's steady influence.

With Smith's determined leadership in 2008, the Falcons enjoyed one of the biggest turnarounds that the NFL has ever witnessed. The seven-win swing going from 4-12 to 11-5 is tied for the fourth-best mark (at +7 wins) in the league for a rookie head coach since 1978. Smith's 11 victories are tied for the top mark with five other head coaches for the best record for a rookie head coach taking over a team that finished below .500 the previous season. And only three rookie head coaches in NFL history had more wins in their first campaign on the sidelines than Smith.

Smith's firm guidance in '08 allowed the Falcons to make several improvements from the previous season, which included points per game average, rushing yards per game average, passing touchdowns to interception ratio and fewest sacks allowed. He had his team ready to play in every game in 2008 as the Falcons were tops in the l eague in first quarter points scored and registered a streak of holding opponents in 12 of 15 games to under 20 yards rushing in the opening quarter of games.

The shrewd drafting of quarterback Matt Ryan and astute free agent signing of running Michael Turner were two aggressive moves that paid immediate dividends and laid a solid foundation under Smith's direction in his first season. Ryan became the consensus NFL Rookie of the Year playing beyond his years with almost 3,500 yards passing and Turner finished second in MVP voting with 1,699 rushing yards and a franchise-best 17 rushing touchdowns en route to his first Pro Bowl while collecting All-Pro accolades.

For his coaching efforts, Smith earned the prestigious Associated Press and Sporting News 2008 NFL Coach of the Year honors, as well as NFC Coach of the Year by the respected KC 101 Club.

Smith boasts a strong coaching background that includes 11 NFL seasons and 28 total years in football. His defensive track record has witnessed a remarkable amount of success as he helped guide the Baltimore Ravens to a Super Bowl XXXV Championship in 2000 as a defensive assistant coach and led the Jacksonville Jaguars defense to top 10 rankings in several categories (overall defense, points allowed and rushing defense) during his time as the club's Defensive Coordinator. With Smith's help, the Jaguars had the sixth-most wins in the NFL (from 2004-07) with 40 victories.

From 2003–2007, Smith led Jacksonville's defensive unit, which ranked fourth in overall defense (296.6), third in offensive points allowed (16.1) and fifth in rushing defense (99.3) from 2003–2006. In his last season in Jacksonville in 2007, the Jaguars rushing defense continued that trend as the unit ranked sixth in the AFC, holding opponents to 100.3 yards per game. The Jaguars defense under Smith's direction also finished 12th in the NFL in total defense in '07.

In 2006, Jacksonville ranked second in the league in total defense (283.6), which was the highest mark for the franchise in its history. The Jaguars defense also contributed to a team-record 20 interceptions and allowed an NFL-low 11 points per game on their home turf.

During Smith's five seasons in Jacksonville, three defensive players garnered six Pro Bowl selections, which included defensive tackle Marcus Stroud (2003–2005), defensive tackle John Henderson (2004, 2006) and cornerback Rashean Mathis (2006). Smith also coached the likes of defensive end Bobby McCray, who became just the fourth Jaguar to record at least 10 sacks in 2005. Smith contributed to three winning seasons in Jacksonville (2004–2005, 2007) as the team reached the playoffs for the sixth occasion in franchise history in 2007 and defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in an AFC Divisional Playoff game on the road at Heinz Field.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Smith spent four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens and was the Defensive Assistant/Defensive Line Coach from 1999–2001, which included the team's 2000 Super Bowl winning season. The Ravens defense set an NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points en route to the team's first NFL championship.

In 2002, Smith served as Baltimore's Linebackers Coach. That season, the Ravens featured All-Pro linebacker Ray Lewis and Pro Bowl linebacker Peter Boulware, who recorded 57 tackles, seven sacks for a loss of 51 yards, one interception and four passes defensed in his finest NFL season under Smith's tutelage.

Before joining the NFL ranks, Smith spent 12 seasons at Tennessee Tech from 1987–1998. He was the Golden Eagles' Defensive Coordinator for the last three seasons as the team finished in the top 10 in the nation in total defense (1997 and 1998). He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as the Defensive Line Coach and then served as the Special Team Coordinator from 1988 to 1995. Prior to his last season with the Golden Eagles, Smith was promoted to Assistant Head Coach on top of his Defensive Coordinator duties.

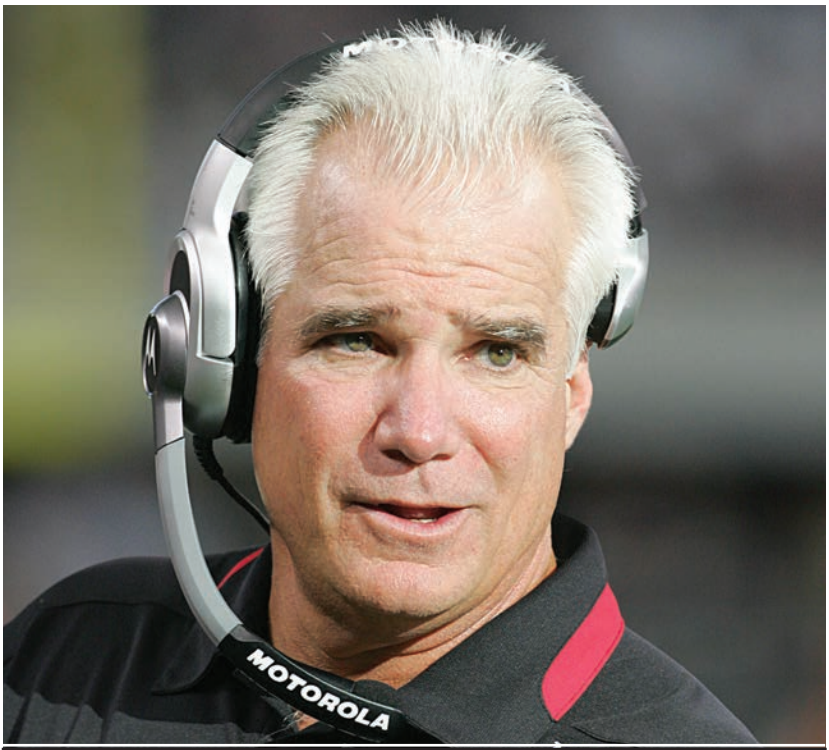
As the son of a middle school coach and as the oldest in a family of eight children (four sisters and three brothers), Smith learned early the values and virtues of a strong work ethic from parents, Carol and Sam Smith. Growing up with educators as influential parents can have a lasting effect on a person. Mike Smith is no different. Teaching is in his blood. It's what he loves to do.

When Smith broke his right arm playing linebacker in the second game during his senior season at Father Lopez High School (in Daytona Beach, Fla.) he asked the head coach if he could help the team and become an assistant coach. This would mark the humble beginnings for a man that some 30 years later would reach the pinnacle of his coaching profession and be named Head Coach in the National Football League of the Atlanta Falcons on January 23, 2008.

"Mike was with me in Baltimore (Ravens) and I know he's honest, fair and he's a good teacher," said Hall of Famer turned NFL Network analyst Rod Woodson. "I think teaching is a lost art in the National Football League. There are a lot of coaches who can put X's and O's on the board, but they can't teach a guy why they did it. But Mike can do that. He will be a good teacher."

Smith played college football at East Tennessee (1977–1981) and was named defensive MVP twice at his position. He led the team with a school record 186 tackles as a senior.

A native of Daytona Beach, Florida, Smith was born on June 13, 1959 in Chicago, Illinois. He and his wife, Julie, have one daughter, Logan, and reside in Suwanee, Ga.



COACH MIKE SMITH

BILL MUSGRAVE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
QUARTERBACKS

Bill Musgrave's experience and coaching ability has been duly noted by Head Coach Mike Smith who did not hesitate to promote Musgrave to the Assistant Head Coach post this past offseason. Musgrave will carry the title entering his fifth year with the organization as well as retain his duties as Quarterbacks Coach.

With 18 years of experience as an NFL player and coach, Musgrave was an ideal candidate to tutor quarterback Matt Ryan in his first two seasons with the team. And the results have been impressive. Ryan has registered 6,356 passing yards since his rookie campaign and ranks third among all Falcons quarterbacks for a two-year passing total. As a starter at home, he has posted a 13-1 record and is undefeated when starting in the month of December (6-0). Last season, Ryan set single-game career highs in completions (26), passing yards (329), passing touchdowns (three, two times) and completion percentage (77.7 percent) while finishing with a career-high 22 touchdowns in '09.

In 2008, Ryan played like a seasoned veteran earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors by the Associated Press and Sporting News en route to leading the Falcons to the playoffs. In addition to numerous accomplishments, he became only the second rookie signal-caller to ever throw for over 3,000 yards in a single-season (Peyton Manning in 1998). To top off his excellent rookie campaign, Ryan established an NFL rookie postseason record with 26 completions along with a pair of scoring passes versus the eventual NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals.

Before coming to Atlanta, Musgrave helped QB Mark Brunell and the 2005 Washington Redskins reach the playoffs and defeat the NFC South Champion Buccaneers in Tampa. That season, Brunell passed for a career-high 23 touchdowns, the most by a Redskins signal-caller since 1999. Musgrave has also served as an Offensive Coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-04), Virginia Cavaliers (2001-02), Carolina Panthers (2000) and Philadelphia Eagles (1998). He began his NFL coaching tenure with the Oakland Raiders as the team's Quarterbacks Coach in 1997.

Musgrave's six-year pro career as quarterback began as a fourth round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. He played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94, serving as a back-up to Joe Montana and Steve Young, while also learning his craft from the likes of coaches Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan and Gary Kubiak. He was a member of the 49ers' Super Bowl XXIX winning team in 1994. Musgrave then followed Shanahan and Kubiak to the Denver Broncos to play behind John Elway from 1995-96.

Musgrave was a four-year starting quarterback and three-year captain at Oregon from 1987-90. In addition to taking the Ducks to their first bowl games in 26 years in 1989 and 1990, he finished his collegiate career as Oregon's all-time leader in passing and total offense, while establishing 15 school records. His 60 passing touchdowns ranked second only to Elway in PAC-10 history. A member of both the University of Oregon and state of Colorado Hall of Fames, Musgrave was born November 11, 1967 in Grand Junction, Colorado. He received the prestigious Denver Post's Gold Helmet Award for 1985, as well as being named the Colorado High School Athlete of the Year after a stellar three year career in basketball, track, baseball and football at Grand Junction High School.

He and his wife, Neely, have four children.

COACH BILL MUSGRAVE

MIKE MULARKEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

For the second consecutive year, Falcons Offensive Coordinator Mike Mularkey guided an offensive unit that featured firepower in both the running and passing attack in 2009. Although injuries hampered both quarterback Matt Ryan and running back Michael Turner, the offense still averaged 340.4 yards per game while the passing game improved to a 223.2 yards per game average as the Falcons earned back to back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Among individual offensive highlights, wide receiver Roddy White led the team with 1,153 receiving yards and became only the second player in franchise history to total three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. White also added a career-high 11 touchdowns while earning his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Mularkey also pieced together an offensive game plan which featured tight end Tony Gonzalez providing a large contribution in his first year with the team. The future Hall of Fame tight end set a franchise record among players at his position with 88 receptions while adding 867 yards and six touchdowns.

In 2009, Atlanta's offense averaged 22.7 points per game, which included a 45-10 victory at San Francisco in Week 5. In that game, the Falcons set a club record for the most amount of points scored in the first half of a game, 35, topping the old total which was set in 1980. Atlanta has compiled a 13-3 home record over the last two seasons and Mularkey's offense has contributed to an 18-1 record in games where the Falcons hold the lead at halftime since 2008. He was again pivotal in guiding quarterback Matt Ryan in his second season under center as the Boston College graduate set five single-game career highs and totaled a career mark for touchdown passes in a season with 22.

Mularkey's successful impact on the Falcons was immense in his first season in Atlanta in 2008. Under his direction, Atlanta's diverse offense finished second in the NFL with an average of 152.7 rushing yards per game, sixth in total offense with an average of 361.2 yards a game, 14th in passing yards with a 208.5 average per contest, and 10th in points scored at 24.4. The Falcons broke a 27-year old team record by totaling 5,779 net yards gained in '08 and also established a new club mark by only surrendering 17 total sacks overall. The 391 points scored and 61.1 passing completion percentage were both the fifth-best marks in a season in club history. Mularkey's efficient offense helped the Falcons finish with an 11-5 record – only the fifth double-digit win total in a season in team history - and earn a Wild Card playoff berth.

Focusing heavily on the run in 2008, Mularkey had the talent of newly acquired running back Michael Turner to work with. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner posted 1,699 rushing yards (third most ever by a Falcons runner) while pounding his way to a team record 17 rushing touchdowns. Led by Turner, the Falcons rushing game finished with 2,443 yards on the ground, the fifth-most ever in club annals, as the veteran runner earned his first Pro Bowl nod, was voted a first-team All Pro, and finished second in the NFL in MVP balloting. Roddy White joined Turner in the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career as well as he set a franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards and a personal-best 88 receptions. Part of White's success came from Matt Ryan who benefited greatly from the experience of Mularkey at the offensive helm. As a rookie, Ryan won the prestigious Associated Press and Sporting News Rookie of the Year honors. He became the first rookie quarterback in club annals to win 11 games as the starting quarterback and became only the second rookie in NFL history to throw for over 3,000 yards in his first season, sharing the honor with Indianapolis quarterback Peyton Manning.

In 2007, Mularkey served as the Tight Ends Coach for the Dolphins and guided seven year veteran David Martin, who finished fourth on the team in receptions (34). Before joining Miami's staff in 2006 as the offensive coordinator, Mularkey spent two seasons as the head coach of the Buffalo Bills (14-18 overall record). In his first season in 2004, he led the Bills to their first winning campaign in five years with a 9-7 record as the club tallied wins in nine of their final 12 games.

From 1996-2003, Mularkey spent eight seasons on the successful coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers under Head Coach Bill Cowher and served as the Offensive Coordinator in his final three years. As Offensive Coordinator, Mularkey's offense in Pittsburgh finished third and fifth, respectively, in the NFL in total offense in his first two years. The Steelers also averaged 173.4 rushing yards per game, which led the League in 2001. Mularkey helped the Steelers register a 13-3 record in 2001 on the way to an AFC Central Division championship and an AFC Championship Game appearance. Under Mularkey's creative tutelage, quarterback Kordell Stewart passed for 3,109 yards en route to be chosen to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. The following season in 2002 Mularkey's coaching expertise was witnessed again as he helped resurrect quarterback Tommy Maddox's career. After not playing in the NFL in five years, Maddox threw for 2,836 yards with 20 touchdowns and set a single-season franchise record with a 62.1 completion percentage to earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year honors.

COACH MIKE MULARKEY

Mularkey spent his first five years in Pittsburgh as the club's Tight Ends Coach. He helped mold Mark Bruener into one of the best run-blocking tight ends in the league during his tenure. The solid tight end play from Mularkey's crew enabled running back Jerome Bettis to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for five-straight seasons. The Steelers as a team also were among the top 10 in the league in the rushing department every season and led the NFL in 1997, as well as finishing second in 1996.

Mularkey began his coaching journey in the league as a Quality Control Coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and was then promoted to Tight Ends coach the following season. In his only season working with the Bucs tight ends, Jackie Harris hauled in a team-best 62 passes for 751 yards to become one of just three tight ends in the team's history to stand atop the club's yearly receiving chart.

His first coaching venture came at Concordia College where he spent the 1993 season as the Offensive Line Coach.

A ninth-round draft selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983, Mularkey was released by the Niners at the end of training camp but was picked up by the Vikings. He spent the next six seasons in Minnesota before being signed away as a Plan B free agent in 1989 by the Steelers, where he performed for three years. For his career, he totaled 102 catches for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns in 114 games played.

A native of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Mularkey, 48, captured three letters at the University of Florida (1980-82). He and his wife, Betsy, have two sons, Patrick and Shane.

BRIAN VANGORDER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Now entering his third season as Defensive Coordinator, Brian VanGorder has seen improvement in his defensive unit following his first two seasons with the Falcons. Last year, Atlanta's rush defense finished tied for 10th best in the NFL (sixth in the NFC), allowing an average of only 106.8 yards per game. The ranking was 15 spots better than the previous 2008 campaign. From Week 10 to the season finale, the Falcons improved their rush defense from 26th in the NFL to 10th and in the last two weeks alone, jumped 10 spots.

Under VanGorder's leadership, the Falcons 2009 rush defense only allowed one 100-yard rushing all season (Fred Taylor, Week 3) and posted a streak of 10 consecutive quarters without a touchdown allowed from the second quarter of Week 15 to the fourth quarter of Week 17. In the last two seasons, the Falcons defense has also contributed to a 6-0 record when holding opponents to under 300 net yards and an 11-2 record when opponents rush for under 100 net yards.

Last season featured the emergence of safety Thomas DeCoud, while linebacker Curtis Lofton and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux posted career seasons. Last year also featured linebacker Mike Peterson's first in a Falcons uniform. The 12-year veteran finished second on the team in tackles with 140 while adding one sack, one interception and two forced fumbles. In his first season starting at the safety position, DeCoud was a forced to be reckoned with. The University of California graduate totaled 113 tackles, two sacks and three interceptions. He was also named the Falcons lone Conference Player of the Week in 2009, following his performance against the Chicago Bears on Sunday Night Football and was named to the 2009 USA Today All-Joe Team. Lofton led the team in tackles with 160, which was also the highest team total since 2006. His tackle total was also sixth-best in the NFL, which included a single-game career-high 19 tackles in a meeting against New England (Week 3). Babineaux started all 16 contests and finished the year with career highs in tackles (58), sacks (a team-leading 6.0) and fumble recoveries (two). The Falcons also witnessed large contributions from safety Erik Coleman (139 tackles) and young cornerback Brent Grimes, who led the team in interceptions with six.

In 2008, VanGorder started the retooling process of transforming the Falcons defense into a unit that plays with intensity, passion, aggression and toughness. His troops responded by making steady improvements along the way and proved downright stingy when it came to surrendering points. The Falcons, under VanGorder's guidance, finished 11th in the NFL in points allowed at just an average of 20.3 per contest.

With VanGorder's direction, Lofton played a pivotal role in developing the defense. He earned a starting spot in the middle of the defense as a rookie, garnering NFL All-Rookie accolades by Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly, and finished fourth on the team in tackles and second in the entire league among all rookies (according to Stats, Inc.) with 108 stops. VanGorder's defense also witnessed some key veterans making strong contributions in the form of John Abraham, and Erik Coleman. Abraham broke the team record for sacks in a season with 16.5 and personified VanGorder's idea of passionate play on every single down. Coleman, a key free agent acquisition, fit in nicely, galvanizing the secondary on his way to a then career-high 127 tackles (second-best on the team) with three interceptions and two forced fumbles.

VanGorder took over control of the Falcons defense with an extensive coaching background that included three seasons in the NFL trenches and four years as a highly successful Defensive Coordinator at arguably the toughest conference in the nation in the Southeastern Conference at the University of Georgia.

Prior to serving as the Head Coach of the Georgia Southern Eagles in 2006, VanGorder spent the 2005 season coaching the linebackers for the Jacksonville Jaguars under Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. Jacksonville ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense that season with VanGorder's help.

From 2001-2004, VanGorder was the Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach at Georgia. The Bulldogs posted a 42-10 record over his four seasons at UGA, won one SEC title, two SEC East Division championships, captured three Bowl games and ended up with three straight top 10 finishes in the final national polls, In 2003, VanGorder received the Frank Boyles "Assistant Coach of the Year" award by the NCAA, which honors the nation's top assistant coach, and also the Southern Sports Tonight's assistant of the year in 2002 by the media.

In his last season in Athens (Ga.) in 2004, the 10-2 Bulldogs and seventh ranked team in the nation produced a defense that ranked eighth overall and ninth in scoring defense. VanGorder's 2003 defensive unit finished third nationally in scoring defense, fourth in total defense, and sixth in passing defense. In 2002, UGA's stout defense allowed only 31 points during the final seven games, propelling the Bulldogs to a Sugar Bowl win over Florida State (26-13) and a number three ranking overall in the polls. His strong defense also led the SEC in scoring defense and finished fourth nationally.

VanGorder also had coaching stints at Western Illinois (2000), Central Michigan (1998-99), the University of Central Florida (1995-1997), Wayne State (1992-1994) and Grand Valley State (1989-91).

VanGorder, 51, was born in Jackson, Michigan. He and his wife, Pollie, have five children: Molloy, Morgan, Mack, Montgomery and Malone.

COACH BRIAN VANGORDER

KEITH ARMSTRONG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

In his third season with the team, the Falcons will again rely heavily on Special Teams Coordinator Keith Armstrong to guide a unit that has been extremely successful in the past two seasons. Armstrong already has many noteworthy accomplishments in his Falcons tenure, which includes an NFL record 43 opponent punt return yards allowed in 2008 and a first place ranking in opponent starting field position on kickoffs (21.4 average start) in 2009.

Last year, Armstrong and the Falcons witnessed the emergence of Eric Weems who served as the team's punt and kickoff returner. Weems ranked seventh in the NFC in kickoff return yard average with a 25.3 mark and recorded a long return of 62 yards against Chicago in Week 6. Weems also compiled 270 punt return yards, which is the highest total since 2006. Falcons kicker Michael Koenen pieced together a tremendous year as the five-year veteran ranked second in the NFL on kickoff touchbacks with 28 and booted a career-long punt of 70 yards in Week 10. Koenen also tied a team record with five kickoff touchbacks in one game on two occasions, both against the Carolina Panthers

Coupled with the individual success on special teams and Atlanta's first place ranking in opponents starting field position, the Falcons also ranked first in the league in fewest special teams penalties committed with six. With these achievements, Armstrong's unit ranked seventh in the NFC in overall special teams play, according to the Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin, who compiles a comprehensive and well-respected list of each club's special teams rankings each season. Armstrong finished the 2008 season with an impressive ranking on this list as well as the Falcons earned the 10th overall spot in the NFL.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked second in opponents starting field position, eighth in kickoff coverage, eighth in field goals made and first in points allowed on returns. Kickoff returner Jerious Norwood notched 1,311 yards on 51 attempts for a 25.7 average which was good enough for the fourth-highest mark in the NFC. In his rookie season, punt returner Harry Douglas ranked fifth in the conference in punt return yards with 226 for an 11.9 average after taking over the full-time duties in Week 6. Douglas garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance against the Carolina Panthers in a Week 12 victory when he recorded his first career punt return touchdown of 61 yards in the fourth quarter to seal the win for the Falcons.

Keith Armstrong's successful resume was a strong reason that Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith chose the 45-year-old Levittown, Pa. native when he was searching for a coach to lead his special teams in Atlanta.

Armstrong joined the Falcons following seven seasons in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins. The 16-year NFL coaching veteran was instrumental in 2007 in helping punt returner Ted Ginn, Jr. finish fourth in the AFC with a 9.6 return average. The average was also the 10th best mark in the entire NFL among all punt returners. Ginn also returned 63 kickoffs for 1,433 yards and a 22.7 yard per return average. With Armstrong's coaching, Kicker Jay Feeley connected on 21 of 23 field goals for a 91.3 percent success rate, which ranked second in the League just behind Pittsburgh's 92.0 percentage mark.

From 2001-2006, the Dolphins finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season under Armstrong's positive direction. During that same time frame, Miami opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the league in the category, and a 4.9-yard average (third in NFL) in 2005. In 2003, the Dolphins ranked first in the NFL in opponents' average starting field position with a 25.0-yard line mark and finished second in the same category in 2006 with a 24.9 figure. Over that same time period, the Dolphins special teams under Armstrong's leadership only surrendered just one punt or kickoff return for a touchdown, which was tied with Dallas for the fewest number in the league.

Prior to landing in Miami, Armstrong served in the same role with the Chicago Bears from 1997-2000. In 2000, Chicago's special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0 yards per return. In his four seasons with the Bears, Chicago's special teams ranked in the top 10 in the League in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice in each category.

Armstrong earned his start in the NFL with the Falcons in 1994 as the Safeties Coach. In 1996, he was promoted to run the entire secondary. Before his full-time positions in the NFL, he was part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during training camps with the New York Jets (1991), Dallas Cowboys (1992) and Chicago Bears (1993).

Armstrong coached his way through the collegiate ranks before joining the NFL. He garnered four letters as a running back and defensive back at Temple University from 1983-1986 before joining the school as a graduate sssistant in 1987. Armstrong then joined the University of Miami as the Defensive Backs and Special Teams Coach for one season (1988) before coaching the wide receivers at the University of Akron (1989).

His last two stops in college before joining the Falcons came at Oklahoma State as the Secondary Coach from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame as the linebackers and Special Teams Coach in 1993.

Keith and his wife, Kathleen, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kristen.

PAUL BOUDREAU

OFFENSIVE LINE

A 24-year coaching veteran in the NFL trenches, Paul Boudreau will continue to direct the Falcons' offensive line for his third season in Atlanta in 2010. Boudreau's linemen helped the team total the second fewest sacks allowed per play in a single-season with just one per 21.1 pass plays in 2009. His line's strong play also enabled the Falcons offense to amass 330 first downs, the second-most ever in a season.

With Boudreau's adept coaching, the offensive line allowed quarterback Matt Ryan to throw for 2,916 yards with a career-best 22 touchdown passes last season. Running back Michael Turner scored 10 rushing touchdowns and wide receiver Roddy White topped 1,100 receiving yards with over 80 catches for the third consecutive season for the first time in team history with the aide of Boudreau's charges. White also went to the Pro Bowl for the second-straight year while catching a career-high 11 touchdowns.

In 2008, Boudreau's unit opened holes for the NFL's second ranked rushing offense (152.7 yards per game). Turner ranked second in the NFL in rushing (1,699 yards), marking the third highest rushing total in Falcons history, en route to his first Pro Bowl. Boudreau's line also assisted in Turner scoring a franchise-high 17 times and passing the 200-yard plateau on two occasions. Boudreau's offensive line also protected NFL Rookie of the Year QB Matt Ryan so that he could throw for 3,440 yards with 16 touchdowns. Ryan's production could be credited to the fact that Boudreau's offensive line allowed a franchise-low of 17 sacks, surpassing the previous mark of 25 (1982). The 17 sacks on 434 pass attempts were equivalent to allowing one sack per every 25.5 plays, which also set a new franchise mark. With the help of Boudreau's linemen, the Falcons recorded a franchise-high 5,779 total net yards and the fifth-highest rushing total in club history (2,443 yards).

Boudreau's stellar offensive lines over the years have helped pave the way for four running backs to top the 10,000-yard career rushing mark, including Barry Sanders, Curtis Martin, Thurman Thomas and Fred Taylor.

From 2006-07, Boudreau served as the Offensive Line Coach for the St. Louis Rams. In 2007, Rams running back Steven Jackson tallied his second consecutive 1,000-yard season behind Boudreau's offensive line. In 2006, Jackson gained a career-high 1,528 rushing yards while nine different players started on the offensive line.

Prior to joining the Rams, Boudreau was the Offensive Line Coach for three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-05). In 2003, the Jacksonville offensive line set a franchise record by allowing only 28 sacks (tied for ninth in the NFL). Running back Fred Taylor also rushed for a team-record 1,572 yards.

Boudreau tutored the Carolina Panthers offensive line from 2001-02 and saw the team set a club record by allowing only 31 sacks in '01. From 1999-2000, he served in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins.

From 1997-98, Boudreau coached the offensive line for the New England Patriots following a three-year stint with the Detroit Lions guiding the same unit. His first position in the NFL came in New Orleans from 1987-93. In his seven seasons with the Saints, Boudreau's line placed in the top three in fewest sacks allowed on four occasions. In 1992, the Saints allowed a league-low 15 sacks.

Boudreau and his wife, Joan, have one son, Paul, and one daughter, Jill. His son, Paul, is also a coach and Jill is the mother of four children, Kalyn, Zach, Olivia and Grace.

GERALD BROWN

RUNNING BACKS

Gerald Brown's diligent work with running back Jason Snelling and Snelling's emergence as a solid contributor to fellow runner Michael Turner was one of the highlights of the Falcons offense in 2009. When Turner was forced out from the lineup due to injury for five games, Snelling picked up his game, establishing new career-highs in carries (142), rushing yards (613), receptions (30), receiving yards (259) and touchdowns scored (five). Snelling topped off his best season as a pro with a career-best 147 rushing yards in the season finale win at Tampa Bay.

Although Turner was limited to 11 games played, he was a force when healthy due to Brown's positive influence. Turner scored 10 touchdowns and finished with a team-leading 871 yards for a personal-best (as a full-time runner) 4.9 yards per carry average. Turner's 27 touchdowns scored over the last two seasons are tied for second in the NFL to the Vikings' Adrian Peterson (28).

Brown's first year in charge of Falcons running backs in 2008 was also Turner's first shot at being a full-time starter in the NFL. Both experiences proved to be very successful. Turner finished second in the league behind Peterson in Minnesota (by just 61 yards) with 1,699 rushing yards and set a franchise record with 17 rushing touchdowns. The 1,699 yards were the third-best season totals all-time in Falcons annals.

Under Brown's leadership, Turner's breakout year also included eight, 100-yard rushing games with a pair of impressive 200-plus yard contests. In his first game in a Falcons uniform, Turner shattered the team record for rushing yards in a game with 220 in a victory over the Detroit Lions. He then ended the regular season in similar fashion with a 208-yard outing against St. Louis. Turner was second in the NFL in MVP voting, earned a Pro Bowl nod for the first time in his career, and captured NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors three times.

Brown's handiwork was also witnessed through his guidance with the dangerous Jerious Norwood in '08. Norwood averaged 5.1 yards per carry with his 489 yards on 95 carries and four touchdowns while also ending up fourth on the team in receptions with 36 for 338 more yards and two scores. Norwood and Turner also combined to register 62 rushes of 10-plus yards with Turner's 45 leading the NFL.

Before coming to Atlanta, Brown's coaching career spanned 22 years, including the previous six seasons at Indiana University.

Brown's coaching performance at Indiana in his first five seasons earned him the Assistant Head Coach title on top of his duties as Special Teams Co-Coordinator and Running Backs Coach in 2007. The Hooisers ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring offense in 2007 (31.7 points per game) while the team logged 157.4 rushing yards per game. With an assist from Brown, Indiana kicker Austin Starr led the conference in field goal percentage with a 91.3 mark (21 of 23). In 2006, Marcus Thigpen led the nation in kickoff return average (30.1) while the university led the nation in the category in 2004.

In Brown's first five seasons at IU, Hoosier running backs averaged 1,549 rushing yards per season. In his first year (2002), Indiana gained 1,398 yards despite not having a running back with more than 90 career carries entering the '02 campaign. In 2003, BenJarvus Green Ellis became the seventh true freshman in Indiana history to rush for 100 yards in a game and just the third freshman to eclipse the 200-yard plateau in a single-game.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Brown served as the Running Backs Coach for the Memphis Maniax of the XFL. His feature running back was former Heisman Trophy award winner Rashaan Salaam who held the league rushing lead before suffering an injury halfway through the season. Under Brown, the Maniax led the XFL in total offense, finishing second in rushing offense while averaging over 100 yards per game.

Brown calls the state of Tennessee home as the Sweetwater native spent his first 17 years of coaching in the state following his graduation from Memphis State University in 1982. For 10 seasons (1989-98), he was an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech University, serving in a capacity of roles including: Wide Receivers Coach, Special Teams Coach and Quarterbacks Coach with the Golden Eagles.

Tennessee Tech pieced together two of its best seasons while Brown was a member of the staff. From 1992-1993, the Golden Eagles posted a 15-7 overall record and a 13-3 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference. Brown also received two minority coaching fellowships with the New York Jets (1990) and the Miami Dolphins (1996). During those internships, he worked with some of the NFL's best receivers, including Al Toon, Rob Moore and Terence Mathis of the Jets and Fred Barnett, O.J. McDuffie and Charles Jordan of the Miami Dolphins.

In 1983, Brown got his coaching start at the University of Tennessee where he began as a graduate assistant. In 1984, he became an administrative assistant and served as the Volunteers' scout and computer analyst. Brown was part of a Tennessee coaching staff for six seasons (1983-1988) and worked with seven All-America selections, including Reggie White, Tim McGee and Anthony Miller.

Brown played as a wide receiver from 1979-1981 at Memphis State University and graduated as a scholar-athlete in 1982 with a bachelor's degree in marketing/transportation.

Brown and his wife, Jill, have one daughter, Caitlin.

COACH GERALD BROWN

MARK COLLINS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Mark Collins enters his first season with the Atlanta Falcons serving as the team's Defensive Assistant. Collins joins the Falcons and NFL for his first season following a successful 11-year coaching tenure in the collegiate ranks.

In 2009, Collins was hired as an assistant coach for the University of Louisiana-Monroe, specifically handling the safeties. Last season, the Warhawks defense allowed an average of 236.9 passing yards per game while compiling 13 interceptions. Collins also coached two All-Sun Belt selections in safeties Greg James and James Truxillo.

Prior to joining Louisiana-Monroe, Collins served as a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia. In 2007, the Bulldogs enjoyed an 11-2 season and a No. 2 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. Georgia won its last seven contests of the season, which included a 41-10 victory over Hawaii in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Collins served as the Linebackers Coach for Georgia Southern University and worked under then-Head Coach Brian VanGorder. Collins also worked with the special teams and was the camp and clinic director. At GSU, Collins coached AFCA first-team All-America selection, John Mohring.

A graduate of East Tennessee State University, Collins joined the coaching staff of his alma mater in 1999 and served in a variety of roles, including Outside Linebackers Coach, Defensive Line Coach, Special Teams Coordinator and Assistant Defensive Backs Coach. Following four seasons at ETSU, Collins was hired by the University of Michigan where he was part of two Big Ten Championships and back-to-back trips to the Rose Bowl. He worked with the team's linebackers as well as the offensive linemen during his two seasons in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Collins' final stop before arriving in Statesboro, Georgia was at Elon University where he served as the school's Defensive Coordinator in 2005. He led the Phoenix defense to a number three ranking in total defense in the Southern Conference and also guided Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Chad Nkang.

Collins was a four-year starter at defensive end and outside linebacker at ETSU. He won the John Robert Bell Award, which is given to the player who displays intensity, loyalty and work ethic. He was also the team's captain in 1997. From 1995-96, Collins was a National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame Scholar.

Collins is a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. He earned his bachelor's degree in finance.

PAUL DUNN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Assistant Offensive Line Coach Paul Dunn begins his third season with the Falcons and has played a significant role in the success of the line in the last two years. He is a coaching veteran of 26 seasons, which includes 23 years of guiding the offensive line.

Following a 2008 campaign where the offensive line set a franchise record for the fewest sacks allowed in a season (17), Atlanta continued the momentum last year and totaled an average of one sack per every 21.1 plays, which is the second-best mark for a season in club annals.

In 2009, Atlanta's offensive line blocked for a passing attack that totaled 3,571 net passing yards, the sixth-highest total in team history and the highest mark since the 1996 season. The Falcons also averaged 4.2 rushing yards per carry behind the stout line as Atlanta produced a 9-7 record and back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Dunn witnessed solid performances from numerous members of the offensive line, including center Todd McClure, left guard Justin Blalock and right tackle Tyson Clabo, each of whom started every game last season. McClure, an 11-year veteran with the Falcons, has competed in 152 career contests and is one start shy of the franchise record for the most consecutive starts (129).

In Dunn's first season, the offensive line paved the way for the NFL's second ranked rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and Pro Bowl running back Michael Turner. Turner ranked second in the NFL in rushing (1,699 yards) in 2008, marking the third-highest rushing total in Falcons history. Under the guidance of Dunn, the offensive line also assisted Turner crossing the goal line a franchise-high 17 times and passing the 200-yard plateau on two occasions. The Falcons' offensive line also provided time for NFL Rookie of the Year QB Matt Ryan as he threw for 3,440 yards (on 265 of 434 passing) with 16 touchdowns. Ryan's production could be credited to the fact that the Falcons' offensive line allowed a franchise-low 17 sacks, surpassing the previous mark of 25 (1982). The 17 sacks on 434 pass attempts were equivalent to allowing one sack per every 25.5 plays, which also set a new franchise mark, surpassing the previous best of one sack per every 17.1 plays (1997, 1994).

Prior to joining the Falcons, Dunn served as the Offensive Line Coach (2005-2007) for the Pittsburgh Panthers, his alma mater. In 2007, Pitt's offensive line opened holes for freshman running back LeSean McCoy to rush for 1,328 yards while breaking freshman records in touchdowns (14) and points (90), which were previously held by Tony Dorsett. The offensive line also paved the way for LaRod Stephens-Howling who currently serves as a running back and kick returner for the Arizona Cardinals. The Panthers ranked 16th nationally in 2006 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.5 per game) under the guidance of Dunn.

Before returning to Pittsburgh, Dunn was the Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach for the Kentucky Wildcats from 2003-04.

Dunn has also registered a five-year coaching stint at Kansas State University as the Running Game Coordinator and offensive line coach. During Dunn's tenure, the Wildcats ranked among the nation's top five in scoring four times, including a national-best 48 points per game in 1998. Dunn coached four Kansas State players who earned All-America honors, including first-team honoree Nick Leckey who plays for the New Orleans Saints. Additionally, Ryan Lijia earned All-Big 12 honors and was a starting guard for the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts during the 2006 season. Dunn also guided running back Darren Sproles, who is a current running back for the San Diego Chargers. Sproles graduated ranked 11th on the all-time college rushing yards list and sixth in all-purpose yards.

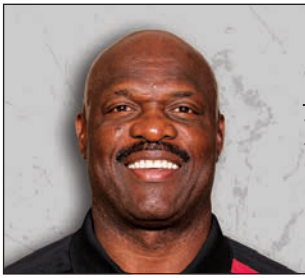
Dunn earned his coaching start at Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant in 1983, prior to joining the Penn State Nittany Lions as a graduate assistant under head coach Joe Paterno (1984-1985).

A three-year letterman during his collegiate career at Pitt (1978-82), Dunn was a member of four teams that finished in the Top 10, including two that finished second in at least one major poll. The Panthers went 11-1 in three consecutive years (1979-81), including the 1980 campaign when Pitt was named the nation's top team by the New York Times.

Dunn and his wife, Melody, have been married 25 years and have three children, two daughters, Katlyn and Kelsey, and one son, Casey.

COACH PAUL DUNN



RAY HAMILTON

DEFENSIVE LINE

Ray Hamilton will be lending his coaching expertise again to the Falcons for the third season and 24th overall in the NFL in 2010. In addition, Hamilton will also rely on his nine seasons in the league as a player to further aide in the development of his defensive linemen.

Hamilton's successful efforts with defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux paid career changing dividends as Babineaux compiled a career-best season last year. The five-year veteran set personal-bests in sacks with a team-leading six, tackles with 58, and fumble recoveries with a pair in 16 starts.

"Sugar Bear's" strong line play in '09 allowed the Falcons defense to finish 10th in the NFL against the rush and surrender just one 100-yard rusher all season. Atlanta's defense also enjoyed a productive streak of 10 consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown.

Hamilton will continue to tap into the immense potential of 2009 first round draft pick defensive tackle Peria Jerry, who endured a season-ending injury after only two games last season.

In 2008, Hamilton's work with defensive end John Abraham enabled him to total a franchise record and career-high 16.5 sacks. Under the direction of Hamilton, the defensive line recorded 31 of the team's 34 sacks on the season.

Prior to coming to the Falcons, Hamilton was the Defensive Line Coach in Jacksonville from 2003-07. The Jaguars defense ranked fourth in the NFL during that time in yards per game (300.1) and fourth in scoring defense (18.2). The defensive line also posted 180 sacks in that same time frame led by Pro Bowlers Marcus Stroud and John Henderson.

During the 2007 campaign, Jacksonville's defense ranked sixth in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.0) while ranking fifth in the conference in rushing defense (100.3). The Jags also held opponents to 17 points or less in 10 of 16 games, which tied for the most in the NFL with three other teams.

In 2006, Hamilton guided defensive end Bobby McCray who developed into one of the AFC's top pass rushers as he led Jacksonville with a career-high 10 sacks. The defensive line combined for 29.5 sacks, ranking fourth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game.

Prior to joining Jacksonville, Hamilton spent two seasons as the Defensive Line Coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2001-02. In his first season with Cleveland, the Browns tied for fourth in the AFC with 43 sacks. For three seasons, Hamilton served as New England's defensive line coach from 1997-99 and joined the New York Jets staff in 2000. His 1998 defensive line tallied 25 of the team's 36 sacks, the seventh-best total in the NFL.

In 1995, Hamilton joined the Jets in his first stint with the team as the Defensive Line Coach. He coached defensive end Hugh Douglas, who was named the 1995 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. From 1993-94, Hamilton was a member of the Los Angeles Raiders where he developed Chester McGlockton and a defensive line that combined for 83 sacks in his two seasons with the Silver & Black.

Hamilton spent his only season in the collegiate ranks with the University of Tennessee in 1992 as the Defensive Line Coach, following stints as the Defensive Line Coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991) and the Head Coach of the Bay State Titans (1990), a semi-pro team that featured defensive tackle Eric Swann, the sixth overall choice in the 1991 NFL Draft.

Hamilton began his coaching career in 1985, spending five seasons as an Assistant Defensive Line coach with the New England Patriots. He helped the Patriots reach their first AFC Championship title and a Super Bowl XX appearance.

A 14th-round draft choice by the Patriots, Hamilton was a fixture on the New England defensive line from 1973-81 while establishing rookie records with seven sacks. "Sugar Bear" went on to start a team record 110 consecutive games and currently ranks fifth on the Patriots' all-time sack list with 54.

Hamilton was born on January 20, 1951 in Omaha, Nebraska. He graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in business and was named an all-conference selection as a defensive tackle in both his junior and senior seasons. Hamilton received a master's degree in public administration in 1977 from Suffolk University while playing for the Patriots.

Hamilton and his wife, Phyllis, have two sons, Kadar, and Damon.

TIM LEWIS

SECONDARY

Tim Lewis embarks on his first season as the Falcons Secondary Coach and brings 15 years of NFL coaching experience to Atlanta. Lewis is known for his expertise in the secondary as he has served as either a Defensive Backs Coach or Defensive Coordinator throughout his coaching tenure.

Lewis began his pro career serving as the Pittsburgh Steelers Defensive Backs Coach for five seasons (1995-99) before being named Defensive Coordinator over the next four years. His defense ranked seventh overall in his first season as coordinator and jumped to lead the league in total defense in 2001. In 2002 and 2003, his unit also finished in the NFL's top 10, giving him four-consecutive top-10 finishes as a Defensive Coordinator. Lewis coached the likes of safety Rod Woodson in Pittsburgh for two seasons (1995-96). In '96, the Hall of Famer contributed with six interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 19 passes defensed.

Following his coaching stint with the Steelers, Lewis spent three years as Defensive Coordinator with the New York Giants. In 2005, his defense did not allow a touchdown in a span that covered 15 quarters and 53 opponent possessions. During his three-year tenure, the Giants ranked sixth in the NFC in opponents passing yards per attempt average (6.79) and second in the conference in opponent passing plays of 25-plus yards allowed. In 2004, New York ranked fifth in the NFC in total defense allowing an average of 339.8 yards per game.

Lewis began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M in 1987 under Jackie Sherrill, who was his coach as a player at the University of Pittsburgh. Following two seasons with the Aggies, he spent four years (1989-92) as the Defensive Backs Coach at Southern Methodist University.

Lewis was the 11th overall pick in the 1983 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. He played four seasons for the Packers and twice led or shared the team lead in interceptions before his career was cut short due to a neck injury suffered in the third game of the 1986 season against the Chicago Bears. He finished his career with 16 interceptions in 51 games, including a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Rams on November 18, 1984, to set a Packers record.

Brother of Seahawks VP of Football Operations, Will Lewis, Tim and his wife, Shawn, have two daughters, Erin and Chelsea, and a son, Bryce.

GLENN PIRES

LINEBACKERS

Glenn Pires is a 15-year veteran of the NFL coaching fraternity and the 2010 season marks his third year tutoring the Falcons linebackers.

Last season, Pires' ardent work with middle linebacker Curtis Lofton continued to yield big dividends as Lofton led the team for the first time in his career in tackles while finishing tied for sixth in the entire league with a career-high 160 stops. Lofton's 160 tackles were the most in a single-season by a Falcon since 2006 and the former Oklahoma product tallied nine games with double-digit stops.

Pires was also responsible for coaching two new starters in '09 in free agent signee Mike Peterson and 2007 draft pick Stephen Nicholas. Under Pires' direction, Peterson ended up with over 100 tackles for the ninth time in his career and Nicholas finished with a career-best 92 stops.

The solid linebacker play in '09 through Pires' help allowed the Falcons defense to finish 10th in the NFL against the rush (106.8 yards per contest) and surrender just one 100-yard rusher. The birds defense also enjoyed a productive streak of 10 consecutive quarters with allowing a touchdown.

In his first season in 2008, Pires relentless work with Lofton enabled the first-year player to earn All-Rookie honors from Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly as he finished with the second most tackles by any rookie with 108.

Prior to landing in Atlanta, Pries worked five seasons (2003-07) with the Miami Dolphins and coached such players as Pro Bowlers Zach Thomas and Joey Porter along with the talented Channing Crowder.

Pires started his tenure with the Dolphins as the Assistant Defensive Line coach from 2003-04 and coached Pro Bowl defensive ends Jason Taylor and Adewale Ogunleye.

Before joining the Dolphins, Pires spent each of the previous two years (2001-02) as Linebackers Coach with the Detroit Lions. He got his start in the NFL coaching ranks tutoring the linebackers with the Arizona Cardinals in 1996 while spending the next five seasons at that post.

A four-year letterman as on offensive lineman at Springfield College (Massachusetts), Pires earned his bachelor's degree in education from the school in 1980. He started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Melrose High School (Massachusetts). In 1983, he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant for Syracuse University before moving on to Dartmouth College where he served as the Defensive Line/Linebackers coach from 1985-88. Pires returned to Syracuse in 1989 and coached the Orange defensive line for two seasons before handling outside linebackers from 1991-94. His last stop in the collegiate ranks came at Michigan State University where he coached outside linebackers and handled recruiting duties in 1995.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, have one daughter, Jackie and one son, Michael.

ALVIN REYNOLDS

DEFENSIVE BACK

Alvin Reynolds embarks on his third season as the Falcons Defensive Backs Coach. Reynolds has spent his entire 26-year coaching career overseeing the defensive backfield, which includes 17 years of NFL coaching experience.

In 2009, Reynolds guided the likes of safety Thomas DeCoud, who pieced-together a breakout season. In his second year, DeCoud started all 16 contests and recorded 113 tackles, two sacks, three interceptions, seven passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He was also the lone Falcons player to earn conference player of the week honors last season following his performance against the Chicago Bears on Sunday Night Football. Along with the performance from safety Erik Coleman, who led the secondary in tackles (139), Reynolds also witnessed solid play from cornerback Brent Grimes. In 16 games (eight starts), Grimes finished the year with the team lead in interceptions (six) while contributing with 67 tackles and 13 passes defensed.

In his first season with the Falcons in 2008, the secondary recorded 76 passes defensed and 10 interceptions. The team's 76 passes defensed rank eighth all-time in Falcons history and were the most since 2004 (80). Newcomer Erik Coleman logged a team-high three interceptions and posted a career-best 127 tackles while rookie cornerback Chevis Jackson also contributed with 33 tackles, five passes defensed and one interception.

From 2003-07, Reynolds served as the Defensive Backs Coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. During his tenure with the Jaguars, he guided a secondary that ranked fourth in the AFC after totaling 20 interceptions (tying a team record) in 2007, led by rookie safety Reggie Nelson's five picks. In 2006, cornerback Rashean Mathis led the club with a team-record eight interceptions en route to a Pro Bowl bid as Jacksonville set a franchise high with 20 INTs.

Jacksonville's defensive unit ranked fourth in overall defense from 2003-07 allowing an average of only 296.6 yards per game. The unit also ranked third in opponents points allowed (16.1) and fifth in rushing defense (99.3) from 2003-06. Working under the direction of Jaguars Head Coach Jack Del Rio and Defensive Coordinator Mike Smith, Reynolds and the secondary were part of a defense that allowed 283.6 yards per game in 2006, which ranked second in the NFL and set a franchise record low.

Reynolds coached the Carolina Panthers for four seasons (1999-2002) as a Defensive Assistant. He was present with the Baltimore Ravens for its first three seasons in franchise history (1996-98) as the Secondary Coach and started his NFL career with the Denver Broncos (1993-95).

Throughout his career, Reynolds has worked with the likes of safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith in Denver and Hall of Famer Rod Woodson in Baltimore. With the Panthers, he worked with then-Defensive Coordinator Jack Del Rio, helping with tape breakdown, game plan preparation and statistical tendencies. He also worked with the Carolina secondary.

In 1982, Reynolds joined his alma mater, Indiana State, as a graduate assistant. He was named the team's secondary coach in 1983 and served in that capacity before becoming an Assistant Head Coach and Recruiting Coordinator in addition to coaching the secondary in 1990. He coached two All-America players, including former NFL cornerback Vencie Glenn.

Reynolds was a standout strong safety at Indiana State (1978-1981) and totaled 225 career tackles while adding 21 passes defensed, five fumble recoveries and five interceptions.

A native of Pineville, Louisiana, Reynolds attended West Jefferson High School in Harvey, La. He was an All-America selection and a two-time Most Valuable Player on the track team. He earned a degree in business management from Indiana State in 1982 and a Master's degree in political science from the school in 1990.

Reynolds has three children, son, Alvin Reynolds, Jr, a graduate of Notre Dame University, and daughters, Isabella, and Ana Gabriella.

TERRY ROBISKIE

WIDE RECEIVERS

Terry Robiskie will direct the Falcons wide receivers for the third year in Atlanta and the 2010 campaign will mark his impressive 29th season overall in NFL coaching circles.

Robiskie's tireless work with Roddy White enabled the veteran to become only the second wide out in team history to total over 1,000 receiving yards for a third straight season with a career-high 11 touchdowns en route to his second career Pro Bowl nod in 2009. White is also the first receiver in franchise history to amass 80-plus catches and 1,100-plus yards three consecutive years. His 210-yard receiving day at San Francisco set a new club record and his 90-yard touchdown grab that day was the third-longest ever in a single-game in team history.

Under Robiskie's tutelage, fellow receiver Michael Jenkins continued his consistent play by hauling in 50 catches for the third straight campaign in '09. Robiskie's receivers also collectively helped the offense post the second-most total first downs in team history with 330.

In 2008 through the play of Robiskie's receivers, the Falcons established a team record for net yards gained with 5,779 on the heels of their 3,336 net yards passing. His unit also aided the ground game with their solid downfield blocking as Falcons runners totaled 2,443 yards rushing with a 152.7 per game average. Running back Michael Turner earned his first Pro Bowl with 1,699 yards rushing and a franchise record 17 rushing touchdowns.

With Robiskie's excellent coaching in '08, White produced his first Pro Bowl invitation by breaking the Falcons' single-season receiving yardage record with 1,382 yards. In the process, he became the first receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-plus yard seasons. White also set career-bests in receptions with 88 and 100-yard games with seven. He led the NFL in the all-important category of third down receiving yards (516) while finishing second in the league in third down catches (29).

Robiskie's extensive resume includes stints as Offensive Coordinator and interim Head Coach on two occasions during his time in the league. Prior to coming to Atlanta, Robiskie most recently served as the Wide Receivers Coach with the Miami Dolphins.

Before his stopover in Miami, Robiskie spent six years with the Cleveland Browns where he served in three different roles. In 2001 he joined the Browns as the team's Wide Receivers Coach and guided Kevin Johnson to a 1,000-yard campaign, which included nine touchdowns. In 2004, he was promoted to Offensive Coordinator and went on to serve as Cleveland's interim Head Coach for the final five games of that season. He earned a victory in a 22-14 decision in the season finale on January 2, 2005 against the Houston Texans. Robiskie oversaw Browns wide receivers in his final two seasons with the team from 2005-06. Wide receiver Antonio Bryant logged 1,009 yards and four touchdowns on 69 receptions in 2005, which was his most productive season at that time in his career.

From 1994-2000, Robiskie served as the Wide Receivers Coach (1994-98) and Passing Game Coordinator (1999-2000) for the Washington Redskins. He was also named Washington's interim Head Coach for the final three games of the 2000 campaign, earning his first NFL victory as a Head Coach in a 20-3 win in the season finale against Arizona. In Robiskie's seven years with the Redskins, there were five different individual 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including one each by Michael Westbrook (1,191) and Albert Connell (1,132) in 1999. With Robiskie as the Passing Game Coordinator in 1999, QB Brad Johnson was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl squad as he threw for 4,005 yards, the second-highest total in franchise history.

Robiskie earned his start in the NFL with the then Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 where he coached with the team for 12 seasons. During that time, he served in a variety of roles with the Silver & Black, including Assistant Special Teams Coach (1982-84), Assistant Running Backs Coach (1985-87), Tight Ends Coach (1988) and Offensive Coordinator (1989-1992). As the Offensive Coordinator, Robiskie guided the powerful running back duo of Bo Jackson and Marcus Allen, who combined to rush for 1,380 yards in 1990. The team made seven playoff appearances, won four division titles and defeated the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII during Robiskie's tenure.

A native of Edgard, La., Robiskie lettered four years as a running back at LSU. As a senior in 1976, he was named the Southeastern Conference MVP and his likeness is up on the wall of the Superdome as a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. The Raiders selected him in the eighth-round of the 1977 NFL Draft. He went on to play the next three seasons with the team (1977-79) before joining the Miami Dolphins in 1980 where he spent two years.

Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons, Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian, a wide receiver, was a second round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2009. Andrew is in his second year as a guard at Western Illinois University and Kyle is a redshirt freshman at Western Illinois.

COACH TERRY ROBISKIE

CHRIS SCELFO

TIGHT ENDS

Falcons Tight Ends Coach Chris Scelfo enters his third season with the Falcons after enjoying much success in his first two seasons with the team. A 23-year coaching veteran, Scelfo came to Atlanta after spending eight seasons as one of the most successful head coaches at Tulane University.

Last season, the Falcons acquired future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez two days before the start of the 2009 NFL Draft. The addition of Gonzalez would prove to be a fruitful one as the veteran and leader in the locker room set a franchise record for receptions among tight ends in a single season (83) while contributing with 867 receiving yards and six touchdowns. In his first game in a Falcons uniform Gonzalez not only scored a touchdown, but became the 21st player in NFL history to top 11,000 career receiving yards. Entering the 2010 campaign, he continues to lead all tight ends in league history in receptions (999), yards (11,807), touchdowns (82) and 100-yard games (26) as well as holding a streak of 147 consecutive games with a reception, which currently ranks third in the NFL. Prior to the addition of Gonzalez, Scelfo also guided tight end Justin Peelle who has recorded 27 receptions for 274 yards and four touchdowns in two seasons with the Falcons.

In 2006, as Tulane University's Head Coach, Scelfo became the school's career leader for games coached with 94 and ranks second among coaches in victories with 37. He is the only Green Wave Head Coach in the school's history with two bowl victories after guiding the university to wins in the 1998 Liberty Bowl and the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. Less than a month after he was hired to lead Tulane (1998), the Green Wave's victory over BYU in the Liberty Bowl capped a perfect 12-0 campaign.

During his tenure at Tulane, Scelfo sent nine players to the NFL, including first round draft pick quarterbacks Patrick Ramsey (2002) and J.P. Losman (2004). His teams performed well in the classroom too, as the head coach logged an average graduation rate of 75 percent (2003-06).

SCELFO'S COACHING BACKGROUND

2008–10	Tight Ends // Falcons
1998–06	Head Coach // Tulane
1996–98	Asst. Head Coach/Off. Line // Georgia

1990–92	Offensive Line // Marshall
1988–89	Graduate Assistant // Oklahoma
1986–87	Graduate Assistant // NE Louisiana

In Scelfo's two previous coaching stops at the University of Georgia (1996-98) and Marshall (1990-95), his teams advanced to postseason in seven of nine seasons while registering eight winning records.

At Georgia, Scelfo served as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach while the Bulldogs recorded a 23-11 mark with appearances in the Outback Bowl (1997) and Peach Bowl (1998). He coached three offensive linemen who were first or second round NFL draft picks, including first round selection Matt Stinchcomb and second rounders Adam Meadows and Chris Terry.

During Scelfo's time at Marshall, the Thundering Herd reached the I-AA national semifinals five times, the national finals four times and won the 1992 national championship. He coached the offensive line from 1990-92 and was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1993-95, as well as maintaining his offensive line duties. As offensive coordinator, Marshall led the Southern Conference in scoring all three years while grabbing the top spot in total offense for two seasons.

Scelfo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, now the University of Louisiana at Monroe. The Indians won the I-AA national title in 1987, which came on the heels of his playing career at the school then known as Northeast Louisiana. From 1988-98, Scelfo was a graduate assistant at Oklahoma.

At NLU, Scelfo was a three-year letterman at center who served as captain his senior season.

Scelfo and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Sarah Beth and one son, Joseph. He is the co-author of "Fourth And New Orleans", the story of the Tulane Green Wave during and after Hurricane Katrina. Scelfo is also a member of the Italian-American Hall of Fame.

COACH CHRIS SCELFO

Eric Sutulovich enters his second season with the Falcons serving in the role of Assistant Special Teams Coach. He will continue to assit special teams coordinator Keith Armstrong.

Sutulovich is a veteran of three NFL teams and has six seasons worth of league experience for the Falcons to draw on to aide their special teams.

Sutulovich came to Atlanta after working for one season with the Detroit Lions as an Offensive Assistant in 2008. His original foray into the NFL came with the Houston Texans in its inaugural campaign in 2002. Sutulovich was the team's Assistant Special Teams Coach for four seasons (2002-05). During his time with the Texans, he helped Houston rank first in the League in punts downed inside the 20-yard line (120), fourth in opponent punt return yard average (7.4), sixth in the AFC in kickoff touchbacks (30) and seventh in the conference in kickoff return average (22.1).

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Sutulovich spent one season as a football assistant for the University of Kansas. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks with Fort Scott Community College as the Offensive Coordinator (2001), the University of Pittsburgh as the offensive graduate assistant (2000-01) and Louisiana Tech as the offensive graduate assistant (1997-99).

Sutulovich's coaching background also includes the Indoor Football League as he labored one year as Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator of the Casper Calvary in 2000.

In his stopover at Pittsburgh, the Panthers finished third in the Big East Conference and competed in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl. The Pittsburgh offense ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency and 18th in total passing.

Sutulovich and his wife, Melissa, have two daughters, Sage (6) and Ellie (4), and one son, Maddax (2).

GLENN THOMAS

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

From the start of Offensive Assistant Glenn Thomas' tenure in 2008, the Falcons have transformed their offense into a unit that opposing teams cannot take lightly. Now, beginning his third season with Atlanta, Thomas will continue to assist Offensive Coordinator Mike Mularkey as the team looks to build off the momentum which has been developed in the last two years.

Facing significant injuries in 2009, which included quarterback Matt Ryan, running back Michael Turner and wide receivers Harry Douglas and Michael Jenkins, the Falcons passing attack was still able to register 3,571 net yards, the sixth-best total in club annals and the highest mark since 1996. Thomas also witnessed wide receiver Roddy White tally his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving campaign (1,153 yards) while earning Pro Bowl honors for the second consecutive year.

With the input of Thomas, the Falcons offense soared to new heights in 2008. The offense finished the season ranked second in the NFL in rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and ranked sixth in total offense (361.2 yards per game). The offense had three players earn postseason awards with QB Matt Ryan earning Associated Press and Sporting News Rookie of the Year, and both running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White earning their first Pro Bowl selections.

From 2001-07, Thomas spent his coaching tenure at Midwestern State. As a graduate assistant coaching wide receivers (2001-04), the Mustangs won the Lone Star North Division Championship in his first season while ranking third in the NCAA in total offense, averaging 523.6 yards per game. Thomas oversaw the school's passing game and quarterbacks in the 2004 campaign and helped guide MSU to its first NCAA playoff appearance in school history while recording an 8-3 record.

Thomas transformed Midwestern State's offense into a powerhouse while serving as Offensive Coordinator from 2005-07 at the age of 25. In 2006, the school led all Division II teams with 470.1 yards of total offense per game, but more impressively led the entire NCAA in total offense (550.0 yards per game) and rushing (317.0 yards per game) in 2007.

Thomas worked diligently to perfect his craft as the Texas Tech graduate found time to work with the Baltimore Ravens in-between seasons at Midwestern State. He was responsible for working with wide receivers (2002-03, '05) and also helped out with Baltimore's quarterbacks. It was also at Baltimore where he was introduced to current Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. Thomas attracted Smith's eye as the two also worked together during Smith's tenure with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For one season (2004), Thomas also served as the Offensive Coordinator for the Wichita Falls Thunder, a National Indoor Football League team that competed during the summer months.

Following his graduation from Texas Tech, Thomas began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater from 1998-2001. With the Red Raiders, he assisted in the supervision of the daily performance of running backs and took care of day-to-day operations such as pre-practice, post-practice and station work.

A native of Eastland, Texas, Thomas was an all-district selection in football, basketball and baseball at Eastland High. He is married to the former Felicia Gooch.

Front Office Staff

JEFF FISH

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

As Director of Athletic Performance, Jeff Fish, enters his third season with the team directing all aspects of Falcons physical development, injury prevention, rehabilitation and nutrition, among other responsibilities. In two seasons thus far, the Falcons have benefited from Fish's 20 years of experience in the strength & conditioning and athletic performance realms.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Fish spent the previous four seasons (2004-07) as the head Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Oakland Raiders. Before joining the Silver & Black, Fish was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at the University of Missouri (2001-03) where he oversaw a program that worked with nearly 500 student-athletes from 20 Missouri sports teams.

Fish's second stint in the NFL came with the Kansas City Chiefs as a strength and conditioning intern in 1998. After one season, he was promoted to Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach where he served from 1999-2000. He earned his start in the league with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a strength and conditioning intern in 1997.

Fish spent eight seasons in the college ranks with four different schools. The certified strength and conditioning specialist started his coaching journey with Western Michigan University as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1989. He served as an Assistant Strength Coach at Clemson University from 1991-93 and then moved on to Kent State as the head Strength and Conditioning Coach from 1993-95. Fish's last stop at the collegiate ranks came at the University of Tulsa where he served as the top Strength and Conditioning coach from 1995-97.

The Ithaca, N.Y. native competed as a wide receiver at Western Carolina. Fish and his wife, Rachel, have two daughters, Whitney and Sofie.

MARTY LAUZON

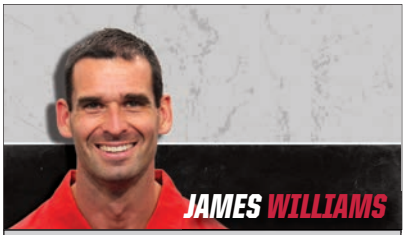
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Marty Lauzon enters his first season as the Falcons Head Athletic Trainer and brings 17 years of experience in athletic training to the team. Lauzon will be responsible for handling all aspects of the club's athletic training department. In 2009, he spent a year as the Director of Sports Rehabilitation for NovaCare-NE Ohio. Lauzon spent 10 seasons with the Cleveland Browns, serving from 2005-08 as the team's Head Athletic Trainer. Lauzon is a certified athletic trainer and is a graduate of the University of Ottowa Physical Therapy School. He also holds the distinction of being a certified specialist in sports physical therapy through the American Physical Therapy Association. In 1992, Lauzon began his career as an intern with the Montreal Machine of the WLAF. before moving on to Ottawa of the CFL.

DANNY LONG

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Danny Long embarks on his first year as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Falcons. Long will provide support for Head Athletic Trainer Marty Lauzon and will assist in the daily care of players, treatment and rehabilitation. Long was a member of the Cleveland Browns staff from 2005-09. Long started as a summer intern in '05 before being hired full-time as an assistant. Along with the daily care for players, he assisted in rehabilitation, treatment, and the hiring of training camp interns. Before joining the Browns staff, Long attended the Masters program at Auburn University (2003-05) and served as a graduate assistant. From 2001-02, Long was summer intern for the Falcons training staff before making his first stop in Cleveland. He attended the University of South Carolina as an undergraduate and earned his degree in Science Physical Education with a minor in Athletic Training.



JAMES WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

James Williams begins his first season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer with the Falcons. Williams will provide support for Head Athletic Trainer Marty Lauzon and will be responsible for the daily care of players, as well as assisting with treatment and rehabilitation. Williams holds 10 years of experience in the athletic training field and was most recently with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant from 2006-09. Prior to joining the Browns, Williams oversaw daily athletic training operations as the head football Athletic Trainer at Indiana State from 2005-06. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks as an Assistant Football Trainer (2004-05) and head Basketball Trainer (2002-04) for Auburn University. A native of Morganton, Georgia, Williams graduated from Georgia and Auburn with various degrees.

LES SNEAD

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Les Snead begins his 12th season with the Falcons personnel department and the second under his title of Director of Player Personnel. Snead oversees both the college and pro scouting efforts and works closely with Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. He also plays a day-to-day role in the analysis and evaluation of the Falcons current roster and provides salary value analysis of all player acquisitions, while aiding in the research on how to acquire future free agents.

Snead came to Atlanta from Jacksonville, where he worked in the pro scouting department for the Jaguars from 1995-97. In his career, he has participated in one Super Bowl appearance (with the Falcons) and three Conference Championship Games.

Les played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career. This 39-year-old native of Eufaula, Ala., was a graduate assistant at Auburn after his playing days were over. Snead also was an administrative assistant of football operations at his alma mater in 1995.

He holds a bachelors of science degree in Psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. While working as a graduate assistant he received a Master's of Education degree. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside with their son, Logan, and daughter, Cannon, in Braselton, Georgia.

LIONEL VITAL

ASST. DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

As a 20 year veteran in scouting and player personnel, the Falcons will continue to lean on the experience of Lionel Vital in 2010. Vital heads into his third season as the club's Assistant Director of Player Personnel. Vital continues to work closely with General Manager Thomas Dimitroff on most college scouting matters as he is an integral part of the personnel decision making team. His responsbilities also entail evaluating the top 150 college players in a national scouting capacity. He will also grade the top unrestricted NFL free agents at all positions and work on comparatives, as well as special projects with Dimitroff.

From 2005-07, Vital served in his second stint with the Ravens and covered schools across the country as a National Scout while being responsible for reporting on defensive linemen. During his time in Baltimore, he was honored with the inaugural Fritz Pollard Alliance Scouting Award, which is given to the top African American scout each in the AFC and NFC.

Vital served as the Assistant Director of College Scouting with the New England Patriots from 2001-04 after maintaining duties as a National College Scout in 2000. It was during his tenure with New England that he worked directly with Vice President of Player Personnel Scott Pioli and Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff.

Prior to his stint in New England, Vital spent three seasons as a Talent Scout with the New York Jets, covering the Southeast region from 1997-99. He entered the scouting ranks with the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and spent five seasons as a Talent Scout, after being hired by Head Coach Bill Belichick. Vital followed Belichick and the Browns when the team moved to Baltimore for its inaugural season in 1996, working as a College Scout. For two seasons (1990-91), Vital was the Director of Player Personnel for the Montreal Machine in the World League of American Football.

A native of Loreauville, Louisiana, Vital graduated from Nicholls State and was selected by the Washington Redskins as a running back in the seventh round of the 1985 NFL Draft.

RAN CARTHON

PRO SCOUT

Ran Carthon enters his third season with the Falcons as a Pro Scout. He is responsible for providing the coaching staff with advance scouting reports for upcoming opponents, evaluating players in each year's free agency market and maintaining the daily waiver wire. Carthon joined the scouting ranks following a three-year playing career in the NFL after breaking into the league as an undrafted rookie with the Indianapolis Colts. He was a standout running back at the University of Florida (1999-2003) where he competed in five bowl games over his collegiate career and was part of the Gators 2000 SEC Championship team. Carthon's father, Maurice, currently serves as the Assistant Head Coach for the Kansas City Chiefs.

DEJUAN POLK

PRO SCOUT

DeJuan Polk begins his fifth season with the Falcons organization and third as a Pro Scout. He is responsible for scouting all professional leagues, including 15 NFL teams and advance scouting. Polk also served as a College Scout for the Falcons from 2007-08, covering the Midwest Region and conferences such as the Big Ten and MAC. Polk started his tenure with the organization in 2006 as a Pro Personnel Assistant and helped the personnel department coordinating free agent workouts, maintaining the "short-list" and advance scouting of future opponents. In 2005, Polk served as the Defensive Tackles Coach at South Carolina State. He was a four-year letterman at defensive tackle for Clemson University during his collegiate campaign from 1999-2003.

DAVID CALDWELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

David Caldwell embarks on his third season with the Falcons as the Director of College Scouting. He has served in the NFL for 14 years, 10 of which came with the Indianapolis Colts. Caldwell oversees Atlanta's college area and regional scouts. He also assimilates the information he receives and presents it to General Manager Thomas Dimitroff with a goal to make the NFL Draft as effective as possible. Caldwell is also responsible for scouting the top talent in the country.

From 2006-07, Caldwell was the Western Regional Scout with Indianapolis covering major college football conferences, including the Pac- 10, Big 10 and Big 12. Coming from a successful Colts franchise that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLI against the Chicago Bears, Caldwell was part of a scouting team that accounted for multiple starters and Pro Bowl players. In 1998, he got his start with Indianapolis, serving as an Area Scout and remained in that role for the following seven seasons. Caldwell covered the Midwest and West Coast regions. In 1996, Caldwell broke into the NFL with the Carolina Panthers as a Scouting Assistant where he spent two seasons. He served as a liaison between the college scouting director and multiple area scouts while focusing on draft preparations.

Caldwell is a graduate of John Carroll University, earning a Bachelors degree in Finance/Business Administration. He was a two-year letterman as an outside linebacker helping the Blue Streaks to an Ohio Athletic Conference title in 1994. A native of Buffalo, New York, Caldwell and his wife, Joelle, have one son, David Michael II.

MARVIN ALLEN

EASTERN REGIONAL SCOUT

Marvin Allen begins his second season with the Falcons as the Eastern Regional Scout. A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Allen spent 16 seasons with the New England Patriots, including his last 12 in the player personnel department as an Area Scout. He was responsible for the collection of data on all prospects in his assigned region. Allen is a graduate of Tulane University and was selected by the Patriots in the 11th round (294th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft. In four seasons with New England, he rushed for 378 yards and two touchdowns on 94 carries (4.0 avg.).

MARK OLSON

WESTERN REGIONAL SCOUT

Mark Olson embarks on his 13th year with the Falcons player personnel department in 2010 and his second year as Western Regional Scout after serving five years scouting the West for the club. Prior to joining the college scouting department, he served three years as a Pro Scout with the team where he was responsible for advance scouting, as well as evaluating players and assisting the club in its preparation for free agent acquisitions. Olson originally joined the Falcons in 1998 as a Scouting Assistant. His past experience has included stints with the Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings, and Montreal of the CFL. Olson graduated from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls with a degree in Journalism. He earned his Masters degree in Sports Management from the University of Minnesota in 1997. Olson currently resides in Park City, Utah.

BOB HARRISON

AREA SCOUT

Bob Harrison enters his 15th season as a Falcons scout, but also served in a previous coaching role in Atlanta. Harrison was the Falcons Receivers Coach from 1983-86 while coaching two years with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1992-93) and four years with the University of Georgia (1988-91). He was the Receivers Coach at Boston College from 1994-96 and also had coaching stopovers at North Carolina State for two years and Tennessee for seven years. As a player, Harrison was an All-MAC receiver at Kent State. His coaching experience spanned 33 years in college, the NFL and at the high school level. Harrison concentrates on the Atlantic Coast area of the country in his scouting duties. He and his wife, Faye, reside in nearby Athens, Georgia.

SHEPLEY HEARD

AREA SCOUT

Shepley Heard enters his sixth season with the Falcons player personnel department and his third year as an Area Scout, responsible for scouting in the Southwest part of the country (Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and parts of Louisiana). Prior to his move West, Shepley served as a Scouting Assistant in the pro personnel department in 2005 before being promoted to a Pro Scout in the spring of 2006. As a Pro Scout, his duties included advance scouting future opponents, watching and grading free agent players as well as scouting the AFL and CFL. Heard played safety and special teams at the University of Central Oklahoma from 1997 to 2001. He currently resides in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

BOB KRONENBERG

AREA SCOUT

Bob Kronenberg begins his second season with the Falcons as an Area Scout with the responsibility of evaluating college prospects in a regional and national capacity. Prior to his arrival with the Falcons, Kronenberg spent seven seasons in the AFL primarily with the Georgia Force as an assistant coach and Defensive Coordinator (2003-08). He also served as an assistant coach with Nashville in 2001. Kronenberg began his collegiate career at St. Cloud State (MN) where he was an All-America selection in football while participating in track. He finished his studies at Middle Tennessee State University prior to being signed as a rookie free agent by Tampa Bay in 1993. Kronenberg's playing career also includes four seasons in NFL Europa, three years in the CFL and a training camp appearance with the Washington Redskins in 1998.

TAYLOR MORTON

AREA SCOUT

Taylor Morton embarks on his 11th season with the Falcons player personnel department and will be responsible for scouting the Southeast for the club. Prior to becoming a College Scout, Morton served in pro personnel as an Advance Scout for Falcons opponents, as well as evaluating future free agent prospects for the team and scouting other professional leagues, including the NFL, NFL Europa and the CFL. Taylor joined the Falcons after coaching eight years in the college ranks. His stints included Auburn University, Hinds CC and Pearl River CC. He began his coaching career at Southern Miss after a career ending knee injury. Morton earned both a Masters and a B.S. degree in Coaching/Sports Administration. He is a native of the Destin, Florida area where he attended Niceville High School and was a member of the 1988 4A state championship football team. The Morton family resides in Dacula, Georgia.

ROBINSON PAYNE

AREA SCOUT

Robinson Payne begins his third season with the Falcons and second as a College Scout, responsible for covering the Northeast area. In 2008, he served as a Pro Scout for the Falcons and was in charge of scouting for 15 teams, the AFL and CFL. Payne's past experience includes a two-year stint with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the CFL (1996-97) as the Running Backs and Special Teams Coach. From 1993-94, he was with the Sacramento Gold Miners as the Linebackers Coach when the CFL competed in the United States. From 1990-91, Payne was the graduate assistant/running backs coach at the University of Texas. A graduate of Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas, Payne played free safety for four years (1985-89) for the Wildcats.

STEVE SABO

AREA SCOUT

Steve Sabo joins the Falcons for his first season in 2010 and is responsible for scouting the Midwest area for the team. Sabo comes to Atlanta following 12 seasons with the Cleveland Browns in a variety of roles, including the teams Pro Personnel Coordinator (1998-2006), Director of Pro Personnel (2007-08) and Senior Director of Pro Personnel (2009). In Cleveland, Sabo was responsible for scouting NFL teams while assisting with advance scouting of upcoming opponents. Prior to his tenure with the Browns, Sabo served as a Pro Scout with the New Orleans Saints from 1996-98. A native of Willingboro, New Jersey, Sabo is married to the former, Ursula Anderson, and the two are proud parents of their daughter, Anderson.

ANTHONY ROBINSON

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Anthony Robinson begins his third season with the Falcons as a Scouting Assistant. His duties include day-to-day operations of the scouting department, draft board preparations, evaluations of college/pro players, "point of attack" tape and coordinating college/pro workouts and visits. Prior to arriving in Atlanta, he worked with BLESTO Scouting as a scouting assistant intern (2007-2008), served as an undergraduate assistant coach offense with Florida State University (2005-2007) and the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department as an intern during training camp in 2006. He competed as a running back at Morgan State University before later transferring to FSU where he earned his bachelors degree in Sport Management in 2007.

BRIAN BOIGNER

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

The 2010 campaign marks the 14th season for Brian Boigner as Atlanta's Equipment Manager. He is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced protective equipment and footwear, as well as ordering and organizing the team's inventory of apparel and equipment. Boigner also serves as the team's liaison with the NFL's sole uniform and apparel provider, Reebok. He also sat on both the NFL helmet safety group and foot and ankle committee this past offseason. Prior to joining the Falcons, Boigner spent five years as the Assistant Equipment Manager for the New York Giants. He also served as the Assistant Equipment Manager for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (1991-92). He has a son, Bryce, (12) and a daughter, Sarah (9). Boigner and his wife, Tema, reside in the city of Atlanta.

MIKE CREWS

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mike Crews enters his 10th season as the team's Video Director and 13th year overall with the Falcons. Crews joined the team after working at Georgia Tech. He puts into motion Atlanta's weekly game plan by filming each game & practice and editing it for players and coaches to review. Crews also breaks down the opponents' weekly game film for the team to analyze and is responsible for overseeing both the college and pro digital video systems. He also does game analysis that includes creating a database as well as the reports for the coaching staff. A native of Decatur, Ga., he received his Management degree with a minor in Marketing from Georgia Tech in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, and their son, Bailey, as well as daughters, Kelsey and Caitlyn, live in Braselton, Georgia.

JIMMY HAY

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Jimmy Hay has been a fixture around the Falcons locker room since he served as a ball boy when he was just 12 years old. Hay's experience in the equipment room started in 1990 as he helped out after school each day. He served as an intern with the department in 1995 and was hired full-time in 1997. During the spring of 1996 and 1997, he worked in NFL Europa as an Assistant Equipment Manager with the Frankfurt Galaxy and as the Equipment Manager of the Amsterdam Admirals. A Georgia native, Hay was an all-county selection as a third baseman for the North Gwinnett High School baseball team. He and his wife, Heidi, reside in Sugar Hill, Georgia with sons, Mike and Jake.

JIMMY LUCK

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Jimmy Luck enters his seventh season with the Falcons as an Assistant Equipment Manager. Prior to joining the Falcons and Georgia Force of the AFL, Luck served as an Equipment Manager in the college ranks for The Citadel. Some of Kleha's duties include setting up media interviews for players, coaches and front office personnel with local and national reporters from newspapers, television, radio stations, and respected internet sites. Kleha works directly on the yearly programming needs of broadcasting partners, WXIA-TV, and Dave FM, and is also the club's publications Managing Editor for the media guide, NFL program, and yearbook. Kleha is a graduate of George Mason University. For the past two seasons, Kleha has been part of a department that was a finalist for Pete Rozelle Award by PFWA for outstanding service to media. He and his wife, Wendy, live with their son, Cody, and daughter, Allie, in Roswell, Georgia.

DEBBIE KNOWLAN

DIRECTOR OF TICKET SERVICES

Debbie Knowlan enters her third season with the Falcons after joining the team in November of 2008 as the Director of Ticket Services. In this role, she is responsible for the dedicated service team to assist and personalize the experience for Falcons season ticket holders. Prior to joining the organization, Knowlan served as the Director of Season Ticket Services and Retention for the Miami Heat of the NBA, working in a similar capacity. She also worked for The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands as the Manager of Guest Activities and in Miami at the Caribbean & Mexico corporate office as a Sales and Marketing Coordinator. Knowlan graduated from Indiana University with a B.S. in Parks and Recreation with an emphasis toward management. She resides in Atlanta, Georgia.

DAN LEVAK

DIRECTOR OF NEW MEDIA

Dan Levak begins his 11th season with the Falcons in 2010. In his current role, Levak directs the Falcons interactive marketing efforts, including the evaluation of emerging technology, managing the digital media staff and maintaining a cutting-edge postproduction digital video studio. Under his guidance, Atlantafalcons.com was named "best overall NFL website" by the NFL Internet Network in 2005. The Cleveland, Ohio native holds a bachelor's degree in Business Psychology and minor in Journalism from Miami University. He also completed his postgraduate work in public relations at Ohio State University. Following a year covering the Browns, Indians and Cavaliers for The Cleveland Plain Dealer's online property, www.cleveland.com, Levak joined the Falcons as an Interactive Producer in 2000. He and his wife, Christine, reside in Flowery Branch, Georgia.

KENDYL MOSS

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Kendyl Baugh Moss begins her eighth season with the Falcons and the fourth as Director of Community Relations. In this capacity, Moss is responsible for community initiatives, player outreach and youth football programming. She assumes this position after three years of serving as the Manager of Event Marketing for the Falcons and one year as Program Officer for the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation. Prior to her role with the Falcons, Moss was the Assistant Director of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and Final Four. Before working with the NCAA, she served as the Assistant Director of Championships/Marketing for Conference USA. Moss earned her B.S. in Speech Communications at the University of Texas. She also holds a M.A. in Corporate Communications from DePaul University. Moss and her husband, Cory, reside in Smyrna, Georgia with their son, Kellen, and daughter, Kolby.

DON ROVAK

DIRECTOR OF TICKET SALES & SERVICE

Don Rovak enters his third season as Director of Ticket Sales and Service with the Falcons. In Rovak's first two years, his staff has led the NFL by selling more new season tickets than any other team in the league in each of his two years with the club. In addition to the season ticket initiative, the Falcons new group sales department achieved top results working with area youth leagues, non-profits, and other regional partners. Previously, Rovak was Vice President of Marketing & Ticketing for the Memphis Redbirds Triple A baseball team. Under his leadership, the Redbirds opened AutoZone Park and finished first or second in ballpark attendance each year. Befor the Redbirds, he created a new ticket sales department at the Memphis Motorsports Park. Rovak graduated from Indiana University and he and his wife, Carrie, reside in Atlanta with their two sons, Jared and Dustin.

SPENCER TREADWELL

DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS & FACILITIES

Spencer Treadwell enters his eighth season as the Falcons Director of Logistics & Facilities. Treadwell continues to oversee all the logistical operations for the Falcons, including team travel, training camp, game operations and supervises the Falcons headquarters in Flowery Branch. Treadwell will also serve as a liaison between football operations and the organization as a whole. His main task will be to coordinate the team's various intradepartmental efforts. Treadwell also served as the NFL liaison for the league during Super Bowl XLIII. He joined the organization's marketing department in 1995 and transitioned into logistics during the Falcons run to Super Bowl XXXIII in 1998. Treadwell is a graduate of Tucker High School and received his Business Administration degree from Presbyterian College in 1995. Treadwell and his wife, Julie, are the proud parents of two daughters, Avery and Alli, and one son, Zach. The Treadwell's reside in Buford, Georgia.

KAREN WALTERS

DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Karen Walters enters her seventh season with the Falcons and third as Director of Human Resources. Walters was hired by the club in 2003 as Human Resources Manager. She boasts over 20 years of service in the human resources field and her career began at the age of 19 as a human resources intern with Unisys Corporation, a Fortune 100 IT firm. After graduating from Oglethorpe University in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and Behavioral Science, Walters joined Electrolux Corporation as a Benefits Administrator. Her current role with the Falcons involves implementing a comprehensive human resources strategy across all of the Arthur M. Blank Family of Businesses, including strategies such as associate development, performance management, and succession planning. Walters and her husband, Tommy, have one daughter, Madalyn (16), and a son, Ross (13), and reside in Dawsonville, Georgia.

KEVIN WINSTON

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kevin Winston begins his sixth season with the Falcons in 2010. Before his arrival in Atlanta, he spent five seasons with the New York Jets in the player development department. In 2008, Winston and the Falcons were the winners of the Outstanding Career Development Program, which focuses on players gaining exposure to business opportunities, interests outside of football and work in the community. He also oversaw an '08 rookie class that won the Rookie Class Commitment Award. Some of Winston's responsibilities include helping players with career counseling, financial & family matters and post-football career options. He also coordinates alumni relations for the club. The NFL has honored Winston with the "most outstanding player development department" in 2003-04 in New York. Kevin and his wife, Dana have one son, Matthew Kevin.

RODDY WHITE

DIRECTOR OF EVENT MARKETING

Roddy White is a veteran of 15 years in the NFL and various major sporting events. He begins his ninth season as Director of Event Marketing with the Falcons. White is responsible for the club's special events, game presentation, creative services, mascot program, cheerleading program, advertising and promotions. Under White's stewardship, the Falcons have attracted star acts in various music genres such as James Brown, Ashanti, Sugarland, The Temptations, Travis Tritt, Ludacris, LeAnn Rimes, NeYo and the Pointer Sisters as regular performers at home games. Prior to his appointment with the Falcons, he spent six seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the club's Director of Special Events and Promotions. A graduate of the University of Georgia, he lives with his wife, Patti, and daughters, Whitney and Sydney, in Alpharetta, Georgia.

BIRTHDATE: 5/6/78 | COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected as a first round (13th pick overall) draft choice by the New York Jets in the 2000 NFL Draft, which was acquired in a trade with Tampa Bay. In exchange for WR Keyshawn Johnson, the Jets obtained first round draft choices #13 and #27 (TE Anthony Becht). Abraham was the third linebacker taken overall in 2000 (following Washington's selection of LaVar Arrington and Chicago's pick of Brian Urlacher).
- Traded to the Falcons in exchange for Atlanta's 2006 first round pick (#29), which was acquired from Denver.

CAREER

- Enters the 2010 season ranked tied for seventh in club history (Jeff Merrow) with 36.0 sacks.
- Set a franchise record with 16.5 sacks in 2008 while finishing third in the NFL in the category. Totaled three-sack performances in Weeks 1, 9 and 15.
- Named 2008 Associated Press second-team All-Pro.
- Led the Falcons with 10.0 sacks in 2007, marking the fourth time in his career he has recorded double-digit sack seasons. It was also Atlanta's first double-digit sack year since 2005. Abraham became the sixth Falcons player in franchise history to finish with a double-digit sack season.
- Ranks third in the league among active players in sacks from 2000-2009 with 89.5.
- His 32 career forced fumbles rank fifth in the NFL from 2000-2009.
- A three-time Pro Bowl selection at defensive end (2001-2002 and 2004).
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (1) in the season opener against Carolina in 2006, marking the third time he had received Player of the Week honors in his career – AFC Defensive Player of the Week: 2001 (9), 2004 (4).
- Earned Player of the Month on two occasions in his career – 2001 (November), 2004 (October).
- Tied a Jets franchise record (Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau) for the most sacks in a game when he dropped Saints QB Aaron Brooks four times (11/4/01) at the Superdome in a Jets' win.

2009 (FALCONS)

- Recorded 44 tackles (35 solo), 5.5 sacks for a loss of 23 yards, one forced fumble and one pass defensed in 16 games.
- Collared three tackles, two sacks (seven yards) and one tackle for loss vs. Miami (9/13).
- Logged three tackles and one sack (six yards) at San Francisco (10/11).
- Tallied four tackles and a half of a sack (3.5 yards) vs. Chicago (10/18).
- Registered four tackles and a half of a sack vs. Washington (11/8).
- Posted three tackles, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble vs. New Orleans (12/13).
- Logged three tackles and one sack vs. Buffalo (12/27). His sack moved him into a tie for seventh place on the Falcons all-time sack list with Jeff Merrow (36.0).

COLLEGE

- Graduated ranking second on South Carolina's career-record list with 23.5 sacks after leading the team in sacks all four years.
- Received the Joe Morrison Memorial Award for defense, and was named team MVP and the recipient of the Captain's Cup Award as a senior. Recorded 60 tackles, six sacks, five forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one pass defensed and blocked a field goal attempt in 10 starts. Also earned All-America Dream Team honors and was an All-SEC selection in his final season.

PERSONAL

- Earned all-state and all-region honors as a defensive end at Lamar (Timmonsville, SC) High School.
- Excelled in track and won his regional 100 & 200-meter dash titles in high school.
- John was raised by his mother, Maggie Abraham, and has two daughters, Endraya and Ayumi.
- Born John Abraham on May 6, 1978 in Timmonsville, South Carolina.

WIDE RECEIVER

86

HT: 6' 5" | WT: 213 | NFL EXP: 10 | ACQ: FA – '00 | 11TH YEAR WITH FALCONS

BIRTHDATE: 1/31/76 | COLLEGE: VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally signed by Seattle as a rookie free agent on April 28, 1998. Waived by the Seahawks on August 25.
- Selected by the Barcelona Dragons in the NFL Europa Draft on February 23, 1999. Signed by Philadelphia on July 6. Waived by the Eagles on October 12. Signed by the Atlanta Falcons to the practice squad on December 13.
- Re-signed by Atlanta on January 12, 2000.

CAREER

- Tall, rangy target who earned a starting role in 2002 and produced career-highs in catches, yards and scores, while leading the Falcons in receiving, but had a promising 2006 career cut short due to a knee injury in training camp. Also suffered a knee injury prior to the start of training camp in 2007 and was placed on injured reserve.
- Ranked first among Falcons' wide receivers in 2005 with 50 catches and 611 receiving yards, while also tallying a career-high three two-point conversions on the season.
- In Falcons career, 167 of his 217 receptions (76.9 percent) have been for a first down or touchdown.
- Emerged as a solid receiver with big-play ability in his second season for the Falcons in 2001, leading the team with a 21.3-yard per catch average.

2009 (FALCONS)

- Competed in 10 games and finished the season with 11 receptions for 111 yards and a long catch of 19 yards. Also contributed with two kickoff returns for 22 yards.
- Logged two receptions for 23 yards at New England (9/27).
- Posted two receptions for 22 yards at Dallas (10/25).
- Totaled a season-high 25 receiving yards on two receptions against New Orleans (12/13).

COLLEGE

- All-America selection after catching 96 passes for 1,389 yards and 19 scores as a senior at Villanova. For his efforts, he was afforded the Walter Payton Award given to the nation's top offensive player in Division I-AA.
- Finished career with a school record 265 receptions for 3,872 yards and 34 touchdowns.
- Had his number 25 jersey retired by Villanova in the fall of 2003.

PERSONAL

- Serves as the official spokesperson for SafeKids, a helmet safety program for Hall County. Brian's brother-in-law suffered a major head injury from a skateboard crash without wearing a helmet.
- Donated monetarily for every touchdown catch to Suwanee (GA) Elementary for a handicap playground. Likewise, he donated to the Empty Stocking Fund, Falcons Feed the Homeless campaign, participated in the Falcons' Ball Boy Mentoring Program and works with Breast Friends, a breast cancer support system 24/7.
- Born Brian Joseph Finneran on January 31, 1976 in Mission Viejo, California. He and his wife, Erin, have four children: Conor, Brynn, Keenan, Cullen.

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected in the first round (13th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1997 NFL Draft.
- Traded to the Falcons for Atlanta's second round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft on April 23, 2009.

CAREER

- In 13 NFL seasons, has earned 10 Pro Bowl appearances and eight first or second-team Associated Press All-Pro selections.
- Holds NFL records for career receptions (999), receiving yards (11,807), touchdown catches (82), 100-yard receiving games (26), Pro Bowl appearances (10) and 1,000-yard seasons (four) among all tight ends.
- Is the only tight end to ever register six 100-yard receiving games in a single season (2000, 2004).
- Has recorded seven 70-catch seasons, 11 60-catch campaigns and 12 50-catch seasons, more than any other tight end in NFL history. Became just the fifth player and first tight end in League history to produce 12 consecutive seasons with 50 or more receptions.
- His 999 career catches rank seventh in NFL history and third among active players (active in '09).
- Needs one more reception to become just the seventh player in league history to tally 1,000 career receptions.
- Ranks 18th in receiving yards (11,807) and 16th down receptions (82) among all receivers in NFL history.
- Is the only tight end in League history to record 900 or more receiving yards in seven seasons and currently stands as only the third tight end (Ozzie Newsome, Cleveland and Shannon Sharpe, Denver) in NFL history to lead their respective franchises in all-time receiving.
- Became only the 21st receiving in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards following the season opener of the 2010 season.
- Set a Falcons franchise record for the most receptions in a single season (83), topping Alge Crumpler's old mark of 65 (2005).
- Owns 11 career games with double-digit receptions, the most of any player in Kansas City history.
- No player in Chiefs history reached the 300-yard reception plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games.
- Caught his 500th career pass in his 118th game, which marked the second-fastest pace by a tight end in NFL history.

- Joined Kansas City wide receiver Carlos Carson (1983-84) as the only other player in team history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard cam
- Received the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two touchdowns during his initial pro season.
- Entering the 2010 season, is one start shy of passing Ozzie Newsome for the most starts by a tight end in League history.
- Will enter the 2010 season looking to extend his streak of catching at least one pass in a game, which currently stands at 147 contests. His streak, which ranks third in the NFL among active players, also trails Ozzie Newsome (150 games) for the longest streak by a tight end in NFL history.
- Gonzalez's career receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns already top Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Sanders, Jackie Smith, Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Ozzie Newsome, Kellen Winslow and Dave Casper.
- Named to the Sporting News Magazine and Sports Illustrated NFL All-Decade teams.

2009 (FALCONS)

- Started every contest and finished the season ranked second on the team in receiving yards (867) and receptions (83). Also added six touchdowns and 26 receptions on third downs for 309 yards, which ranked sixth in the NFL.
- Led the team in receiving on five receptions for 73 yards with one touchdown in his Falcons debut against Miami (9/13). On his 20-yard touchdown reception, he became the 21st player in NFL history to record over 11,000 receiving yards and the first tight end to accomplish the feat.
- Logged a team-high seven receptions for 71 yards with one touchdown against Carolina (9/20).
- Registered a team-high five receptions for 41 yards with one score against Washington (11/8). His two-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter marked his 80th career TD reception.
- Hauled in eight receptions for a team-high 82 yards with one touchdown at the New York Giants (11/22) in his 200th NFL game.
- Tallied a season-high nine receptions for 83 yards against Tampa Bay (11/29).
- Collected eight catches for 72 yards against Philadelphia (12/6). In the third quarter, he hauled in his fifth pass of the game and set a new single-season reception mark for a tight end in franchise history.
- Notched three receptions for 32 yards and one touchdown at the New York Jets (12/20). The six-yard TD came with 1:38 remaining in the game and gave the Falcons a 10-7 advantage en route to the win.

COLLEGE

- Played in 33 games in three seasons at California, catching 89 passes for 1,302 yards (14.6 avg.) with eight touchdowns.
- Also saw action in 82 career contests (16 starts) as a member of the Cal basketball squad, averaging 6.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game.
- Flourished under the offense of then-Cal head coach Steve Mariucci as a junior in '96, playing in 12 games, catching 46 receptions for 699 yards (15.9 avg.) and five TDs, earning first-team All-America accolades.

HT: 6' 4" | WT: 217 | NFL EXP: 3 | ACQ: D1A-'08 | 3RD YEAR WITH FALCONS

BIRTHDATE: 5/17/85 | COLLEGE: BOSTON COLLEGE

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a first round (3rd pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2008.

CAREER

- In his first two seasons as Falcons quarterback, Ryan has led the team to an impressive 13-1 home record as the starter under center.
- Ryan's two-year passing total of 6,356 yards (2008-09) ranks third in franchise history among any two combined seasons by a Falcons quarterback.
- In 2009, established single-game career-highs in touchdown passes (three vs. Carolina in Week 2 and Buffalo in Week 15), passing yards (329 at San Francisco in Week 5), completion percentage (77.7 vs. Carolina in Week 2), longest completion (90-yard touchdown pass at San Francisco in Week 5) and attempts/completions (44/26 at the New York Giants in Week 11).
- Named Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Sporting News Rookie of the Year after completing 265 of 434 passes for 3,440 yards, 16 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a 87.7 passer rating in his first season.
- His 3,440 passing yards in 2008 ranked sixth in a single season in team history as he became one of two rookie quarterbacks in NFL history to amass over 3,000 passing yards in his first season (Peyton Manning).
- Became the first rookie quarterback in club history to win 11 games and, along with Baltimore Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco was the first rookie quarterback to start all 16 games and lead their teams to the playoffs.
- Tied with Flacco, for posting the best regular season record ever (since the 1970 merger) by a rookie quarterback who started all 16 games (11-5).
- Became the first player in franchise history to earn NFC Rookie of the Month accolades (October of 2008) while earning conference offensive player of the week honors (9) and Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week twice (Weeks 6 and 15).
- Posted a streak of nine consecutive 200-yard passing games in 2008 from Weeks 6-15 and recorded eight contests with a 65.0 completion percentage or higher.
- Ranked second in the NFL in yards per completion with a 12.98 average in 2008.
- Helped the Falcons offense break a team record for the most net yards in a season with 5,779.
- Guided the Falcons offense to the fifth-most points scored in a season in club history with 391 in 2008.

2009 (FALCONS)

- In 14 starts, completed 263 of 451 passes for 2,916 yards, 22 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a 81.0 passer rating.
- His 451 passing attempts, 22 touchdowns and 90-yard touchdown completion (vs. San Francisco in Week 5) were all season highs.
- Finished with an undefeated 6-0 record as a starting quarterback at the Georgia Dome and has improved his two-year record to 13-1.
- Missed two games due to a turf toe injury (Weeks 13-14).
- Completed 21 of 27 passing attempts with a career-high three touchdown passes against Carolina (9/20). His 77.7 completion percentage was also a career-high in addition to his 13 consecutive completions, which began in the second quarter.

- Threw for a career-high 329 yards on 22 of 32 passing with two touchdowns at San Francisco (10/11). He connected with wide receiver Roddy White for a 90-yard touchdown strike in the second quarter, which marked the third longest touchdown completion in franchise history.
- Connected on 26 of 46 passing attempts for 268 yards with two touchdowns at the New York Giants (11/22) and added 14 rushing yards on five attempts.
- Completed 16 of 34 passes for 152 yards with one touchdown at the New York Jets (12/20). His six-yard touchdown pass to tight end Tony Gonzalez with 1:38 remaining in the game gave the Falcons a 10-7 advantage en route to the victory.
- Threw for 250 yards on 18 of 35 passing with three touchdowns in a home contest against Buffalo (12/27). His three touchdown passes marked his second-career three score game.
- Posted 223 passing yards on 23 of 35 attempts at Tampa Bay (1/3) as the Falcons earned a victory and solidified back to back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history.

COLLEGE

- Following a stellar career at Boston College, emerged as a Heisman Trophy candidate while earning ACC Player of the Year honors as a senior.
- Ranked eighth in the nation in total offense and established school records for 400-yard passing performances in both a career and a season while tallying 4,507 yards in 2007. His five 400-yard performances in a career broke the school record set by Doug Flutie and his four games with over 400 yards in 2007 also set a Boston College season record.
- Completed 807 of 1,347 passes for 9,313 yards and 56 touchdowns in his Eagle career. His 807 completions and 1,347 attempts established school career-records while his completion percentage of 59.9 ranked third in school annals.
- His 9,313 passing yards placed him third on the Boston College all-time record list behind Doug Flutie and Glenn Foley.
- With his 388 pass completions in 2007, Ryan joined Philip Rivers of North Carolina State and Ben Bennett of Duke as the only quarterbacks in ACC history to complete 300 passes in a season.
- Ryan's 31 touchdown passes in 2007 broke the old school season-record of 27 by Doug Flutie in 1984.
- His career-high 435 yards against Georgia Tech in 2007 rank sixth on the school's game-record passing list.
- With five touchdown passes against Wake Forest in 2007, Ryan finished one shy of tying the school record of six, held by Flutie.
- Of the Division I-A quarterbacks in the draft who started 24 or more games, Ryan won 76.5 percent of his 34 starts.

PERSONAL

- Attended William Penn Charter School in Philadelphia, Pa. and earned All-East honors from Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report.
- Captured All-Southeastern Pennsylvania accolades as a senior quarterback in addition to receiving All-City first-team honors in 2002 and second-team recognition in 2001.
- Threw for more than 1,300 yards with 15 touchdowns and just two interceptions as a senior.
- Captained the school's basketball and baseball teams.
- 2004 recipient of Boston College's Mall Scholar-Athlete Award.
- A communications major.

Atlanta Falcons radio play-by-play coverage stretches from Virginia to Mississippi on one of the NFL's largest radio networks (for a complete list of affiliate stations, go to www.atlantafalconsradio.com. WZGC-FM, Atlanta (92.9 DAVE FM) is the Falcons 100,000-watt flagship station, and provides more than eight hours of game day coverage, as well as other team-related programming. Falcons fans can hear daily updates and features year-round on 92.9 DAVE FM and CBS Radio sister station WVEE-FM (V-103).

WZGC-FM, Atlanta's 92.9, DAVE FM, is owned by CBS Radio and delivers true rock variety without traditional format restrictions. DAVE FM is committed to showcasing the Falcons as a centerpiece to its programming.

Veteran play-by-play announcer, Wes Durham (above left) enters his seventh season as the radio voice of the Falcons. He will split his time between the Falcons and Georgia Tech, where he enters his 16th season as the Yellow Jackets football and basketball play-by-play announcer. Durham is a six-time "Georgia Sportscaster of the Year."

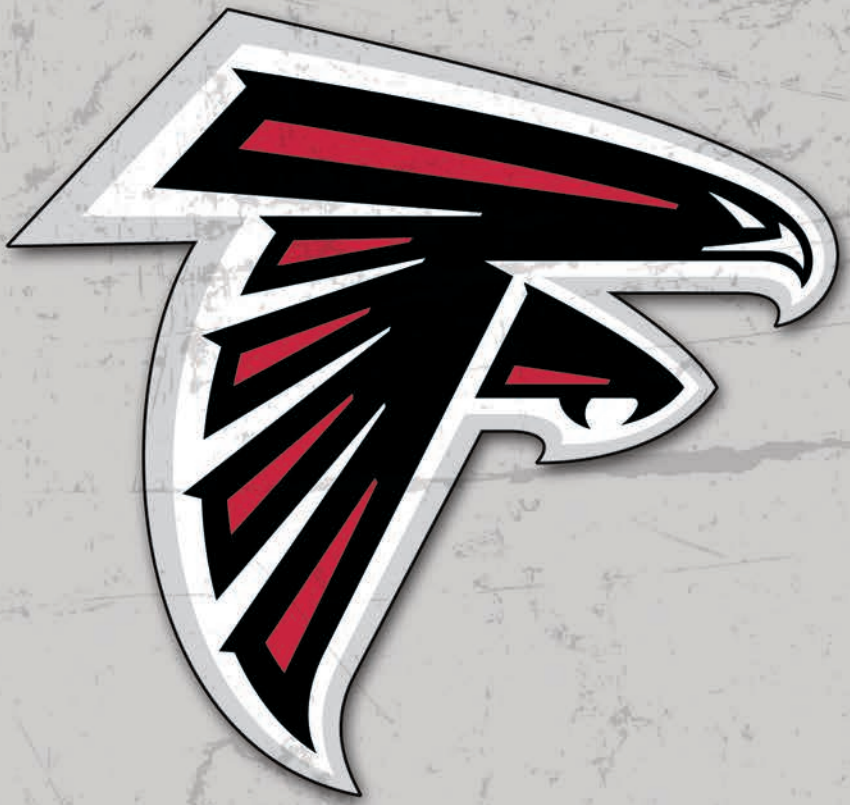
Former Falcons QB David Archer returns to the Falcons radio booth as color analyst. This will be Archer's seventh season as part of the Falcons radio network. During his NFL career, Archer spent four seasons in a Falcons uniform, and still holds one of the highest winning percentages in team history for a quarterback.

Jeff Van Note adds his wit and personality to the Falcons pre and post game shows again in 2009. Following an 18-year playing career with the Falcons, 'Noter' has spent 20 plus seasons as a Falcons broadcaster. Jeff still holds several team marks, and is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcon with six. Van Note was selected as the fifth member of the prestigious Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor in 2006. Chris Dimino of 790 the Zone and Elle Duncan of V103 join Van Note this year on pre and post game coverage.



History

RANKIN M. SMITH – TEAM FOUNDER

- "He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast." – Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

- Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

- Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

- Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

- Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

- Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

- He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetorical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequaled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24–17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a preliminary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3–11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27–16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

1967

A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1–12–1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

1968

Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2–12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

1969

The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6–8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24–12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton-County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48–31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45–17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reaves.

1970

The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4–8–2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20–7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1971

For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally-televised game with a 28–21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7–6–1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24–20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

1972

Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31–3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs

1973

Smashing 35 team records, the Falcons defeat New Orleans in the season opener, 62–7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20–14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9–5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out for the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30–7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10–3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3–11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

1975

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4–10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

1976

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17–10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4–10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

1977

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7–7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz". P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Rolland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

1978

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14–0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15–7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9–7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14–13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27–20 at Dallas after squandering a 20–13 halftime lead.

1979

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartkowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31–21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartkowski with 2,502 passing yards (203–379). The Falcons finish the year at 6–10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41–14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12–4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12–4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27–17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30–

27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartkowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro Bowl: Andrews, Bartkowski, Jenkins, C Jeff Van Note, T Mike Kenn and TE Junior Miller.

Trailing Green Bay 17–0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31–17 win. The team finishes the year at 7–9 and has a club-record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartkowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thielemann. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7–9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

1982

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5–4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff-clinching 17–7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21–13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30–24. T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann, C Jeff Van Note and RB William Andrews are selected to the Pro Bowl.

1983

The Falcons end the year with a 7–9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41–34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

1984

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36–28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4–12.

1985

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16–10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4–12. Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

1986

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7–8–1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48–10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21–20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively. The Falcons end the year with a 3–12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5–11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

1989

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3–9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3–13 mark.

1990

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4–0 with a 45–14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47–27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5–11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

1991

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10–6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26–13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

1992

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20–10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20–17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6–10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

1993

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6-10.

1994

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93-61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7-9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

1995

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9-7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL- mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19-14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarteback Bobby Hebert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

1996

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3-13 mark. A 31-15 victory over the Saints on December 8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

1997

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/ Head Coach. After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7-9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14-2 in 1998, specialized in quick

turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30–27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8–0 home mark, best overall record at 14–2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41–10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Championship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0–4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5–11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

2000

After a 2–1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4–12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7–7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons postseason hopes with a 21–14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31–13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7–9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6–4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23–20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on a 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6–4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor

Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jessie Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weakside linebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9–6–1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1–3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7–0–1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34–17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34–34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30–0 victory at the Dome and a 41–0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3–4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20–6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5–11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season. QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2–6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27–13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27–7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4–0 on their way to a 6–2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35–10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11–5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best a 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47-17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27-10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6-2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3-0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4-1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8-8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career-best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineuax, Chauncey Davis and Darrell Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

2006

Similiar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5-2 in first half of play only to limp to 2-7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7-9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

2007

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnered two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named

NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. Turner earned the honor on three occasions, while Ryan was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Oakland Raiders in Week 9 and wide receiver Harry Douglas was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 61 yards against Carolina in Week 12. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner was tied for second in the final NFL MVP voting as he finished second in the league in rushing (1,699 yards) while topping the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career. Turner also posted 17 rushing touchdowns, which set a new franchise record. White also logged a career year as he set a new franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards in a single-season while becoming the first wide receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns. Defensively, John Abraham set a new team record and a personal best with 16.5 sacks, topping the old record of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. At the conclusion of the year, Coach Smith (Coach of the Year), Matt Ryan (Rookie of the Year) and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff (Executive of the Year) all earned honors from Sporting News Magazine, becoming the first trio in the publication's 132-year history to sweep the awards.

The Falcons concluded the 2009 campaign with a 9-7 record and back to back winning seasons for the first time in the franchise's 44-year history, which includes an 11-5 record in 2008. Atlanta ended the season with three consecutive victories and a series sweep over NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay. After two seasons, Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith compiled a coaching record of 20-12 (.625), which is the second-best winning percentage for an Atlanta head coach in their first two seasons with the team. He sits behind Dan Reeves who totaled a 21-11 mark (.656) from 1997-98. As a starter, quarterback Matt Ryan finished the 2009 campaign with a 6-0 home record and after two seasons is 13-1 starting under center. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. Among other accomplishments, Gonzalez set the Falcons single-season reception record for tight ends with 83. Defensively, Jonathan Babineaux led the team with a career-high six sacks. Cornerback Brent Grimes finished the year with a team-leading six interceptions and safety Thomas DeCoud was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (6) for his performance against the Chicago Bears.

THE START
June 30, 1965

The NFL awards a franchise to 41-year-old Rankin M. Smith, Executive Vice President of Life Insurance Company of Georgia, for $8.5 million. At the time, there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger of the leagues.

THE NICKNAME
Aug. 29, 1965

"Falcons" was suggested by many, with reasons from a school teacher from Griffin, Georgia singled out. Miss Julia Elliott said: "the Falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops its prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition." A logo was designed by Wayland Moore Studios.

YOU NEED PLAYERS
Sept. 9, 1965

Halfback Bob Paremore and split end Gary Barnes, who had been in the NFL with the Cardinals and Bears, were the first two players to sign with the Falcons.

THE FIRST DRAFT
Nov. 27, 1965

With the first pick in the entire draft, the Falcons chose Outland Trophy winning linebacker Tommy Nobis from the University of Texas. After being drafted also by Houston of the AFL, he chose the Falcons on Dec. 14 and signed a contract. As the Falcons got two choices in each of the first five rounds, QB Randy Johnson of Texas A&I was the other first round pick by Atlanta. All told, the Falcons gained 25 players in the 20-round draft, the last one being defensive back Bob Riggle from Penn State.

THE HEAD COACH
Jan. 26, 1966

Norb Hecker, 39, left the Green Bay staff of Vince Lombardi to accept the job as the Falcons first Head Coach. He was with Lombardi seven years as they won three world titles and four conference titles. Gene Cronin, the Director of Player Personnel, deserves the distinction of being the first member of the Falcon organization named by Mr. Smith.

HEAD FOR THE MOUNTAINS
March 26, 1966

A YMCA Camp, Blue Ridge Assembly on Black Mountain, N.C. (near Asheville) is selected as the first summer training camp home.

THE MERGER OCCURS
June 8, 1966

The AFL and NFL agree to merge with a Championship Game to be played. The teams would not actually begin playing regular season games until 1970. Atlanta was assigned to the NFL's Western Conference, Coastal Division, with the Los Angeles Rams, Baltimore Colts and San Francisco 49ers.

THE FIRST PRACTICE
July 2, 1966

Training camp opened with some 130 players checking in for physicals and their chance to be an NFL player. One of the camp's visitors was Rev. Billy Graham, who lived just a few miles from the Blue Ridge Assembly. All told, 66 rookies reported with the vets checking in on July 9.

THE FIRST GAME
Aug. 1, 1966

Before 26,072 at Atlanta Stadium, Philadelphia claims a 9-7 win over the Falcons. Trivia fans might want to note that QB Dennis Claridge passed one yard to Tom Wilson for the Falcons first ever touchdown (second quarter) to provide a 7-6 halftime lead.

THIS GAME IS FOR REAL
Sept. 11, 1966

The Los Angeles Rams handed the Falcons a 19-14 loss before 54,418 at Atlanta Stadium. The Rams of George Allen were led by QB Roman Gabriel (294 yards). After a 16-0 lead, Atlanta rallied to make it 16-14 before a third quarter Rams field goal ended the scoring. Pregame ceremonies included Commissioner Pete Rozelle, Governor Carl Sanders, and Mayor Ivan Allen. Falcons running back Ernie Wheelwright ran for 91 yards and caught a pass for 25 more to lead the offense.

THE FIRST POINTS
Sept. 11, 1966

It was the second quarter when QB Randy Johnson hit Gary Barnes for a 53-yard touchdown to officially score the first points for the Atlanta Falcons.

THE FIRST OFFICIAL WIN
Nov. 30, 1966

After nine-straight losses, the Falcons claimed one for the W column at Yankee Stadium (62,746), 27-16. Former Giant Ernie Wheelwright scored two TD's receiving and ran for 51 more yards as QB Randy Johnson hit for a trio of TD's.

TYING AN NFL RECORD WITH FIRST HOME WIN
Dec. 11, 1966

The Falcons tied an NFL record for an expansion team (Minnesota) by winning a third game. This victim was the St. Louis Cardinals, 16-10, before 57,169. The second win had been at Minnesota with Bobby Riggle returning an interception 62 yards for a touchdown.

ATLANTA'S FIRST ALL-PRO
Dec. 15, 1967

Linebacker Tommy Nobis was named to the AP All-Pro team, a Falcons first. This honor followed his Rookie of the Year performance in 1966 (Bert Bell Award and Pro Football Writers Association).

A NEW REGIME
Oct. 1, 1968

Norm Van Brocklin, formerly head coach of the Vikings, is named to replace Norb Hecker after three games of the season. Two weeks later, his Falcons beat New York, 24-21, in the first meeting between Van Brocklin and his former QB, Fran Tarkenton.

STARTING ON THE RIGHT FOOT
Sept. 21, 1969

Falcons win first season opener ever, beating 49ers, 24–12, before home fans. Rookie Tight End Jim Mitchell scored two TD's and club set team record with 229 yards rushing.

TRIPLE PLAY
Dec. 7, 1969

Harmon Wages had a game to remember in this 45–17 rout of the Saints. The second year back threw for a TD in the first quarter (16 yards to Flatley), then caught a pass for a TD in the second quarter (88 yards), and then ran for a TD in the fourth quarter (66 yards).

A PASSING FEAT
Sept. 27, 1970

In Week Two at Green Bay, QB Bob Berry sets club records with the Franchise's first 300-yard passing game (28–44 for 302), but Packers rally for 27–24 win.

CANNONBALL EXPLODES
Oct. 4, 1970

Jim "Cannonball" Butler, just one week after Berry's passing record, sets a new club rushing record in the home opener against the 49ers. The seven-year veteran set two club records that day. One was for most yards (127 on 17 carries), the other was for most fumbles (4).

NATIONAL TV!
Nov. 30, 1970

Over 30 million Monday Night TV viewers saw their first game from Atlanta as the Miami Dolphins came to town with ABC-TV. Larry Csonka (108) and Mercury Morris (76) ran away with a 20–7 Miami victory.

A HALL OF FAMER
Feb. 23, 1971

Coach Norm Van Brocklin is elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

CATCH THIS ACT
Oct. 3 and Dec. 19, 1971

Rookie sensation Ken Burrow made more yardage receiving in one game than any NFC receiver, and he wrote his name in the club record book TWICE. He had 190 yards at Detroit and duplicated that feat at New Orleans. All of this was done playing the final 11 games with a broken wrist.

A WINNING SEASON
Dec. 19, 1971

In dramatic fashion with 40 seconds left, the Falcons score to beat New Orleans, 24–20, to finish the season at 7–6–1, thus giving them the first winning season in club history.

A COAST TO COAST WIN
Nov. 22, 1971

Falcons win their first Nationally televised game with a 28–21 triumph over Green Bay in Atlanta on Monday Night Football.

"UNOFFICIAL" 1,000
Dec. 17, 1972

Dave Hampton technically was the club's first 1,000-yard rusher. At Kansas City, the veteran running back scampered around end for his 1,000th yard. However, his next carry was a six-yard loss and his final carry a one-yard gain. Thus, he ended at 995, never officially getting his name in the Falcon record book.

LIGHTING UP SCOREBOARD
Sept. 16, 1973

"HARD LUCK" HAMPTON AND FALCONS
1973 Season

After missing by five yards for a 1,000-yard season in 1972, Dave Hampton comes even closer in 1973.

Needing 87 yards in the finale, he gets just 84 and finishes three yards shy of the magic number. The Falcons are equally close, finishing 9–5 for their most wins and best record ever, but losing out for the playoffs by one game.

TRADING FOR THE FUTURE
Jan. 27, 1975

In order to obtain the rights to the number one pick in the college draft, the Falcons send offensive tackle George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore. Falcons also got a 6th round pick (and took LB Fulton Kuykendall).

THE FUTURE IS HERE
Jan. 28, 1975

With that top choice, the Falcons select all-America QB Steve Bartkowski from California.

HOORAY FOR HAMPTON
Dec. 21, 1975

RB Dave Hampton becomes first Falcon to gain 1,000 yards rushing (1,002) with 61 in final game vs. Green Bay.

FRONT OFFICE MOVES
Feb. 1–3, 1977

Former NFL quarterback Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager, with Rankin M. Smith, Jr. assuming the title of President. Two days later, Leeman Bennett, a Rams assistant becomes fifth Head Coach in club history.

ZERO HOUR
Nov. 27, 1977

In shutout of Bucs, Falcons set club record by allowing just 78 total yards. It is also the second '0' performance by the defense on the season, also a club first.

NFL RECORD!
1977 Defense

With 35–7 final win over Saints, Falcons establish new NFL modern day record for 14-game season by allowing just 129 points all year as club finishes 7–7.

JUNE JONES, GRITZ BLITZ GO NATIONAL
Oct. 30, 1978

In their first national TV game in four years, the Falcons lose Bartkowski in 2nd quarter. Enter June Jones, kicker Tim Mazzetti's five field goals, and the hard hitting Gritz Blitz defense and you have a 15–7 upset of the Rams.

"BIG BEN RIGHT"
Nov. 12, 1978

With 2:23 remaining the Falcons were trailing 17–6 at their own 20-yard line at New Orleans. An 80-yard march made it 17–13 with 59 seconds left. With 19 seconds left, Bartkowski threw 57 yards into a cluster where Alfred Jackson caught a pass deflected by Wallace Francis and the Falcons clock struck victory.

CLINCHING A PLAYOFF BERTH THE EASY WAY
Dec. 15, 1978

When Redskins lose to Bears, Falcons are ensured their first playoff berth. The next day, L.A. beat Green Bay to give the Falcons a home field game.

DEALING THE WILD CARD
Dec. 24, 1978

With two TD's in the final eight minutes, the Falcons overcame the rainy weather to win their Playoff game over the Eagles, 14–13. The Christmas Eve present to the fans was not complete until the Eagles missed a 34-yard FG in the final seconds. Merry Christmas!

VALIANT UNDERDOGS
Dec. 30, 1978

As 14-point underdogs in Texas Stadium, the Falcons came ready to win. They jumped out to a 20–13 halftime lead and knocked QB Roger Staubach unconscious just before the half. The home-team Cowboys regained the lead 27–20 as the Falcons marched for a tying score. With 4th-and-1 at the Cowboy 32, the Falcons came up inches short and never got the ball back.

WILIAM WHO?
Sept. 2, 1979

Third-round draft choice William Andrews made his NFL debut memorable with a 167-yard effort in a 40–34 overtime win at the Superdome. Each team gained over 500 yards offense before Falcons won with special teams interception TD.

ADDING UP THE TOTALS
Dec. 16, 1979

Records were broken for the season by William Andrews with 1,023 yards, by Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Steve Bartkowski with 2,502 yards (203–379).

THE BIGGER THEY ARE, THE HARDER THE FALL
Sept. 28 – Oct. 5, 1980

Undefeated opponents fall on successive weekends to the Falcons. First, the 49ers are upset 20–17 at Candlestick, then with a record-breaking 34-point first half, the Lions fall, 43-28.

HOW THE WEST WAS WON
Dec. 14, 1980

Steve Bartkowski's 28th, 29th and 30th TD passes, William Andrews, sixth 100-yard game and a rugged defense led to a 35-10 rout of the 49ers and the Falcons had earned their first-ever NFC Western Division Title. The win was the Falcons ninth straight and 12th of the season, both club bests.

ALOHA
Feb. 1, 1981

Record six Falcons selected to Pro Bowl as Bartkowski passes for new high 178 yards (55 TD to Alfred Jenkins) to lead NFC to 21-7 win.

SEEING IS BELIEVING
Sept. 13, 1981

Green Bay Packer fans were enjoying a 17-0 lead after three quarters, but no one knew what was in store next. In a nine-minute span, the Falcons erupted for an NFL record tying 31 points (4 TD's, 1 FG) to win 31-17.

GOOD NEWS, BAD NEWS
Sept. 20, 1981

Atlanta fans were treated to a 34-17 thumping of the rival 49ers (soon to be Super Bowl bound) and the fastest start in club history, 3-0. The Falcons had now won 12 of the last 13 regular season games and 14 of last 15. Tommy Pridemore even set a club record with a 101-yard interception return. The bad news: three starters were lost in a five-minute span (LB Joel Williams, DE Jeff Merrow and T Warren Bryant).

NUMBERS TO REMEMBER
1981 Season

The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they were 7-9. The defeats were by 1, 2, 2, 3, 3, 3, and 5 points. Individually, records were set by Steve Bartkowski (3,830 yards), William Andrews (81 catches), Alfred Jenkins (1,358 yards, 13 TD's - 3 in one game), and Mick Luckhurst (114 points). A team high seven Falcons are picked for the Pro Bowl.

BACK ON TRACK
Nov. 21, 1982

In first game after strike, William Andrews gains 207 yards (119 rush, 88 rec.) and rookie Gerald Riggs scores his first two NFL TD's in 34-17 win over Rams. Falcons are 2-1 and thinking playoffs in short season.

A NATIONAL CLINCH
Dec. 19, 1982

With a powerful 17-7 win over the Super Bowl Champion 49ers before a national Sunday Night audience, the Falcons become third NFC team to clinch a playoff berth as they up record to 5-2. Atlanta controlled ball for 43 minutes to 17 for 49ers and ran the ball 57 times for 223 yards.

INDOOR PLAYOFFS
Jan. 9, 1983

Falcons journeyed to Minnesota's Metrodome for the opening round Playoff game and led 7-3 after one quarter and 21-16 after three quarters, but Vikings rallied for 30-24 win. In an oddity, all 24 Falcon points were scored by the special teams (blocked punt for TD, pass to Luckhurst for TD, and FG) and the defense (Glazebrook TD interception).

A TWO-TIME HERO
Nov. 27, 1983

Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two TD's in the same game with interceptions. His first one put the Falcons ahead of Green Bay, 41-34, but the Pack came back to force overtime. With another chance to be the hero, Johnson returned an interception 31 yards to win the game.

STATS TO REMEMBER
Dec. 18, 1983

William Andrews sets new club record with 331 rushes for 1,567 yards, Steve Bartkowski has third 3,000-yard season and sets mark with 63.4% completion rate and just 1.1% interception rate (5 in 432), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon.

A NEW LEADER
Sept. 2, 1984

Gerald Riggs gets the starting call and sets a then club records with 35 attempts for 202 yards in 36-28 opening win at the Superdome in New Orleans.

A CATCHY RECORD
Dec. 2, 1984

Receiver Alfred Jackson broke the club record with 11 catches for 193 yards vs. San Francisco in 35-17 loss.

"WHITE SHOES" IS #1
Sept. 8, 1985

Billy "White Shoes" Johnson becomes the NFL's all-time career punt returner with 58 yards against Detroit.

DETERMINED GERALD
Dec. 22, 1985

With 158 yards in the 16-10 win over New Orleans, Gerald Riggs had a club best nine 100-yard games and a season record 1,719 yards to lead the entire NFC.

A RECORD START
Sept. 1986

The Falcons came out roaring with four straight wins over New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. The Cowboys game featured a 10-point rally with a game-winning FG with 20 seconds left and the Bucs game featured a 20-7 come-from-behind win with an overtime FG the decider. Gerald Riggs ran for a touchdown in each game to tie a club mark. The opener also featured the return of William Andrews after a two-year layoff following knee surgery.

A NOTE OF THANKS
Dec. 14, 1986

It was Jeff Van Note day at Atlanta Fulton County Stadium as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, he was presented gifts, including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his #57 and being a classic). Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PAT's.

RIGGS' RECORD BREAKING DAY DOOMS DALLAS
Dec. 6, 1987

Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher, surpassing William Andrews with a five-yard run in the third quarter at Dallas, giving the six-year pro from Arizona State a career total of 5,987 yards. Riggs finishes up the day with 119 yards to help the Falcons break a seven-game losing streak and knock the Cowboys out of the playoffs for the second straight year with a 21-10 victory in Texas Stadium.

MAKING A CASE FOR HIMSELF
Nov. 6-27, 1988

CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case intercepted five passes (two each vs. Packers and Raiders), registered a forced fumble and QB sack and made 20 tackles with nine passes defensed to help the Falcons to a 3-1 record during the month.

SETTLE-ING FOR A PLACE IN HISTORY
Dec. 18, 1988

RB John Settle put his name in the League's record book by becoming the first undrafted free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 66 yards against the Saints to finish with 1,024. Paul Lowe (Chargers) and Clem Daniels (Raiders) of the AFL were the only other undrafted players to accomplish the feat (in 1963 and 1965). The former Appalachian State star was fourth in the NFL in total yards (1,594) and the club leader in receptions with 68 as he garnered his first trip to the Pro Bowl.

A CASE OF A PERFECT 10
Dec. 18, 1988

CB Scott Case picked off his 10th pass of the year against the Saints to finish atop the NFL charts. Case set a new Falcon record for interceptions in a season eclipsing the old mark of nine by Rolland Lawrence in 1975. The Oklahoma product stole seven passes in the second half of the season when the Falcons defense began to gel.

PRIME TIME SCORES TWICE
1989

Deion "Prime Time" Sanders ends his lengthy Sept. contract holdout and reports to camp. He takes a Friday practice and Saturday walk through and puts on the football pads for the first time in seven months in the season opener vs. the Rams. In the first quarter, Deion returns his second career punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier that week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a HR and score a TD in the same week.

GOOD JOB
Dec. 1989

Guard Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl (the only guard in the NFL to do so). Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while fellow rookie Deion Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie DB's with five thefts and gaining over 1,000 yards in returns.

BACK IN BLACK
March 20, 1990

The Falcons announce plans for their 25th Anniversary season that include going back to their original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the 25th anniversary logo patches for the uniforms.

SHOWSTOPPING TRADE
April 20, 1990

With the number one pick overall in the draft, the Falcons deal with the Colts for six-time Pro Bowl lineman, Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison, and next year's #1 pick.

THAT'S SUPER
May 23, 1990

Falcons owner Rankin Smith leads the way in securing Super Bowl XXVIII for the city of Atlanta at the NFL Owners Meetings in Dallas.

NATIONAL TV
Oct. 28, 1990

With a national TV audience watching for the first time since 1984, the Falcons storm the Cincinnati Bengals, 38–17. The prime time viewers see "Prime Time" Deion Sanders set a club record with a 79-yard punt return TD in what was TNT's highest rated game of the season.

TWO-TIMER
Jan. 30, 1991

CB Deion Sanders becomes both an Atlanta Brave and an Atlanta Falcon as he signs a baseball contract. He's the first to play two sports in the same city in 30 years.

BIG BEN III RINGS
Nov. 3, 1991

QB Billy Joe Tolliver, subbing for injured Chris Miller, lofted a 44-yard "Big Ben" pass caught in a crowd of seven players by WR Michael Haynes with nine seconds remaining. That gave the Falcons a 17–14 victory and season sweep over the San Francisco 49ers. San Francisco had just taken the lead with only 53 seconds left in the game.

COMING UP 3'S
Nov. 17, 1991

The Falcons go on a scoring spree in the second quarter and set a new club record for most points in one quarter with 33. WR Andre Rison scores 3 TD's (18 of the 33 points) with scores of 39, 12 and 15 yards. Rison also tied a club record for most points scored by an individual in a game. The 33 in a quarter were seventh highest ever in NFL history.

WEST COAST SWEEP

Atlanta recorded an NFL rarity by sweeping all western opponents either on the road or at home. The Falcons were 7–0, defeating the Rams and the 49ers twice, along with the Raiders, Chargers and the Seahawks. Atlanta was the only team in 1991 to defeat the 49ers in Candlestick Park.

LONG FLIGHTS

WR Michael Haynes led the entire NFL in average yardage per catch with a 22.4 rate (the NFL's highest since 1983). Mike had 50 receptions on the year for 1,122 yards and 11 touchdowns. His 11 touchdown catches averaged 44.9 yards per play as he recorded 12 receptions over 30 yards.

PRINCE OF THIEVES

CB's Deion Sanders and CB Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six thefts apiece.

THE TUGGLE STRUGGLE
1991 Season

Falcon LB Jessie Tuggle, who had over 200 tackles the previous two seasons, had led the entire NFL in tackles, only to be forgotten when All-Pro teams and Pro Bowl selections were made. A 1992 Pro Bowl selection rejection, Tuggle was finally recognized as a first team All-Pro pick by Sports Illustrated.

ROAD KILL
1991 Season

The Falcons made club history as they swept through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Rams 31–14 in Anaheim, dropping New Orleans in overtime 23–20 at the Superdome, and by giving the 49ers their only loss in 1991 at Candlestick Park 39–34. This was the first time ever the birds had beaten all their division rivals on the road.

ONE LAST TIME A FINAL GAME OUTDOORS
Dec. 15, 1991

A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons' final home game of the 1991 season, as well as the birds' final game in Fulton-County Stadium. Atlanta defeated the Seattle Seahawks 26–13, to run their home win streak to five straight. NFL thieves Tim McKyer and Deion Sanders combined on a 55-yard interception and lateral for a memorable touchdown. On hand with the 59,000 fans were entertainer MC Hammer, World Heavy Weight Champion Evander Holyfield, singer Wayne Newton, and popular country group Diamond Rio.

PLAYOFF WIN
Dec. 29, 1991

On the road at arch-rival New Orleans on ABC's in the fourth quarter, then CB Tim McKyer ended any suspense by intercepting a pass.

THE FIRST GAME IN THE NEW DOME
Aug. 23, 1992

A sold-out crowd (66,834 actual) and a national TV audience (ABC) on this Sunday afternoon saw the Falcons win the first-ever game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. While Eagles' Ian Howfield kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first points ever, the Falcons hooked up on their first play in the Dome for a 76-yard TD pass - Chris Miller to Michael Haynes. All fans received a special souvenir ticket and commemorative pin.

THIS FIRST ONE COUNTS AS A "W"
Sept. 6, 1992

In the regular season opener in the Dome, the Falcons scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before a sellout of 65,585. The first play saw rookie RB Tony Smith run for 32 yards and the first points came on a Norm Johnson 25-yard field goal. Just 17 seconds later, the Falcons scored the first TD in the Dome on a Chris Miller to Michael Haynes pass of 14 yards. Miller and Haynes hooked up again on an 11-yard play later in the first quarter as the Birds ran up a 17-0 lead. In the second period, Norm Johnson tied a club record with a 54-yard field goal. Miller's 72% passing (21-29) and 117 yards from the ground game led the Falcons to victory.

DOUBLE DUTY
Oct. 11, 1992

Deion Sanders pulled off yet another first by participating in two pro sports in the SAME DAY. On Saturday night, he played in the Braves playoff game in Pittsburgh, flew to Miami to play for the Falcons, then flew back to Pittsburgh for a game Sunday night. His presence helped the Falcons hold Dan Marino to a rare game without a TD pass, but the Falcons lost a 17-7 third quarter lead to bow, 21-17.

OF PASSING INTEREST
1992 Season

The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33 TD passes and became the only team to have 30 or more TD's in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the League. The Rison-Haynes tandem netted 21 TD's to lead the NFL for a second straight year (23 in '91). Mike Pritchard's 77 catches were the 5th most in club history, 9th in the NFL. Wade Wilson finished with three consecutive 300-yard games (324, 342, 374) and 10 TD's in those three games and two consecutive 30-completion games.

JUNE JONES NAMED HEAD COACH
Jan. 24, 1994

June Jones is named Atlanta's 10th head coach, replacing Jerry Glanville, who resigned following the 1993 season.

FALCONS LOSE LONGTIME FRIEND
Nov. 3, 1994

Whitey Zimmerman, the Falcons original equipment manager since 1966, passes away. Always a constant in the locker room, "Zeke" will always be remembered as former Falcon Tommy Nobis stated as, the "Original Falcon."

111 CATCHES!
Dec. 24, 1994

Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season against Arizona, finishing the '94 campaign with a club-record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks third on Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to '95 Pro Bowl.

MIKE KENN RETIRES
Dec. 24, 1994

Offensive lineman Mike Kenn finally closes out 17-year NFL career after being drafted by the Falcons in 1978. His last game against Arizona was his 251st game played, ranking sixth on the NFL's all-time list. He played in five Pro Bowls and six playoff games.

I-85 RIVALRY BEGINS
Sept. 3, 1995

The new Carolina Panthers make NFL debut in Georgia Dome and jump out to a 10–0 lead. Atlanta then takes over, building a 20–13 lead on first drive of third quarter. But, Carolina hits on a 44-yard bomb with 26 seconds left to force overtime. The Falcons register their record-tying ninth QB sack of the game, forcing a fumble, and go on to quickly kick the game-winning 35-yard field goal.

MORTEN SETS NFL RECORD
Dec. 10, 1995

K Morten Andersen beats his old team again, but this time sets another NFL record in the process. Andersen establishes a new League mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game, including shots from 55, 55, and 51 yards, as Atlanta comes away with a 19–14 victory and sweeps the Saints for the first time since 1985.

national TV, the Falcons came from 10 points down to win their first-ever Playoff game away from home. New Orleans native Michael Haynes scored two touchdowns, including the game winning 61-yarder

PLAYOFF BOUND
Dec. 24, 1995

Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the world champion 49ers, 28–27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas eve. Bobby Hebert connects with Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone and dives in with 1:45 remaining. Hebert was filling in for an injured Jeff George, who was knocked out with a concussion and neck injury just before halftime. Atlanta finishes 7–1 at home, the second best home record in the NFL in '95.

FOUR 1,000-YARD PLAYERS
1995 Season

The Falcons establish an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including receivers Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039), and running back Craig Heyward (1,083). Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th QB in League history to have over 4,000 yards passing (4,143).

JAMAL ANDERSON HITS 1,000
Dec. 15, 1996

RB Jamal Anderson becomes the seventh Falcon in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season. Anderson had previously signed a three-year contract extension, taking him through the 1999 season.

JONES LET GO AS FALCONS COACH
Dec. 23, 1996

Head Coach June Jones was fired with two years left on his contract following Atlanta's 3–13 season in 1996. During his three years (1994–96), he compiled a 19–29 record and led the Falcons to a playoff berth in 1995.

REEVES BECOMES 11TH FALCONS HEAD COACH
Jan. 20, 1997

Dan Reeves becomes the 11th head coach in franchise history, signing a 5-year contract as Exec. VP of Football Operations/Head Coach. He quickly assembles an impressive staff, including Rich Brooks as Asst. Head Coach/Defensive Coord. and Hall of Famer Art Shell as Offensive Line Coach.

FALCONS OWNER RANKIN SMITH PASSES AWAY
Oct. 26, 1997

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally-televised game at Carolina on TNT. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions to his beloved city of Atlanta.

FALCONS FINISH SEASON 6–2 UNDER REEVES
1997 Season

After a difficult 1–7 start, the Falcons went 6–2 in their final eight games to finish 7–9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) behind Steve Young en route to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club-record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge.

SCORING BARRAGE
Oct. 4, 1998

The Falcons sweep the Carolina Panthers for the first time with a 51–23 rout and set an NFL record in the process. Atlanta scores three touchdowns in just 48 seconds, the fastest in NFL history since the 1970 merger.

"DIRTY BIRD" TAKES FLIGHT
Nov. 8, 1998

The Falcons defense forces a club record five New England turnovers and limits the Patriots to a new club record low of just 13 rushing yards but it's what happened on offense that creates a buzz. The "Dirty Bird" touchdown dance is born as originators, RB Jamal Anderson and TE O.J. Santiago, each score twice with Santiago celebrating with the new end zone dances. The fever the dance generates captivates a national following as well as brings the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene throughout the rest of the season.

NFC WEST CHAMPS ARE CROWNED
Dec. 20, 1998

Without their ailing coach (Dan Reeves, heart surgery), Atlanta wins a close 24–17 victory on the road against the Lions after trailing 14–0 at halftime to capture their 13th win of the season and their second NFC Western Division title in team history. The historic win also helps the Falcons clinch a first-round

EXCLAMATION POINT ON FINEST SEASON
Dec. 27, 1998

By pounding the Dolphins of Dan Marino in the season-finale, 38–16, the Falcons win their club record ninth-straight game to finish the regular season with a club-best 14–2 record, including a first-ever 8–0 home record. The birds play inspired football after a pre-game visit from Head Coach Dan Reeves. The "Bomb Squad" defense also sets a new mark by allowing just 1,203 rushing yards by opponents on the season and finishes atop the NFL's charts with 44 total takeaways. Jamal Anderson registers his new team record and NFL-high 12th 100-yard rushing game with 103 yards. Anderson also breaks James Wilder's NFL record for carries in a season with 410 en route to the ninth highest rushing total ever in a single-season in league history with 1,846 yards. The team accomplishes many "firsts", including most points in a season with 442 on the heels of a Falcon-best 53 touchdowns.

"DIRTY BIRDS" DANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP
Jan. 17, 1999

After a clutch 20–18 victory at home vs. San Francisco in the Divisional playoffs with Dan Reeves back on the sideline, Atlanta travels to 15–1 Minnesota for the right to go to Super Bowl XXXIII. The Falcons upset highly favored Minnesota in a hostile Metrodome Stadium, 30–27, in overtime in one of the most memorable Championship games ever in NFL history. Atlanta fights back from a 10 point 4th quarter deficit by shutting down the NFL's record breaking Vikings offense with stingy defense and turns the table with an potent offense of their own. QB Chris Chandler throws a bullet to WR Terance Mathis in the end zone from 16-yards out with :49 seconds left to tie the score. Minnesota wins the coin toss in OT but Atlanta's defense is stout and holds the Vikes in the extra period on two occasions. K Morten Andersen delivers "The Kick" from 38-yards out with 11:52 elapsed in overtime to claim the club's first-ever NFC Title and a trip to Super Bowl XXXIII as a wild "Dirty Bird" celebration erupts in the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia.

FALCONS FALL SHORT IN FIRST SUPER BOWL
Jan. 31, 1999

Almost all of the Falcons' traditional factors for success in the 16-win season eluded them in a 34–19 loss to the Broncos. But the lasting images of the finest season in team history could not be diminished. Reeves is named NFL Coach of the Year and the birds send six players to the Pro Bowl (RB Jamal Anderson, QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle, T Bob Whitfield).

MATHIS SETS MILESTONE
Oct. 25, 1999

WR Terance Mathis breaks the club record for career receptions in grand style at Pittsburgh on Monday Night Football, moving past Andre Rison (423), as he hauls in 12 catches for 166 yards to push his total to 427. He eclipses Rison's record with a two-yard catch on the fourth play of the fourth quarter.

MATHIS ADDS ANOTHER RECORD
Sept. 17, 2000

WR Terance Mathis becomes the club's all-time leader in receiving yards, surpassing Alfred Jenkins' mark of 6,257, by totatling 42 yards (on five catches) at Carolina. He establishes the record in the fourth quarter on a 15-yard reception to push his record totals to 6,262. Mathis now holds the record for career catches and yards in team history.

FALCONS MAKE VICK THE PICK
April 21, 2001

The Falcons trade WR/KR Tim Dwight, their #1 pick (5th overall) and 3rd pick in 2001, as well as a 2nd round choice in 2002, to San Diego for the #1 overall selection (a day before the NFL draft). With the top choice, Atlanta tabs QB Michael Vick of Virginia Tech. Excited fans in the thousands create a buzz by driving to the Falcons' new facility in Flowery Branch, Ga. for the team's draft day party to celebrate the choice. It marks the fourth time in franchise history that Atlanta selects the #1 overall player in a draft, following LB Tommy Nobis in 1966, QB Steve Bartkowski in 1975 and LB Andray Bruce in 1988.

"NOBLE WARRIOR" LAYS DOWN HIS HAMMER
Aug. 28, 2001

One of the all-time Falcon greats, Jessie "The Hammer" Tuggle, retires after a brilliant 14-year playing career. Tuggle played his entire football career in the state of Georgia from Griffin High School to Valdosta State to the Atlanta Falcons. "The Hammer" pounded out a team record 2,065 tackles in 209 games played, the third-most ever in team history. His 14 seasons played and 189 starts also are the third-highest total in team annals. Tuggle was honored with five Pro Bowl invitations from his peers (1992, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998) during his consistent career that included 12 straight 100-taqckle seasons. Tuggle's place in Falcons history is even more special among his many fans because of his endearing commitment to the Atlanta community over the years. Fittingly, Tuggle's #58 jersey is honored by the team, because he will always be revered for his work on and off the field for the Falcons.

TRAGEDY FORCES NFL TO POSTPONE GAMES
Sept. 11, 2001

Commisioner Paul Tagliabue postpones all NFL games for the week of Sept. 16 after terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on Sept. 11. The Falcons' contest at St. Louis is re-scheduled for Jan. 6, 2002 as the regular season finale. Atlanta management quickly arranges a flag football game to be played one week after the attacks with proceeds benefitting the families of New York firefighters and police officers. With the help of Falcons fans, players, coaches and Falcons front office staff, the succesful event raises over $243,000 as several thousand fans showed up at the team's facility, and supporters continued to send in donations even weeks after the event.

MATHIS BREAKS TOUCHDOWN MARK
Sept. 30, 2001

WR Terance Mathis places his name again in select company by breaking Andre Rison's club record of 56 career touchdowns at Arizona. Entering the contest with 55 career touchdowns, Mathis catches two scoring passes against the Cardinals to total 57 in his career (since 1994) to help the birds to a 34-14 victory. He already owns Falcons career marks for receptions and receiving yards. Mathis tied Rison at 56 touchdowns by hauling in a 17 yard scoring pass in the first quarter. The record breaking score came on a 10-yard touchdown in the third quarter when Mathis caught a pass over the middle near the Arizona goal line and ran over two Cardinal defenders for the score and the record.

FALCONS OWNERSHIP TO CHANGE HANDS
Dec. 6, 2001

For the first time in 36 years, the Falcons will be owned by someone other than the Smith family as Arthur M. Blank reaches a preliminary agreement to purchase the team from Taylor Smith. Blank, co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, is a passionate sports fan, a Falcons season-ticket holder and has been a resident of Atlanta since 1978.

BROOKING REWARDED WITH PRO BOWL NOD
Jan. 31, 2002

LB Keith Brooking is selected to his first Pro Bowl as the NFC's "need" player by Head Coach Andy Reid of the Eagles. Brooking made the switch from weakside linebacker to middle linebacker in 2001 to fill the void left by the retirement of Jessie Tuggle. Brooking finished with a team-leading 167 total tackles, surpassing his previous season-best of 95 tackles in 1999. The 167 stops are the most by a Falcon since Tuggle's 184 tackles in 1996.

SALE OF THE FALCONS APPROVED
Feb. 2002

In a special meeting in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners vote unanimously to approve the sale of the Falcons to Arthur Blank. "We want to create an organization that has a unique and special bond with the community," stated Blank after the sale was approved. "I personally will not rest until I have a chance to wear a Super Bowl ring on behalf of everybody in Atlanta and in the state of Georgia." At his press conference, Mr. Blank announces a new three-year contract for Head Coach Dan Reeves. On February 12, 2002, the sale of the franchise to Mr. Blank by the Smith family is completed. This marks the end of an era for the Smith family, who were pioneers in bringing professional football to the Southeast.

PASS THE MAGIC
2002 Season

After a sluggish 1-3 start, the Falcons become one of the hottest stories of 2002 as they mount an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7-0-1). Included in the Falcons run of success were a pair of victories over division rival New Orleans, who started the season 6-1, a pair of shutout wins (30-0, 41-0) over division rival Carolina and a 34-34 tie at Pittsburgh in which the Falcons overcame a 17-point deficit in the fourth quarter to force overtime and the eventual tie.

DOME SWEET DOME
2002 Season

For the first time in 10 years the Falcons sold out all eight of their regular season home games and they increased their season ticket base by more than 100 percent, which set an NFL record for the highest rate of increase in new season tickets sold. Included in the Falcons eight home games were three of the top 10 crowds in team history.

VICK RUNS INTO NFL RECORD BOOK
Dec. 1, 2002

Falcons QB Michael Vick single-handedly leads the Falcons to an OT victory over the Minnesota Vikings by establishing a new NFL rushing record for quarterbacks with 173 yards on 10 carries. He also set the NFL record for the highest per-carry average in a single game (17.3 yards). His 46-yard touchdown dash in overtime not only propelled the Falcons to a 30-24 victory, but also set the record for the longest run by a Falcons QB in team history.

FALCONS MAKE HISTORY IN GREEN BAY
Jan. 4, 2003

Despite losing three of their last four games of the regular season to end with a 9–6–1 record, the Falcons still managed to get into the playoffs thanks to some outside help. Facing seemingly insurmountable odds, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in a playoff game at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 victory. Entering the game, the Packers had never lost a home playoff game in 13 tries. A solid performance by Vick, who accounted for 181 combined yards, a stingy outing by the Falcons defense, which forced five turnovers, and an opportunistic special teams unit, which blocked a punt for a touchdown and forced a fumble to set up another, would be all the Falcons would need. It marked the Falcons first playoff appearance and victory since the Super Bowl season of 1998.

FALCONS UNVEIL NEW LOGO
March 19, 2003

Before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons unveiled their new logo. The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

REEVES WINS 200TH GAME
Nov. 9, 2003

Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Reeves captures the 200th victory of his career as the Falcons defeat the New York Giants on the road 27–7. After the Falcons earned Reeves his 199th victory in the season's opening game against Dallas, the Falcons lost seven consecutive contests before snapping the losing streak against the Giants. Reeves became the seventh coach in NFL history to win at least 200 games in his career.

REEVES RELEASED FROM CONTRACT
Dec. 10, 2003

Arthur Blank announces that Falcons head coach Dan Reeves has been released from his contract and that defensive coordinator Wade Phillips will serve as interim coach for the final three games of the regular season. In his seven-plus seasons with the Falcons, Reeves accumulated a record of 49–69–1. He leaves the Falcons with the seventh-most wins (201) in NFL history.

MCKAY JOINS FALCONS
Dec. 15, 2003

Longtime Tampa Bay Buccaneers executive Rich McKay leaves the Buccaneers with two games remaining in the 2003 season to assume the role of Falcons president and general manager. Coincidentally, McKay was hired five days prior to the Falcons game against the Buccaneers in Tampa. It would be a pleasant homecoming for McKay as the Falcons upset the Buccaneers 30–28, knocking Tampa Bay from playoff contention.

JIM MORA NAMED HEAD COACH
Jan. 9, 2004

San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Jim Mora is named the 12th head coach in team history. At the time of his hiring, Mora is the third-youngest coach in the NFL at 42 years of age.

BIRDS CLINCH 3RD DIVISION TITLE WITH ROUT
Dec. 12, 2004

Jim Mora becomes just the 11th rookie head coach to win a Division title since 1970 as the Falcons rout the Oakland Raiders 35–10 to claim the NFC South championship. It marks the club's third division title in team history and first since 1998 in the old NFC West. The win also gives the Falcons their fourth 10-win season in team history. RB T.J. Duckett sets team records for most touchdowns scored and most rushing touchdowns scored with four, as well as most points scored in a single-game with 24. RB Warrick Dunn rushes for 103 yards, his eighth 100-yard game as a Falcon, QB Michael Vick completes a crisp 13–20 for 145 yards and DT Rod Coleman punctuates the win with a 39-yard interception return touchdown against his former team.

FIRST TIME LEAGUE LEADERS
2004 Regular Season

For the first time in team history the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing yards and establish a new team record with 2,672 yards. RB Warrick Dunn tops 1,000 yards with 1,106 and QB Michael Vick adds 902 rushing yards to the explosive ground game. The club also paces the League in QB sacks with 48.

SETTING THE (PLAYOFF) RECORD STRAIGHT
Jan. 15, 2005

In their first home playoff game since 1999, the Falcons do not take any prisoners and blow-out the Rams 47–17 in a Divisional Playoff game at home where records fall. The Falcons running game dominates with a club record 327 rushing yards, which is the fourth-highest in NFL postseason history. The defensive effort was equally impressive as Ed Donatell's unit does not allow a single point in the second half. The "DVD Backfield" of Warrick Dunn (142 yards rushing, 2 TD's), Michael Vick (203 combined yards) and T.J. Duckett (66 yards, 1 TD) account for all of record 327 rushing yards. Vick's 119 yards is the most ever by a quarterback in a postseason game and combined with Warrick Dunn's 142 yards the duo becomes only the fourth set of backs in the Super Bowl era to account for more than 100 yards in the same game. DE Brady Smith does not let up and sacks QB Marc Bulger for a safety and Duckett's four-yard touchdown run ends the scoring in the fourth quarter as the Falcons advance to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in team history.

FALCONS FALL SHORT IN SUPER BOWL CHASE
Jan. 23, 2005

The Falcons fall short in the NFC Championship Game in frigid tempertures at Philadelphia after only trailing 14–10 at halftime as their season ends with a 27–10 final verdict. Atlanta finishes the 2004 campaign with an overall record of 12–6 and provide Falcons fans with plenty of thrills. Jim Mora garnered votes for Coach of the Year, as well as winning NFC Coach of the Year. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season. Among the notable season achievements include leading the NFL in rushing with 2,672 yards and quarterback sacks with 48, both firsts in club history. RB Warrick Dunn (1,106 yards) goes over 1,000 yards and QB Michael Vick just misses with 902 yards, the third-highest rushing total for a quarterback in NFL history. Vick's three 100-yard rushing games ties the modern day record for most 100-yard games in a single-season by a QB and his career total now of five establishes a new record.

NEW SELL-OUT STREAK
Nov. 13, 2005

With their 29th straight sold-out Georgia Dome against the visiting Green Bay Packers, the Falcons break the old club record of 28 consecutive regular season sell-outs between 1971–74. The club enters the 2006 season with 41 sell-outs in-a-row (counting preseason and postseason) at home.

DOIN' IT RIGHT ON "MONDAY NIGHT"
2005 Season

The Falcons take full advantage of the most national exposure in team history by posting a perfect 3–0 record on Monday Night Football with victories over the Eagles (on opening weekend), Jets and Saints. The birds also add a big win at Detriot on FOX in their first game ever on Thanksgiving Day and only lose at Chicago on ESPN Sunday Night football for an impressive 4–1 record on nationally-televised contests.

THE GREAT DANE'S HISTORICAL BOOT
Dec. 16, 2006

K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer against Dallas in front of a nationally-televised audience on the NFL Network with his second extra point in the second quarter to move past Gary Anderson's old mark and into the record books with 2,435 points. (He boots four PAT's on the night in a 38–28 loss).

THE GREAT DANE CONNECTS AGAIN
Dec. 24, 2006

Morten Andersen puts his name in another NFL record book by breaking Gary Anderson's mark for career field goals a week later against Carolina. Andersen boots a 40-yard field goal in the first quarter at the Georgia Dome for his 539th of his career. (He finishes the season with 540 career, three-pointers.)

VICK SETS RUSHING STANDARD
Dec. 24, 2006

Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single-season against the Carolina Panthers on Christmas Eve at the Georgia Dome. Vick runs into the record books with an 18-yard scamper on the Falcons' first possession. Vick eclipses Chicago Bears QB Bobby Douglass' 1972 all-time mark of 968 yards the week before against Dallas. He finishes the season with 1,039 rushing yards.

BOBBY PETRINO NAMED NEW HEAD COACH
Jan. 7, 2006

The club releases Jim Mora from his contract on January 1, 2007 and appoints Bobby Petrino from Louisville as the 13th head coach in Falcons history. Petrino would abruptly quit after 13 games into his first season.

DUNN HITS A MILESTONE
Nov. 22, 2007

Falcons running back Warrick Dunn topped 10,000 career rushing yards in a game against Indianapolis, becoming the 22nd player in NFL history to accomplish the feat.

DIMITROFF AND SMITH AT THE HELM
Jan. 2008

The Falcons hire General Manager Thomas Dimitroff followed by Head Coach Mike Smith (14th in team history) to lead the Falcons. Smith joined the team following a five-year stint as Jacksonville's Defensive Coordinator while Dimitroff previously served as the Director of College Scouting for the New England Patriots.

WELCOME "MATTY ICE"
Apr. 26, 2008

Dimitroff and Smith draft quarterback Matt Ryan with the third overall selection in the NFL Draft. In his first season, Ryan was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and Sporting News as he threw for 3,440 yards and 16 touchdowns. His passing total ranks sixth in a single-season in Falcons annals as he became only the second rookie quarterback ever in NFL history to amass over 3,000 passing yards (Peyton Manning). Ryan became one of two rookie quarterbacks in the NFL since 2003 to start a regular season opener. He guided Atlanta to an 11-5 record, which made him the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to win 11 games. Ryan also became the first quarterback in club history to reach the 3,000-yard passing plateau. On his first career NFL passing attempt against Detroit in Week 1, Ryan found wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a 62-yard touchdown to become the first quarterback in the NFL since 2000 to throw a TD on his first career passing attempt. He led the Falcons to a 7-1 record at the Georgia Dome and guided the Falcons to a 6-2 mark in games decided by one score or less. Other accomplishments this season included NFC Rookie of the Month accolades (October) and NFC Player of the Week honors (Week 9 at Oakland). Ryan joined linebacker Tommy Nobis and defensive end Claude Humphrey as the only other Falcons to earn rookie of the year honors.

TURNER MAKES GREAT FIRST IMPRESSION
Sept. 7, 2008

After being signed as a free agent in the offseason, running back Michael Turner logged a franchise and career single-game high 220 rushing yards in his Falcons debut against Detroit. Turner's total led to a franchise single-game high 318 total yards. His rushing total was the most in NFL history by a player in his first game with a new team and fell 30 yards short of tying an opening day rushing record held by O.J. Simpson (250 yards in 1973).

ABRAHAM SACKS A RECORD
Dec. 21, 2008

With his lone sack against the Minnesota Vikings in Week 16 of the season, defensive end John Abraham set a new team record and personal best with 16.5 sacks in 2008. He topped the old mark of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. On three occasions, Abraham finished a contest with three quarterback takedowns.

In just one season, the Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The Falcons finished with a 7-1 home record and also earned road victories against Green Bay, San Diego and Minnesota. After finishing second in the NFC South, the Falcons earned a playoff berth, but fell to the eventual NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals.

TURNER AND WHITE REPRESENT FALCONS IN PRO BOWL

Running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first Pro Bowl selections since 2006. In his first year with the team, Turner posted 1,699 rushing yards, which ranked second in the NFL and produced eight 100-yard contests. He set franchise records with 17 rushing touchdowns in a season and a 220-rushing yard performance in the season opener versus Detroit. White became the first Falcons receiver to total back to back 1,000-yard seasons since 1998-99, while his 1,382 receiving yards set a single-season franchise record.

WHITE GOES OVER 200
Oct. 11, 2009

Wide receiver Roddy White finished a contest against San Francisco with eight receptions for a franchise record 210 yards (26.3 avg.). His total topped Terance Mathis' previous mark of 198 yards which he set against New Orleans in 1998. In the same game, White recorded a 90-yard touchdown reception which marked the third longest pass completion in Falcons history.

BACK TO BACK
Jan. 3, 2010

With a 20-10 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium in the season finale, the Falcons posted back to back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Following an 11-5 record in 2008, Atlanta closed the '09 campaign with three consecutive wins en route to a 9-7 record.

WHITE MAKES SECOND STRAIGHT VISIT TO PRO BOWL
Jan. 27, 2010

Wide receiver Roddy White was added to the 2010 NFC Pro Bowl roster, making his second consecutive appearance to the NFL's All-Star game. White led the team in receiving with 1,153 yards on 85 receptions and recorded a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to total three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. In a Week 5 meeting at San Francisco, White tallied a franchise single-game record with 210 yards while contributing with a 90-yard touchdown reception in that game.

1966–67
Black Jersey's with white numbers and red trim at home with a white Falcon crest on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with black numbers trimmed in red and a black Falcon crest on the sleeves. The Falcons had white pants with a red strip bordered by two black stripes for both home and away games. The helmet was red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in white, and there was a black strip trimmed in white down the middle of the helmet.

1968–70
In 1968, the Falcons removed the Falcon crest logo from the sleeves and replaced it with red and white stripes. Also, a red-black-red stripe combination was added to the sleeves.

1971–1989
In 1971, the Falcons switched to red jerseys for the first time and wore them all the way up to the 1989 season. The only other significant change to this uniform was the addition of silver-gray pants in 1978. Also in 1984, the Falcons switched to a black face mask. The home jersey was red with white numbers and black trim with white-black-white sleeve stripes. The away jersey was white with red numbers and black trim with red and black stripes on the sleeves. In 1979 the Falcon crest logo was added to the sleeves.

1990–2002
In 1990, the Falcons once again wore black jerseys as they did in their inaugural years. The 1990 season marked Atlanta's 25th anniversary season in the NFL, and the team wore a commemorative patch on their left shoulder. In addition, the Falcons switched to a black helmet with a black face mask and a white Falcon crest logo. From 1990–2002, the home jersey was black with white numbers trimmed in red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with red numbers trimmed in black with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The pants were Falcon silver with a black stripe down the middle trimmed in white and red.

2003 – PRESENT

The year 2003 continued to bring about many new changes for the Atlanta Falcons. Perhaps the biggest changes came with the introduction of the team's new logo and uniforms unveiled over the course of a two-month period.

On March 19, 2003, before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons presented their new logo.

2003-PRESENT

"The new Atlanta Falcons logo is fresh, strong and dynamic, and yet appreciates the tradition and history of this franchise," said Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank. "The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team."

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have "Falcons" stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team's alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20–14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of "Alumni Weekend." Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

2009 THROWBACK UNIFORMS

GEORGIA DOME

GEORGIA DOME (1992–present)
Falcons Home Record (74-54-0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community.Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super Bowl XXVIII played on January 31, 1994 between the Dallas Cowboys and the Buffalo Bills. The Georgia Dome hosted its second Super Bowl on January 30, 2000 between the St. Louis Rams and the Tennessee Titans.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966–91)
Falcons Record (85–106–2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primped for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

The Atlanta Falcons organization doesn't officially retire jersey numbers, but considers certain player's jerseys worthy of being honored. Currently, the Falcons do not use any of the jersey numbers honored below. The Falcons Ring of Honor which is featured in the rafters of the Georgia Dome honors individual players and not jerseys.

TOMMY NOBIS (1966-76) — 60

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in nine of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

JEFF VAN NOTE (1969-86) — 57

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1975-85) — 10

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

WILLIAM ANDREWS (1979-86) — 31

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

JESSIE TUGGLE (1987-2000) — 58

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer", for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.

LB JESSIE TUGGLE WAS HONORED AT GEORGIA DOME

The Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor pays tribute to retired players who made significant contributions to the organization during their playing careers. During the 2003 season, long-time Falcons season-ticket holders nominated a group of players they would like to see inducted into the Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor. The nine players receiving the highest number of nominations were then placed on a ballot for Falcons fans to cast their votes. The inaugural winners were QB Steve Bartkowski, LB Tommy Nobis, LB Jessie Tuggle and RB William Andrews.

In 2006, a local media contingent nominated four players; DE Claude Humphrey, T Mike Kenn, RB Gerald Riggs and C Jeff Van Note, for induction into the Ring of Honor. Falcons fans then voted and elected C Jeff Van Note as the fifth member of this exclusive club. On October 1, 2006, Van Note was honored at the Georgia Dome with a special halftime eremony as his likeness was raised to rooftops with the original four members. In it's latest Ring of Honor vote in 2008, defensive end Claude Humphrey and offensive tackle Mike Kenn became the sixth and seventh members to be hoisted in the Georgia Dome rafters.

The Falcons selected Bartkowski (1975-85), as the No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975 out of California. He was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. Bartkowski overcame numerous knee injuries to set every club record in passing, which included 23,468 yards and 154 touchdown passes in his 123 Falcons games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing, and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes.

Nobis (1966-76), was the first player ever drafted by the Falcons in 1966. Later that year, he became the first Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl in a season that also included Rookie of the Year honors. Nobis would go on to lead the Falcons in tackles in 9 of 11 seasons, including a team record of 294 tackles in 1966. A five-time Pro bowl selection, Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two of them for touchdowns.

Nicknamed "The Hammer" for the vicious way in which he pounded ball carriers, Tuggle (1987-2000) would go on to become the Falcons' career leader in tackles with 2,065 during his illustrious 209-game career. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Tuggle finished his career third on the team's all time lists in most seasons played (14), most games played (209) and started (189), fourth in most consecutive games played (110) and seventh in most consecutive games started (89). Tuggle led the Falcons in tackles for nine straight seasons from 1988-97 and recorded more than 100 tackles for a team record 12 consecutive seasons.

A third round draft choice of the Falcons in 1979 out of Auburn, Andrews (1979-86) was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended one of the NFL's great playing careers. Andrews set 19 Falcons records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards at New Orleans. In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), he outgained every other back in the NFL. During that span, he helped lead the Falcons to the playoffs three times, including their first division title in 1980.

Van Note, a six-time Pro Bowler, played the most seasons (18) and most consecutive games (155) in Falcons history. His 246 career games played and 225 overall starts are second in team annuals. Van Note continues to be a presence in the Atlanta community upon his retirement in 1986 with a broadcasting career that includes the Falcons radio network.

Humphrey was a first round pick by the Falcons in the 1968 NFL Draft and completed his career as the all-time sack leader in franchise history with 94.5. Humphrey also ranks third in Atlanta annals with 15.6 sacks in a single season. He is tied for the franchise lead with six Pro Bowl selections including five straight from 1970-74.

Kenn was a mainstay on the Falcons offensive line aas the Michigan alum holds Falcons records in most games played and started (251) while ranking second in most seasons played with Atlanta (17). Kenn also posted a streak of 94 consecutive games played and earned Pro Bowl selections from 1980-84.
